GOV. HADLEY CAN'T COME

NOT TO BE HERE FOR THE ELKS' CELEBRATION OF FLAG DAY, JUNE 14.

LETTER WAS RECEIVED FROM HIM TODAY

Writes W. M. Johns That on the Advice of His Physician He Must Decline All Invitations to Deliver Addresses.

A few days ago a delegation from the Sedalia lodge of Elks, consisting of W. M. Johns, W. D. Steele, J. W. Mellor, A R. Easton and C. C. Kelly, waited upon Governor Herbert S Hadley at the state capital and on behalf of the lodge extended to him an invitation to deliver an address here on June 14, when the Elks will observe Flag day with appropriate ceremonies at the Sedalia theater.

Governor Hadley was unable to give a definite answer at the time, but today a letter was received from him by Mr. Johns, regretting his inability to accept the invitation. The letter follows:

Office of the Governor, State of Missouri, City of Jefferson, May 18, 1909. Mr. W. M. Johns, Sedalia, Mo. Dear Sir: I have delayed answering your letter until after the adjournment of the legislature in the hope that I might then see my way clear to an acceptance.

In view of the great amount of work that I have been compelled to do in the last four months and the many duties of an official nature that I must attend to in the next two months, I am admonished by my physicians that I must deny myself the pleasure of accepting invitations such as yours.

I regret very much, indeed, that I do not feel that it is possible for me to accept your invitation, as I should enjoy being with you very much upon this occasion.

I wish to express again to you and those whom you represent my sincere apprecation of the compliment of this invitation. Very truly ours—H. S. Hadley.

WAS TAKEN TO THE HOSPITAL

William Ash, a Shopman Who Was Injured Last Night.

William Ash, a machinist's helper at the old Missouri Pacific shops, was seriously injured while at work at 7:30 o'clock last evening.

Mr. Ash is 55 years old. At the time of the accident he was assisting a machinist, when he was struck in the body with a pinch bar. Several ribs on the right side were broken and he was otherwise badly injured.

He was removed to the M., K. & T. railway hospital, where on examination, the physicians discovered he had been injured internally.

Accompanied by his daughter, Miss Atsey Ash, the patient was taken to the company's hospital at St. Louis at noon today.

RESIGNED POSITION HERE

J. Edward Speaker Will Travel for a Chicago House.

J. Edward Speaker, a watchmaker at the jewelry firm of Ormond & Klueber, has tendered his resignation, to take effect Saturday night, and soon afterward he will accept a position as traveling salesman for a large Chicago jewelry firm.

O. C. Dinelly, a watchmaker of Kansas City, has arrived in Sedalia to fill the vacancy.

Mr. Speaker has been employed by Ormond & Klueber for the past seven months, and no more efficient or well-liked young man ever made the Queen City his home.

May Release the Street Sweeper.

D. A. Landes, who was sentenced to three hundred days in jail by Police Judge Gresham Wednesday for drunkenness, disturbing the peace and associating with prostitutes, was put to work sweeping West Second street this morning.

Landes will possibly be liberated during the latter part of this month, provided he promises to leave Sedalia never to return.

Landes developed a severe attack of stomach trouble this afternoon and was taken from the street work and given the use of the corridor at the city bastile.

Dr. Barnum Had a Birthday.

Mrs. K. Raymond Barnum, of 1201 South Kentucky avenue, entertained ten guests at her home last night in honor of the birthday of her husband. Fortunes were told, games were played and other amusements enjoyed.

The menu was served in the form of a conundrum contest, each guest guessing the answer to a conundrum, and refreshments being served to fill the answer.

Suit Was Dismissed.

The partition suit of Maud Williams vs. Ella Stevens et al was dismissed in circuit court today.

A MINISTER IS SCORED

SENATOR ALLEE REBUKES REV. PALMER FOR CRITICISING SUBMISSION VOTE.

DIDN'T ACT AS BAPTIST BUT AS DEMOCRAT

Olean County Solon Defends Himself and Others for Democratic Support—Greene and Hall Also Rapped.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 20.—Dr. Allee, of Olean county, state senator, physician and past president of the Missouri State Medical association, stingingly rebukes Rev. Ray Palmer, of Jefferson City, who said that State Senators Greene, of Kansas City, Hall, of Sedalia, and Allee, of Olean, all Baptists, were responsible for the failure of the submission amendment.

In his letter, Dr. Allee says he voted against submission as a democrat and not as a Baptist, and as a representative of his senatorial district, and suggested that fewer such sermons as that preached by Dr. Palmer will be better for Missouri. Dr. Allee is well known and popular and his letter is generally indorsed.

In his sermon last Sunday, Rev. Palmer, pastor of the First Baptist church here, criticised the action of Senators Greene, Hall and Allee. Dr. Allee insists that the question of creed did not and could not enter into the matter.

LANDED A SPLENDID JOB

Watson W. Williams Appointed State Factory nspector.

A telephone message was received here today from Jefferson City announcing the appointment by Governor Herbert S Hadley of Watson W. Williams, of this city, as state factory inspector for a term of four years. The salary is $2,000 per annum, and the appointment becomes effective June 1.

Mr. Williams is a machinist by trade, and was for a long time employed as a foreman at the Missouri Pacific shops here. He resigned several months ago, and since that time has been pushing his claims for the appointment he received today.

"Wat," as he is best known to his friends here, is a young man of unblemished character, industrious in a marked degree, and those who know him best predict that he will serve the state most acceptably.

Who Mr. Williams will name as his deputies is not known, but it is currently reported that Mr. Louie F. Ritchie, of this city, will be one of the appointees.

CLOUDBURST AT CHARLOTTE

RAILROADS ARE PROSECUTED TO THE VERGE OF PERSECUTION IN MISSOURI.

MR. JAMES E. SMITH'S STIRRING ADDRESS

President St. Louis Business Men's League Says Demagogic Insistence on Ruinous Rates Hurts Everyone in the State.

St. Louis, Mo., May 20.—What was regarded by those who heard it as an arraignment of Governor Hadley for his attitude toward the railroads in the passenger rate cases was incorporated in a speech delivered by James E. Smith, millionaire and president of the Business Men's league, at a luncheon of the league in the Jefferson hotel yesterday.

There were about 250 members of the league present. W. W. Finley, president of the Southern railway, guest of honor, was among Mr. Smith's auditors. Mr. Finley spoke after Mr. Smith.

"The facility of transportation is the best evidence of civilization," said Mr. Smith.

"The officials of the state of Missouri have been prosecuting the railroads to the point of persecution. But to harrass the railroads is to hurt the business of everybody in the state.

"A tyrannical series of prosecutions, apparently for nothing but political prestige, has been carried on until the people of the state are disgusted. A suit actually has been filed to oust every railroad from the state of Missouri.

"Owing to these unfortunate conditions, only two of the seventeen railroads in Missouri are paying dividends. The senseless prosecutions already have cost Missouri more than $100,000, and nothing has been accomplished. It is safe to say they have cost the railroads that much, if not more.

"Even if the suits were won the people of the state would be the losers. The only object of these senseless prosecutions is to keep a few aspiring politicians in the limelight. The thing for the business men to do is to work together for a return to sane and sound conditions.

"Proper regulation of railroads is wise, but the senseless wave of antagonism now spreading over Missouri has gone too far.

"The demagogue who insists on ruinous rates is the enemy of every man, woman and child in Missouri. Everyone knows the railroads have stopped spending money except for actual operating expenses, and that this condition will continue until these prosecutions are stopped."

Will Attend Banquet Tonight.

Mr. Frank Leach, manager of the Home Telephone Co., is in Kansas City attending the annual meeting of the Missouri Independent Telephone association. The object of the meeting is to discuss ways and means of betterment of the independent systems in Missouri.

Mayor Crittenden, of Kansas City, gave the address of welcome and there will be a banquet tonight at the Coates house for the members of the association, there being two hundred and fifty present.

GIRL DEAD AFTER DRIVE

MISS CORNETT, SEAMSTRESS, OF ORAN, MO., POISONED IN COLORADO.

DRANK WINE WITH A MAN WHILE DRIVING

Abbott Waldron Drinks Stuff After the Coroner's Finding, Proving It Harmless—The Girl's Body Sent Home.

Colorado Springs, Col., May 20.—A wild ride at night with a young man, during which they drank from a bottle of wine, are features that figure in the mysterious death of Miss Jennie Cornett, a pretty seamstress.

Her body was sent to her old home at Oran, Mo., yesterday, after the coroner had decided that she died of paralysis, with morphine poisoning as a contributory cause

The young man, Abbott Waldron, a prosperous ranchman, is not connected with the affair by the authorities.

The circumstances were so unusual that not even the coroner is positive that it was not a case of suicide, although he inclines to the theory that the girl, addicted to morphine, had taken an overdose before meeting Waldron.

To test the wine, Waldron drank of it after the bottle had been turned over to the coroner.

Waldron's story is that when the girl became ill he returned from the ride, and she soon lapsed into unconsciousness, dying at 1 o'clock in the morning.

Will Meet With Mrs. Stanley.

The Women's Guild of Calvary Episcopal church will meet with Mrs. A. D. Stanley, 711 West Broadway, at 3 o'clock tomorrow (Friday) afternoon.

JOHNSON-O'BRIEN FIGHT

THEY HAD AN EVEN BREAK IN A BOUT AT PHILADELPHIA LAST NIGHT.

NEGRO IS SLOW AND SHORT OF CONDITION

White Fighter Displayed Dazzling Speed and Kept Away From Harm—Very Little Injury Done to Either Man.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 20.—Jack Johnson, the big colored heavyweight champion, failed to win over Jack O'Brien in a six-round bout last night. The fight was even and the concensus of opinion was that it should have been a draw had a decision been permissible.

O'Brien's marvelously fast footwork and his superior blocking saved him from damage in several close mixes, but three times he was forced to his knees by the great strength and weight of Johnson in the clinches. It was a fast fight, O'Brien doing the greater part of the leading.

Johnson was slow on his feet and appeared not to be in the best of condition. Repeatedly the champion rushed his smaller antagonist, but seldom landed effectively. A right hand counter in the fifth round cut O'Brien's right eye, and this was the sum total of the damage done in the six rounds.

O'Brien was in and out like a flash in nearly every round, stabbing Johnson in the face, but the blows lacked force and had no other effect than to make the black man grin and wave his hand at the crowd. The crowd shouted wildly every time O'Brien landed and hooted Johnson for his apparent rough work in the clinches.

Referee McGuigan said after the fight that O'Brien did remarkably well under the circumstances. He weighed 162½ pounds, while Johnson's acknowledged weight was 205 pounds, and it was probably more. Johnson looked tired and anxious in the fourth round, and O'Brien appeared confident throughout the bout. "He certainly fought a game fight" said McGuigan.

Johnson had nothing to say after the bout, except that he thought he had the better of it. O'Brien was enthusiastic over his showing. He said that he had accepted a proposal to meet Al Kaufmans in San Francisco in the near future.

DIVORCE ENDS ROMANCE

FORMER "KITTY" LIVINGSTON BRINGS SUIT IN MILWAUKEE, WIS.

PETITION TELLS A REMARKABLE STORY

Plaintiff Was a Society Girl Who Was Induced to Go to Chicago by Defeated Politician, Whom She Supported.

Chicago, May 20.—Another chapter in the remarkable romance of Mrs. Elmer Cain, formerly Miss Kitty Livingston, a society girl of Wauwatosa, Wis., was added yesterday when the young woman filed suit for absolute divorce against Elmer E. Cain in Milwaukee.

In her bill Mrs. Cain tells a remarkable story of alleged abuse and neglect on the part of Cain, who formerly was a member of the Wisconsin legislature and assessor of Wauwatosa.

The divorce suit recalled the arrest of Cain and Miss Livingston in Chicago last October, and of how the girl's mother practically compelled Cain to marry her daughter when it developed that he had compelled her to support him by begging in the streets.

Cain formerly was well known in Wisconsin politics. He failed for reelection as assemblyman and became assessor in his native town.

He became infatuated with Miss Livingston and finally induced her to come with him to Chicago.

WAS CAUGHT IN A WRECK

Mrs. Edna Burrowes Reeder in Colorado This Morning.

Mrs. Edna Burrowes Reeder, en route from Ashland, Ore., to Sedalia, wired her father, E. B. Burrowes, from Glenwood Springs, Colo., this forenoon, that she and her baby daughter, Elizabeth, were in a wreck on the Denver & Rio Grande railway early this morning, but neither was hurt.

Edgar T. Cutter, Associated Press agent at Kansas City, telephoned the Democrat-Sentinel just before noon that the accident referred to by Mrs. Reeder occurred at Wheeler, Colo., train No. 6, eastbound, running over the Colorado Midland tracks, having been derailed early this morning at Wheeler, when it encountered a broken rail.

The only persons seriously hurt, Mr. Cutter stated, were Conductor Gilmore and an unknown negro. Many of the passengers were more or less shaken up.

Mrs. Reeder and daughter are expected here tomorrow afternoon, and after a short visit will join Mr. Reeder at Sandy Hook, on the River route, where he is employed as a civil engineer for the Missouri Pacific.

AN ELKS BALL TEAM

Will Be Organized By Mr. Leist to Play Other Lodges.

The Elks lodge at their meeting last night authorized H. V. Leist to organize an Elks' ball team, to be entirely composed of members of the lodge in good standing and after sufficient practice to arrange games with other lodges.

Mr. Leist lined up plenty of good material for a team and has already written to several lodges for games.

These games should arouse a lot of local interest and be well patronized, since the team is composed of the young men of the lodge, all of whom are well known by Sedalians.

A WORD TO SUBSCRIBERS

Directed to Those Who Receive the Paper Outside Sedalia.

Owing to the illness and subsequent death of the late J. A. Bowers, country circulator of the Democrat-Sentinel, many of the subscribers upon whom he was accustomed to call, have gotten in arrears for their paper, and the management is now sending out statements to each and all, asking that they either remit by mail or call at the office and pay.

Those receiving these statements will understand that they are sent, not in the nature of a "dun," but simply to clear the way for Mr. Chas. Culp, the new circulator, to catch up with the work and enable him to get it into such shape that future notices will be unnecessary.

The Democrat-Sentinel will thoroughly appreciate the co-operation of its subscribers in this matter.

COMING HOME?

Back to Sedalia, the beautiful Queen City, and visit again the scenes of years gone by.

The Home Coming reunion will be held October 2, 3, 4 and 5, during the week of the Missouri state fair.

The semi-centennial of the founding of the city will be celebrated, and a grand welcome will be extended to all who gather to commemorate the event.

There are ex-Sedalians everywhere, but they will all be here again at the Home Coming.

WHAT THINK YOU OF THIS?

Yesterday the Sedalia authorities, indignant over the unspeakably vile actions of a young man in the city, meted out to him the most severe penalty possible under the law.

The punishment was unusual and almost as much of an humiliation as that inflicted at the public whipping post, and reminds one of the old days in which public stocks were common sights and the miserable creatures filling them the object of the curious gaze of every passerby.

Happily, those days are gone, those modes of punishment passed, and enlightened civilization has decreed that those who break the law shall no longer be exhibited to satisfy the idle curiosity of men and women or distort the morbid imagination of the unformed minds of the boys and girls attracted to the spot.

This man's actions were mean and low. He probably deserves the utmost of public condemnation, and should be ostracised by those who respect the better things of life and try to conduct themselves along the lines of decency and cleanliness.

In the abstract, one is apt to say when hearing of a case of this sort, "He deserves the very worst he can get," but when we witness the frightfully degrading sight of a one-armed white man, with a heavy ball and chain attached to his ankle, sweeping the streets with a cumbersome broom, too unwieldy for his one hand to manipulate, with the hot sun pouring down upon his head, our hearts revolt at the barbarity of the sight, and we turn away, more in pity than in anger, sickened at man's inhumanity to man.

The punishment was extreme. For more than thirty years no man has had to endure a like penalty in Sedalia, and that this one man, low as he is in moral character, perverted and degenerate as he may be, has, should cause us to ask; after all, is it really right and just?

Now a word more. The statement is made by men of standing in the community that cases similar to this one have existed in Sedalia for years past, and are existing now. That these cases are known by the officers of the law, that they are and have been notorious and that no step has been taken to bring the guilty men to punishment, and that none have ever been contemplated is openly asserted by those who profess to know. This man was guilty of white slavery. Others here in Sedalia own white slaves also, and this paper calls upon the authorities to put a stop to the practice and drive the wretches who live and thrive from the ill-gotten revenue from the city.

There is no need to put the ball and chain to them, just drive them out, as Kansas City and Chicago are doing.

The Democrat-Sentinel here and now demands that the police take action, and that they put an end to a condition of affairs that, if true, is the shame and disgrace of the city.

FALSE CHARGES MADE ANEW.

When Governor Hadley made the assertion, in his recent public statement, that the democratic senators blocked legislation against the liquor interests, and did so in payment for the breweries' support of the democratic candidate for governor against him, he simply went out of his way to say something that he knew to be untrue.

The purpose was, of course, political, but it must be said that the governor of a great state sadly belittles himself when he descends to such methods to advance his personal ambitions or to bolster up the party to which he belongs.

During the campaign it might have been excusable for the then attorney general, now governor, to go up and down the state, denouncing his opponent as being the brewers' candidate, while he himself and the ring politicians who were managing his campaign were secretly in alliance with the entire liquor interests, but after he became governor it was indecent and dishonest for Mr. Hadley to repeat the same old falsehood.

While not excusing the senate for sins of omission and commission, it can be said truthfully that the house was just as bad, neither body doing those things for which they were elected, and both together forming about as incompetent and inefficient a general assembly as was ever called together in Missouri, yet the governor's efforts to make political capital out of the fiasco can not be too strongly condemned.

The fact about the liquor support during the last campaign is that Hadley "got them coming and going." The local optionists and state-wide prohibitionists supported him with vigor and zeal and the liquor interests and brewers with money and booze.

It is a matter of state-wide knowledge now that during the heat of the battle, when the drys everywhere were loyally advocating his cause, the Liquor Dealers' association, with headquarters in St. Louis, issued a secret circular, in which it called upon all of its friends to rally to the support of the republican candidate. Many copies of the circular were received in this city, and it is a fact that nearly every democratic liquor dealer in Sedalia supported Hadley as against Cowherd and not one republican saloon man voted for the democratic candidate. This was true in St. Louis to a far greater degree, and in every other city in the state, and Governor Hadley knows it.

The truth is that the young politician from Kansas was wiser than the old heads in Missouri, and by his shrewdness and trickery made possible a combination of "wets and drys," something never before heard of, and through it was swept into the governor's chair.

For him to revive that old, worn out and utterly false campaign charge now is but an indication of the small caliber of the man and is as indefensible as it is reprehensible.

THE SENATE AND ITS DOINGS.

During the last week the proceedings in the senate have been lively. Not much has been done, it is true, except the wind-jamming, against which James J. Hill protests, but in the surging currents of broiled atmosphere much hair has flown hither and thither.

Senators Dolliver, LaFollette, Cummins and the Texas whirlwind, Joe Bailey, got a number of scalps out of the scrimmage and have hung them up to dry. Even the suave statesman from Indiana, the Hon. Albert Jeremiah Beveridge, managed to plunge into the fray long enough to leave a finger print or two on General Manager Aldrich.

Elihu Root was gently reminded that nouveaus were to be seen and not heard, when he attempted to prevent further violence to the ring leader of the interests. In this dignified melee the New Yorker was also enlightened upon the differences of procedure in the United States senate and a president's cabinet. He will not, however, fully appreciate the distinctive characteristics of the former until he has had the pleasure of listening to an oration from Pitchfork Ben on what should be done to the negro.

But the real culmination of the week's hammerfest was Senator Rayner's perioration on truth, which Mr. Roosevelt will read with glee.

We are not sure Mr. Root was present on this occasion, but if he was he must have been shocked at the sea of Ananiases which surrounded him and which eclipsed any other exhibition of this celebrated species ever before exposed to public view.

ROOT TO THE RESCUE.

Elihu Root has taken the field against the income tax and against federal taxes in any form levied upon property or wealth, or privilege. Mr. Root resorts to the quibble and the subterfuge that wealth and property are taxed to pay the expenses of local government, and seeks through adroit juggling to create the idea that it would be an imposition to tax wealth and privilege in support of the federal government.

Wealth—that is, the profit of privilege—is called upon to pay no taxes whatever to the support of the federal government. The entire burden of taxation is placed upon consumption, upon the necessities that enter into the daily life of the people.

As Senator Bailey pointed out, the man who contributes nothing more than the tax upon a plug of tobacco pays more toward the support of the federal government than William Waldorf Astor, with his hundred million or more of property, pays. For Astor, although owning millions here, resides abroad and pays nothing at all. And what is true of Astor is true in a measure of all the holders of wealth and privilege. They pay nothing excepting as they may be consumers.

LIGHT ON MEDICAL QUESTION

Scientific Analysis of the Ability of Individuals to Weep "Tears of Blood."

The belief that certain individuals are able to weep tears of blood is of such antiquity that the German equivalent for "bitter tears" is "blutige thranan," "bloody tears." There seems, however, no authentic instance of blood being actually secreted by the lachrymal gland.

Micas has published a very interesting article on real and false tears of blood. It is a clinical study on conjunctival hemorrhage. Some years ago the author was consulted about a boy aged 12 years who, from the slightest cause, such as laughing, or sometimes apparently for no cause whatever, wept tears of blood—an occurrence often repeated several times a day. The lad was pale and enervated from constant hemorrhage.

The source of the bleeding was the tarsal conjunctiva, which was covered with fine papillae, and light cauterization with the galvano-cautery resulted in a cure.

This case led the author to study the literature of the subject. He found that in none of the cases cited is it certain that the blood did not come from the conjunctiva or from the lachrymal passages. He feels that it is unwise to deny the possibility of sanguineous secretion from the gland, but that examples in which other sources cannot be shown to be present must be exceedingly rare.

Borneo Inviting to Naturalists.

There is no country in the world more inviting to the naturalist than Borneo. Here are found the flying squirrels, flying foxes, flying lizards, flying frogs, and the natives report flying snakes. Among the most noted birds is the little swift Collocalia Nidifica. Their nests are eaten by the Chinese, and are regarded as a great luxury. These birds build their nests in limestone caves of a glutinous saliva which they produce from their glands; no sticks or any other foreign substances are used. The collection of these nests is an important industry with the natives, though they pay a tax on all they take to market. The value of those exported from British North Borneo in 1907 was $35,924. They are served at the great feasts of the Chinese, especially at weddings.

Asthma Plant of Queensland.

The euphorbias are very numerous in the colony of Queensland, and among them is the euphorbia pilulifera, the "Queensland asthma plant," which has a remarkable reputation for curing this troublesome complaint. Several pharmaceutical preparations of the plant are extensively sold in Australia. Analysis shows that a green plant contained 79 per cent. by weight of water and three per cent. of ash, leaving 18 per cent. of vegetable matter. A dried plant contained an alkaloidal substance equal to about 1 part in 1,000. It contained also a glucosidal substance to the amount of not more than 4 parts in 1,000. Possibly one or both of these was the active principle of the plant.

Schisms That Seem Small.

Two religious sects who hated one another bitterly were found by Sven Hedin in Tibet. Searching for the cause of this aversion he found that one of the sects believed that the prayer wheel should turn to the right, while the other was convinced that the wheel should turn to the left. In the region of the Bramaputra he found a mountain which is so sacred that whoever walks around it 13 times has all his sins forgiven. The result of this belief is that criminals from far and near infest this region. When Sven Hedin started to ride around this mountain on his horse the pilgrims informed him that that would do him no good.

COUNT BONI LOSES AGAIN

Sons of the Castellanes to Remain in Custody of Mother.

Paris, May 20.—M. Seligman, a representative of the department of justice presented his conclusions in the Castellane-Sagan suit yesterday in favor of the defendant.

On December 30, of last year, the French court handed down a decision that the three sons of Count Boni de Castellane remain in the custody of their mother, the present Princess de Sagan. The count, however, appealed from this decision in May of this year, and this appeal has been argued.

M. Seligamn said the evidence submitted showed that the Princess de Sagan had been irreproachable before her marriage and that she had since remained a good wife and mother. Consequently he recommended that this court confirm the decision of the lower court giving her the custody of the children. The formal decision will be rendered May 26.

ELOPE FROM POORHOUSE

Inmate of Institution 41 Years Thinks She Is Still a Girl.

Waterloo, Ia., May 20.—Mattie Corliss 54 years old, an inmate of the poor house for forty-one years, eloped Tuesday night with Charles Dale, aged 50, a former convict, who was also an inmate of the poor house.

The woman has no conception of time, believing she is still a girl.

Wise Idea of Matron.

The spirit of independence is driving men and women into apartments, where they can live as they please and be under obligations to nobody. Favors are returned, and so are slights, and a degree of harmony prevails. Such people are welcome guests in many places, for they have the good sense to limit visits. "Live with my son?" repeated a handsome matron the other day to a friend who wondered why she was not an inmate of the pretty home she visited frequently. "Not I," with emphasis. "There is the deepest affection between us, which I take precious care to preserve by this sensible arrangement. I am an important personage now, but if I was located in the best chamber of that house I would become a nuisance. I have seen something of the world, and I want to end my days in peace and comfort."

Flodden Field.

Scotland and England have agreed to forget all old unkindness and erect a monument of Flodden field commemorative of the courage of their ancestors of 1513. Both sides are right, for the Scotch lost the battle quite as much by King James' high-strung chivalry preventing him from using his strategic advantages as by the superiority of the English archery. Flodden was among the last of the great battles in which firearms counted for little or nothing. Probably the last appearance of the bow in war was in Russia a century ago. The Russians at Eylau, 1807, had a body of Bashkirs in chain armor who opposed arrows to French bullets, and during the retreat from Moscow in 1812 occasionally French soldiers found themselves targets for the same wild archers.

First Aid to Memory.

The Coming Poet was being entertained at an afternoon tea given in his honor by the leading society ladies of his native town. It was the Poet's annual home-coming. And leave it to him if he wasn't playing up his transcendental mysticism, or mystic transcendentalism (take your choice) to the awe-inspiring point. Just a few. But, as usual, he was misunderstood. For instance, when he sprang his favorite bromide, "An indefinable something within me often whispers that I have a message to deliver," a dense dame shattered the solemn silence with: "What a labor-saving gift that must be! Why, when I want my husband to deliver a message I always have to tie a string to his finger to remind him of it!"—Illustrated Sunday Magazine.

Mrs. M. F. The woman convinced Chief of Police Boullt that she returned here on business, and she was discharged this afternoon, after which she was placed on the train for Kansas City.

THE MISSING WORD 'THE'

MACHINE IS BLAMED FOR A DEFECT IN COPYING AN INDICTMENT.

DECLARES LETTERS STRUCK METAL CLIP

Blank Where Word Was Written on Paper Clasp Was Fatal—Space Was Seen When It Was Too Late to Rectify It.

St. Louis, Mo., May 20.—Charles A. Cheney, stenographer and assistant secretary in Mayor Kreismann's office, said Wednesday that the absence of the word "the" from a typewritten document caused the reversal of former Delegate Ferd Warner's penitentiary sentence, was written by him on the metal "clip," or paper guard of the machine.

Cheney was stenographer in the circuit attorney's office and for the grand jury under the Sager administration. The Warner indictment was transcribed by him.

At the end of the indictment he wrote the familiar formula, "Against the peace and dignity of the state." He says he wrote it all, and the absence of the second "the," which caused the supreme court to hold the indictment invalid, was due to a mishap which any person who uses a typewriter can understand.

"That second 'the' came at the end of a line," said Cheney. "In some way the metal clip at the right hand side of the machine must have moved a few spaces too far to the left, and when I wrote the three letters they were written on the clip instead of on the paper. The word 'state' comes at the beginning of the next line, and the space where the word 'the' ought to be at the end of the line before, is blank, as I have found by examining the paper since. That was probably the way it happened.

"While I think the error was made in the way I have explained, there is the possibility that the document might have been subjected to some erasure, either by the use of acid or an ordinary rubber.

"Assistant Circuit Attorney Ferris was the first to call my attention to the error. It was discovered in a copy of the indictment certified by the clerk of the St. Louis criminal court to the clerk of the supreme court.

"I remember that Mr. Ferris gave it as his opinion that the defect was found too late for correction, and expressed the hope that it would escape detection by Warner's attorneys, so we said nothing about it to anyone.

"Several other persons had the indictment, and why the error was not sooner noted I can't understand. Mr. Sager himself looked at it frequently and at least one of his assistant had occasion to refer to it, and the clerk of the court had it in his keeping after it was filed. Later, the clerk made and certified a copy of it to the supreme court.

"I suppose it was simply one of those unfortunate mistakes which can be explained only by human falibility."

Mr. Cheney said his appointment as Sager's stenographer was not obtained through political influence.

"Mr. Lally resigned and Mr. Sager wanted a stenographer. I heard of the vacancy, applied and was employed," he said.

THE FIRST FEW GRAY HAIRS

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hairs, which, unfortunately, are looked upon as the heralds of advancing age. Gray hairs, however, are not always an indication of advancing age, for many people have gray hairs quite early in life. Of course, it is unnatural and indicates that there is something wrong with the individual and that Nature needs assistance in correcting the trouble. The same is true of hair that is constantly falling out and becoming thinner every day. If everything is right with Nature, the hair, even in comparatively elderly people, should be long, thick and glossy, without even a streak of gray.

The ideal assistant to Nature in restoring and preserving the hair is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Restorer, a combination of the old-time, simple, household "Sage Tea," with other valuable hair tonics and stimulants selected and compounded by experts. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Restorer is a clean and wholesome dressing for daily use. It not only removes dandruff but strengthens weak, thin and falling hair and promotes its growth. A few applications will restore faded or gray hair to its natural color. It is not a dye. Put up in bottles sufficient for thirty-five or one hundred treatments for 50c and $1.00 a bottle. If there is anything the matter with your hair, you need it today. If your hair is healthy, keep it so by using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Restorer. Don't put it off. Start today. Sold by all druggists, or sent direct, express prepaid, by Wyeth Chemical Co., 74 Cortlandt St., New York City.

PULPIT SERMONS ON WOMEN.

Few Things Said by Ancient and Modern Divines on Momentous Subject.

Why Eve was made from the rib of Adam has been explained by a witty sage of old. If she had been created from his mouth, she would have talked too much; if from his feet, she would have gone about too much; if from his ears, she would have listened too readily; but she was made from a rib, which is near the heart, to show that she must always be dear to man.

An English preacher in the seventeenth century spoke in similar fashion when he said, with the text, "To be or not to be," that woman should be like and unlike three things. She should be like a snail, always keep within her own house; but not like a snail, to carry all she had on her back. She should be like an echo, to speak when she was spoken to; but not, like an echo, always to have the last word. She should be like a town clock, always keep time and regularity; but not, like a town clock, to speak so loud that all the town might hear her.

A preacher in the reign of Charles II. was to receive £10 if in his sermon at the funeral of Madam Creswell he said nothing but well of her. She was rather a bad character and herself had dictated the clause in her will. So, after a general address on mortality, he thus concluded: "By the will of a deceased sister it is expected that I should mention her and say nothing but well of her; therefore is this: She was born well, she lived well and she died well; for she was born with the name Creswell, she lived in Clerkenwell and she died in Bridewell."—The Sunday Magazine.

DEATH DOSE OF OPIUM FOUND

Three Packages of the Drug Were Hidden in Hains' Apparel.

New York, May 20.—Enough opium to cause death if taken in one dose was found concealed in the clothing of Captain Peter C. Hains when he was searched in the Long Island City jail, after he was sentenced to Sing Sing Monday.

The drug was in three packages, wrapped in tin foil, and weighed thirty-six grains.

Whether the prisoner had procured the poison with suicidal intent the authorities have no knowledge.

Unprejudiced observers who kept watch on Captain Hains during his trial expressed the opinion every day that he was "doped." He acted like a man under the influence of some nerve deadening drug.

Denison, Texas, May 20.—Miss Eula Campbell, of this city, is afflicted in a singular manner.

Her tongue now is badly swollen. She can hardly drink and takes soft food with difficulty.

HIS TALE TOLD IN A MOMENT.

But It Is Not Hard to Imagine That the Delay Was Fatal to the Flower Beds.

One morning not long ago there burst into the office of a physician in Tacony, Pa., an excited individual, who, as he perceived the doctor just disappearing into his consulting room with a patient, exclaimed:

"Doctor! Doctor! Just one moment!"

"I'll see you shortly," was the curt professional response.

"Only a second, doctor! Only a second is what I want!" protested the perturbed one.

"I'll see you shortly," reiterated the physician, with increasing impatience.

Whereupon, with a sigh, the man took a seat in the general reception hall, says Harper's Weekly. His excitement soon subsided, for he read the morning paper through, glanced through a number of magazines, and played awhile with the doctor's cat. Then, after a period of half an hour, the doctor reappeared, and, in an air of great condescension, said to the erstwhile excited person:

"Now, sir, I am at your service. Your turn has come. What can I do for you?"

"Oh, nothing special," was the reply. "I only dropped in to tell you that your neighbor's cows have escaped from the yard and are now having a fine time among your flower beds."

THE MAD RACE FOR WEALTH.

Stock Gamblers Misapply Funds That Are Theirs Only in Trust.

We once knew a professional gambler who habitually lost in front of other men's tables what he made behind his own. How do you account for that? He would sit behind his own tables night after night, claiming his sure percentage from the gamblers on the other side, and when he had thus accumulated $20,000 or $30,000, he would go and lose it all in one sitting on the wrong side of another man's table.

Most of the scandals affecting stock exchange members in Wall street come of their having got on the wrong side of the table. A house does not set out deliberately, in the first instance, to make away wrongfully with the customers' funds. The head of the house or one of its members becomes extravagant, lives beyond his resources, and needs money quickly. He turns to the stock market. He begins as a speculator, takes greater and greater risks, becomes a gambler, and ends by breaking his house and cheating his clients. Haven't yout wondered why in these cases the men who misuse your funds in their private stock-market gambling always lose them? That is because they have been trying to do what you have been trying to do—make 500 or 1,000 per cent. on a given amount of capital—and it simply can't be done.—Everybody's.

ANOTHER GERM DESTROYER.

Herpicide Is Death to Dandruff Germs.

The germ burrows into the scalp, throwing up the cuticle in thin scales, called dandruff, or scurf, and digging at the root of the hair where it saps the hair's vitality. First comes brittle hair, then lusterless and dead-like hair, then falling hair, and, finally baldness. Nine-tenths of the hair troubles are caused by dandruff. Without dandruff, hair will grow luxuriantly, as nature intended. "Herpicide" kills the dandruff germ, leaving the hair to grow unhampered, as it does with the American red man. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

BIRTH OF THE GERMAN NAVY.

A Few Facts Showing the Wonderful Progress Made in Building Up a Marine Power.

Some idea of the wonderful progress of the German navy is gained when one realizes that Vice-Admiral Reinhold von Werner, whose death is announced at the age of 84, saw practically the birth of that navy as we now know it. When the German fleet was sold by auction in 1852 Werner secured a commission in the new Prussian navy, and during the war with Denmark he commanded one of the three steam frigates, then the principal ships of the Prussian navy. At the date of the formation of the federal navy Werner was director of dockyards at Danzig. In 1869, however, the deceased vice-admiral returned to active service, and at the time of his retirement in 1878 he held the command of the Baltic station. He devoted the last 30 years of his life to the patriotic task of popularizing the idea of that sea power which he had seen grow from insignificant proportions to a strength which has done so much to stimulate the shipbuilding of other nations. He was a prolific writer, and his authorship extended over a long period. Even at the time of the Battle of Jasmund he attracted attention by a work on the Prussian navy, its present and its future.

DETECTIVE TELLS STORY

SPRECKLES TO PRODUCE THE ACCOUNTS

Former Secret Service Man Tells How He Went About It and Secured Information Valuable to United Railroads.

San Francisco, May 20.—Into the trial of Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railroads, there was injected late yesterday an extraordinary chapter dealing with the uses and methods of detectives.

John Helms, formerly connected with the United States secret service, and at one time the head of a private detective bureau in this city, narrated in detail, as a witness for the prosecution, the secrets he claims to have learned during his term of employment as an agent of the United Railroads.

His testimony, which relates to an early period in the history of the graft prosecution, already involves the names of several persons more or less prominently identified with the defense, and there is promise of revelations more sensational when he resumes the stand.

Helms testified he had come to the city in response to a request by Attorney Louis M. Hoeffler early in May, 1907. At that time the first trial of Tirey L. Ford, counsel for the United Railways, had begun. Hoeffler, he said, instructed him to watch everything done by the prosecution, and report the information so gathered. Assistant District Attorney Heney attempted to learn what persons were shadowed by Helms but the court sustained an objection.

Later Helms said he had reported directly to William M. Abbott, general attorney for the United Railroads, who authorized him to engage assistants and paid him.

Helms said he had induced E. A. Platt, an employe of Detective W. T. Burns, to furnish him with copies and originals of letters, telegrams and reports on jurors from Burns' office. Abbott, according to the witness, paid Platt $200 a month from the middle of 1907 until August 31, 1908, during which time, he alleged, Platt supplied telegrams in code and otherwise from operatives who were following Eugene E. Schmitz, the former mayor, then in Europe, and from the men who were seeking A. K. Detwilder, the convicted telephone magnate.

William N. Stettler, private secretary to Mr. Calhoun, testified he had never seen Abraham Ruef at the United Railroad offices; that he had never seen Tirey L. Ford in possession of any amount of currency, and that he had neither seen nor handled any of the money alleged to have been drawn from the mint by Mr. Ford.

Earl Rogers, of the defense, opened the trial yesterday by attacking the testimony given wherein Mr. Spreckles declared that Abraham Ruef had submitted a scheme for the purchase of bonds after the city had been tied up with a general strike and offered a transcript of testimony given by the witness in December, 1906, before Judge Frank H. Dunne.

Rudolph Spreckles, after a brief cross examination, was excused until today, when he agreed to produce the accounts of money he has expended in aid of the prosecution, as requested by the defense.

A WHITE GIRL ATTACKED

GRABBED INSIDE OF HER OWN GATE BY BURLY NEGRO IN GEORGIA.

MANY ARMED MEN ARE AFTER VILLAIN

The Girl Says She Can Identify Her Assailant and in the Event of His Capture Lynching Is Absolutely Certain.

Albany, Ga., May 20.—Bruised, bleeding and almost unconscious as the result of criminal assault by an unknow negro, Miss Mamie Strickland, aged 18, one of the most beautiful girls in Albany, was found in a clump of shrubbery on the lawn of her father's home about 8 o'clock last night.

The Strickland home is surrounded by extensive grounds and the girl had gone down toward the front entrance to meet her brother.

As she neared the gate she was seized by a negro, who strangled her cries, dragged her into the clump of shrubbery and attempted assault.

Her brother, coming twenty minutes later, was attracted by groans and found his sister in the shrubbery.

As soon as the news spread over the city over 500 armed men left their homes and proceeded to the negro quarter to search for the assailant.

Nothing can prevent lynching when the negro is located, and the feeling is so intense that there is some fear of a general outbreak against the blacks.

HONOR BRAVE DEAD

COMMEMORATION OF BATTLE AT CHEMULPO.

Striking Contrast in Ceremonies Participated in by Japanese and Russians in Dismal and Unsightly Town of Korea.

The dismal city of Chemulpo, on the west coast of Korea, recently witnessed two strangely contrasting ceremonies, each conducted by aliens in the land and each commemorating the historic event which served to make the name of the town known around the world. The occasion of the demonstrations was the anniversary of the battle between the Russian and Japanese naval detachments outside the harbor.

Hundreds of Japanese came down from Seoul, the capital city, 60 miles away, to join with the large Japanese colony at Chemulpo in making the day a typical holiday of their home land. All of the Japanese quarter in the town blossomed with bunting, flags and lanterns, day fireworks banged off the new stone quay at the water front and every sendo and rickshaw man in town was out behind a brass band, trailing his enthusiasm through the narrow streets of the mongrel town.

There were long speeches in the high sounding formal oratory of the Japanese, a parade drill of some of the Japanese soldiers still retained in Korea for the good of the Koreans and a long night afterward of saki drinking and dancing by the geisha.

The Russians who came down from Seoul had no part in the Japanese festivities. With M. de Somow, the Russian consul general, there were M. Birukoff, the archimandrite of the Orthodox church in Korea; a few attaches from the consulate and half a dozen Russian merchants and travelers.

They went out to the little foreign burying ground on a bleak, treeless hill back of the town and there, where all of the dead that had been recovered from the Variag and Korietz after the battle were buried, the archimandrite conducted the orthodox service for the repose of the dead. The responses were sung by Korean converts.

Among some of the foreigners who stood in the cemetery with uncovered heads while the priest offered up prayers for the brave dead were those who remembered the day when the Variag and Korietz came limping back into harbor after having stood off for more than an hour the overwhelming squadron under Admiral Uriu. The Variag, her unprotected sides punctured like a sieve, was listing to such an extent that the blackened snouts of some of her starboard guns were dipping in the waves. The Korietz, a little gunboat hardly bigger than an American revenue cutter, had been under the protection of her bigger sister and was practically inhurt.

Then it was that, as the foreigners who ranged the hillsides back of the town and the knobs of the harbor islands saw the conquering Japanese squadron coming in to take its prizes, the roar of fired magazines smote the ugly little town and the two Russian ships dropped to the mud of the harbor. Even as the smoke of the explosions mushroomed out in the higher air strata and the bay's waters were peppered with the falling fragments of the fighting ships, the band on the Italian cruiser lying at anchor in the inner harbor struck up the heavy cadences of the Russian national hymn in a requiem.

"Back from college, pop!" exclaimed the tall, rakish young man, as he removed his glasses and tossed his ingrown hat across the table.

"So!" grunted the old farmer, laconically. "What did yeou larn boy?"

"Lots, pop. Why, I am so far advanced I can split a hair and tell how much each half weighs."

The old farmer got out the big red ax.

"That so? Wal, take this ax and split a cord of wood and tell how much each half weighs and then, by heck, I'll say that yeour eddication hasn't been in vain."

Had Unusual Opportunities.

The elaborate realism of Thomas Hardy is one of the points of the novelist's genius which causes much astonishment among his admirers. On one occasion a friend was expressing his wonder to him at the manner in which he was able to enter into the intimacies of a country girl's life.

"How on earth do you do it?" said the friend. "You might almost be a country girl yourself."

"When I was a young man," explained Mr. Hardy, "I used to write love letters for the village girls to their sweethearts in India. That, naturally, gave me an insight into their characteristics."

The Reason.

The New Tenant—And the last owner, Donald, you say tried to introduce nightingales on the estate?

Donald—Aye, sir, he did, indeed; but they wouldn't stay. Ye'll no ken, maybe, the nightingale winna stay in Scotland.

The New Tenant—Is that so? Can't acquire the accent, I suppose.—London Opinion.

Mr. Cutem—Yes, and sometimes more. We usually charge double when we have to hunt for the hair.

ECZEMA CURE A MIRACLE? —NO, JUST SOUND SCIENCE

Physicians now admit the superior value of simple medicines for all diseases.

For eczema and other skin diseases certainly nothing in the world could be simpler than oil of wintergreen, carefully compounded with such well known healing and antiseptic substances as thymol, glycerine, etc. Read this letter:

"A few years ago eczema covered my limbs, part of my body and began breaking out on my face.

"I began using oil of wintergreen mixed with thymol and glycerine in D. D. D. Prescription. Used five bottles and was cured sound and well. My druggist said it looked almost like a miracle to him, but he explained to me that the use of this oil of wintergreen was just sound science.

"That has been almost a year ago and I see no sign of the disease returning.

"My skin is just as soft and nice as it ever was." D. P. MILLER,
Smithville, Mo.

Such a wonderful experience we feel speaks for itself.

Creamed Sweetbreads.

As soon as the sweetbreads are brought from the market put them in cold water. When ready to parboil free them from fat, cover with boiling water and let them simmer 20 minutes. Take from the fire, drain, throw into cold water and when cool enough to handle remove all the membrane and break into small pieces. Melt one tablespoonful of butter without browning; add one tablespoonful of flour, mix until smooth; add one cupful of cream and stir until it thickens. Add the sweetbreads and place over hot water until these are heated through, then season to taste with salt, pepper and one tablespoonful of chopped parsley.

Uncooked French Cream Candy.

Break into a bowl the whites of as many eggs as you think you will require for the amount of candy you wish to make. Add as much cold water as you have egg-whites, then stir in XXX powdered or confectioner's sugar until the mixture is stiff enough to mold into shape with the fingers. Flavor with vanilla to taste, and form into balls, cubes or lozenges, as you wish. Lay on plates or waxed paper to fry. The secret of success lies in the sugar used. Ordinary powdered sugar will not do.

AS TOLD BY INDIGENT ALBERT

Really Remarkable Tale of Woe That Should Satisfy the Most Incredulous.

"My unfortnit condition I traces direct to the vanity of wimmin," said Indigent Albert, accounting for his financial lack of stature to the pedestrian of benevolent aspect.

"How is that?"

"Well, sir, you see I was seckind mate aboard of a three-masted schooner what traded between here and South Amurrika. She was the daisiest (parding my tears) little craft that ever sailed the oshun blue. She was built all through of the finest curly maple, wich every seaman knows is the best wood for ships what is."

"That's news to me."

"Yes, sir, p'raps. But as I was sayin', we took on board one trip a cargo of them irons what wimmin uses for to mar-sell their hair. They was for wimmin in Brazil. We was doin' fine and dandy until we struck the tropics. Then them irons got het up and the whole ship went to pieces. Oh, but it was rotten hard luck, it was."

"But I don't understand."

"No, sir, p'raps not. But as I was sayin', w'en them irons got het up every curly maple plank in the ship jest nacherally curled up in a marsell wave, and we pore marineers had to swim to shore, miles and miles away— Thank you kindly, sir. You has a heart of di'monds. This will give me a place to lay my poor, unfortnit head."—Freeman Tilden in Puck.

An Unpopular Official.

There is one public official that goes begging in many small suburban towns. Nobody wants the position of dog catcher.

"It isn't that we're afraid to handle the beasts," said one man who had declined the honor. "It is the fact that the business of running in dogs gets everybody down on us. I know a man—a first-rate fellow he is too—who was made dog catcher in a Staten Island village. He had enjoyed the best kind of reputation up to the time he took that position, but before he had held the job three months, hardly a person in the town would speak to him. In the opinion of the general public, to scoop up poor, little, defenseless doggies and cart them away to the pound is the furthest cry of human ignominy. The man who will do such a thing sinks below the level of the official hangman and no longer holds a place in the esteem of his neighbors."

A NIGHT WITH A NIGHTMARE.

May Be Warning to Those Who Seek Escape from Tortures of Insomnia.

Recently a friend who had heard that I sometimes suffer from insomnia told me of a sure cure. "Eat a pint of peanuts and drink two or three glasses of milk before going to bed," said he, "and I'll warrant you'll be asleep within half an hour." I did as he suggested, and now for the benefit of others who may be afflicted with insomnia I feel it my duty to report what happened, so far as I am able to recall the details.

First, let me say my friend was right. I did go to sleep very soon after my retirement. Then a friend with his head under his arm came along and asked me if I wanted to buy his feet. I was negotiating with him when the dragon on which I was riding slipped out of his skin and left me floating in midair. While I was considering how I should get down, a bull with two heads peered over the edge of the wall and said he would haul me up if I would first climb up and rig a windlass for him. So as I was sliding down the mountainside the brakeman came in, and I asked him when the train would reach my station.

"We are passed your station 400 years ago," he said, calmly, folding the train up and slipping it into his vest pocket.

At this juncture the clown bounded into the ring and pulled the centerpole out of the ground, lifting the tent and all the people in it up, up, while I stood on the earth below watching myself go out of sight among the clouds above. Then I awoke, and found I had been asleep almost ten minutes. —Good Health Clinic.

VALUE IN WELL-TRAINED MIND

Has Effect Too Frequently Unappreciated in Social and Domestic Relations.

Men often realize that a well-trained mind is a great asset in business; yet seldom do we see comment upon the fact that it is also invaluable in social and domestic relations. The mind, after a certain stage is passed, works automatically in kindness as in calculation.

This is noticeable in the study of pronounced characters. Men are enabled to act quickly in emergency only by intuition; and it follows that when a man is habitually kind, or merciful, or considerate, or all three, he will be so in the crisis of his life.

Character is a matter of slow formation. In a pronounced form it is rare. The average is a mixture of many lines of training; hence, vacillation. The more pronounced, the more forceful for certain effects.

It is in babyhood that the formation begins, and in the earlier years are laid bases which after effort may never be able to remove. Environment, of course, is one factor. The child brought up in an atmosphere of kindness, courtesy, mercy, generosity, etc., is likely, although not certain, to remain so.

In any event, the main thought is that we too frequently forget that trained minds have possibilities beyond money-making. The mind is ever a tyrant. The money-grubber cannot reform after a certain period; and he who has reached 40 generous will find difficulty in becoming a miser, even if so minded, when past that period.

Rigid Rules for Childhood.

Childhood must have been a dreary time when Lady Burton was a little girl. "The only times we were allowed down stairs," she says in her reminiscences, "were at two o'clock luncheon (our dinner), and to dessert for about a quarter of an hour if our parents were dining alone or had very intimate friends. On these occasions I was dressed in white muslin and blue ribbons, and Theodore, my stepbrother, in green velvet, with turnover lace collar, after the fashion of that time. We were not allowed to speak unless spoken to; we were not allowed to ask for anything unless it was given to us. We kissed our father's and mother's hands and asked their blessing before going upstairs, and we stood upright by the side of them all the time we were in the room. In those days there was no lolling about, no Tommy-keep-your-fingers-out-of-the-jam, no Dick-crawling-under-the-table-pinching-people's legs, as nowadays."

Needed to Begin at Home.

Two young women were scheduled to read papers on the rearing of children in connection with a mothers' meeting, their husbands being left at home to put the two children to bed. They lived in adjoining apartments.

The young women attended the meeting, read the papers and after the discussion on the care of infants adjourned to the home of a friend for refreshments. When they reached home at 11:30 the two husbands had joined forces and were frantically pacing the floor, each carrying a shrieking baby.

Stevenson Bad Speller.

One of the most polished and painstaking of English authors regarded correct spelling as a totally unnecessary accomplishment. In his introduction to R. L. Stevenson's letters, Sidney Colvin writes: "I have not held myself bound to reproduce all the author's minor eccentricities of spelling and the like. As all his friends are aware, to spell in a quite accurate and grown-up manner was a thing which this master of English letters was never able to learn."

SALOON THOUGHT NO. 147.

WHAT IT DOES.

What does the saloon do for its patron in opening or closing doors of opportunity? The United States Department of Labor, using percentages based upon several thousand reports, found that 90 per cent of railways, 79 per cent of manufacturers, 88 per cent of trades and 72 per cent of agriculturists discriminate against employes addicted to the use of intoxicants as a beverage. The patron of a saloon may drive a garbage wagon or get a steady job as a doorkeeper of a dance hall, but he can not drive a locomotive or secure employment as a paying teller in the bank. He may clean cuspidors in a bar room and sweep up refuse on the street, but he can not be trusted to run a stationary engine, drive a passenger omnibus, fire a boiler, amputate a leg, administer medicine, fill a prescription, keep a set of books, try an important case, manage a business corporation or do any other work demanding a clear head and a steady hand. The saloon which takes its patron's money, double-crosses him for disappointment and failure in the race of life."

CELEBRATING DECLARATION

President Taft Attending Anniversary of the Mecklenburg Manifesto.

Charlotte, N. C., May 20.—President Taft arrived here today to take part in the annual celebration of the signing of the Mecklenburg declaration of independence, which it is claimed took place May 20, 1775, and was the first step toward liberty taken by the American colonists, antedating the famous declaration of July 4, 1776, by more than a year.

The president made the positive statement here today that he has come to the conclusion that the tariff bill will be in his hands not later than June 20, and he adheres also to the belief that when the bill finally comes from conference it will constitute a revision in the generally accepted sense and will be such a measure as will warrant his signature.

THREATS ON THE JUDGE

Who Sentenced the Boyles—He Appeals for Protection.

Mercer, Penn., May 20.—Judge A. W. Williams, who heard the case of the Boyle kidnapers and who gave them such severe sentences, has been compelled to appeal to the town authorities to protect him and his family as well as his property from destruction.

He has received so many threatening letters since the sentencing of the Boyles that the nerve of the jurist appears to have weakened.

He has asked that an officer be placed on guard at his home during his absence for a few days now and it is understood that a private detective has been sent with the judge to Niagara Falls for a short time.

Judge Williams has been threatened with awful death if he does not have the Boyle case reopened.

English Dislike of Humor.

It is sometimes a matter for wonder that humorists are allowed to live in this country. Deep down in our English character is a conscious dislike of laughter. Laughter is an expression of emotion, and we have a horror of it. It may be that this secret objection to the comic muse is a surviving relic of the sturdy old Puritanism which has done so much for the race in many directions and handicapped it in others. When Disraeli began to be prominent in the house of commons it used to be said of him that, though he was a very amusing fellow and made the house laugh, he could never hope to take rank as a statesman. Lord Randolph Churchill went through exactly the same experience in his early days. Few people would admit that a man who expressed himself humorously had any claim to be taken seriously.—Black and White.

First Brakeman Died at 97.

John Elphick, the first railroad brakeman of the United States, has just died at his home in Poolville, New York, at the age of 97.

He began work on the Mohawk & Hudson railroad, from Albany to Schenectady, in October, 1830. His wages were 37½c a day and board, 12½ hours being accounted a day's work. Board and lodging cost at that time about $1 a week.

After following the occupation of brakeman for the greater part of his life, Elphick retired from railroad work in 1880, and had since resided in Poolville, with a daughter, Miss Lucy Elphick, who survives.

BIRDS TO GUARD CROPS

COMING CAMPAIGN TO SAVE INSECT-EATERS TO SWEEP THE NATION.

MILLINERS DEFEATED A PROPOSED LAW

National Association of Audobon Societies Will Push the Battle Next Year and Confident of Victory.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

New York, May 20.—Protection of the insect-eating birds, whose destruction caused a crop loss of almost a billion dollars to this country in the last year, will be made a campaign issue throughout the nation as the result of a general movement which was organized in this city today.

Backed by the granges and other bodies representing the farmers, orchardists, ranchmen and planters of every section of the land, the National Association of Audobon societies is preparing to obtain from every present and prospective representative of the people in every state in the union definite declarations of their stand on this question of the consecration of the bird resources of the commonwealth.

Where the forces of the milliners have been able to exert political pressure to legalize their poaching upon the feathered guardians of the crops, the people will rise this year to demand that their own interests be protected, it was declared by leaders of this new campaign today.

Representing an industry valued at less than $12,000,000, a few Broadway feather dealers have just succeeded in defeating in this state the Francis bill for the protection of the insect-eating birds, behind which agricultural interests worth over half a billion dollars were solidly arrayed.

In spite of the united efforts of the 83,000 farmers represented in the state grange and the Audobon workers, who were backed by the press and peope of almost every community in the state, it was reported today that the hiring of a lawyer "whose political influence was undoubtedly used to prevent any open consideration of the bill on the floor of either branch of the legislature" had with other machinations of the milliners resulted in legalizing for another year their traffic in property that belongs to the state.

As a first step in the general national campaign for the birls who guard the crops, the record of each legislator on this matter will be submitted to his constituents and every effort made to secure from each district in this state representatives at Albany next year who will be pledged to heed this strong demand from their agricultural supporters.

California, Missouri and Oklahoma have just been reported as adopting laws defending their bird crop guards against the ravages of the feather dealers, which are substantially the same as the bill which the milliners have just strangled in this state.

Similar laws forbidding the sale or possession of the plumage, skin or body of the insect-eating, non-game birds, " irrespective of whether said bird was captured or killed within or without the state," are already in force and working for the protection of the farmers in Iowa, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, Mississippi, South Carolina and West Virginia.

From every other state and territory in the land communications are being received at the headquarters of the movement today urging an immediate effort to rouse the people to campaign for their feathered crop protectors against the forces of the millinery interests.

"If the people of this country are ever going to stop the milliners from killing the birds that would save them a billion dollars each year if left alive, now is the time for them to act," said William Dutcher, president of the National Association of Audobon Societies at its headquarters, 141 Broadway, today.

"A disgraceful display of political pull has this year turned over to the feather dealers in this state its wild birds that have been proved to save, by fighting off insects, more value in crops in a few seasons than the whole millinery industry is worth.

"Now we are going to take this great economic question to the people in this state and in every part of the land. We believe that all patriotic Americans who would preserve their country's agricultural wealth will join with us to demand from their representatives a pledge to prevent the milliners from further profiting by the killing of these insect-eating, non-game birds at the expense of billions of dollars to the crops of the land."

ABOUT CUTTING THE GRASS

The Park Board Replies to a Criticism in the Capital.

To the Democrat-Sentinel.

In the Capital of this morning we see an article finding fault with the management of Liberty park.

In regard to cutting the grass on the different lawns we have waited until the arrival of a large horse lawn mower, the latest design, which we got a few days ago, and our superintendent has commenced the work, and we will soon have lawns such as we never had before, as the grass will be cut every week.

The same article has reference to an old dilapidated barn and eyesore on the road to the park, corner of Third and Kentucky streets. This dilapidated structure is on private grounds—very unsightly, indeed.

With the limited means for expenditures, with the services of only one man to work on a park of forty acres, the park board have done the best they could.

The buildings have been well painted, the rooms papered and our services have been rendered without remuneration.—Liberty Park Board.

PLEAD WITH A HUSBAND

WIFE WILL COME FROM THE PACIFIC COAST TO BEG FORGIVENESS.

AN AUTHORESS SEEKS RECONDILIATION

Dr. William Krauss, a Memphis Chemist, Declares They Signed "Contract to Disagree," and Has No Desire for Change.

Memphis, Tenn., May 20.—Memphis society is awaiting the return of Mrs. Daisy Turner Krauss, member of a prominent southern family, an authoress and the wife of Dr. William Krauss, chemist and bacteriologist. Mrs. Krauss is coming back from Los Angeles, Cal., she says, for the purpose of "fixing up" many difficulties in which she seems to have involved herself.

A reconciliation with her husband is what is most eagerly desired by the young woman just now, her friends say, but Dr. Krauss, busy in his laboratory in the Randolph building here, declares he doesn't want a reconciliation—that he and his wife have agreed to disagree and that he is perfectly satisfied with the bargain.

According to Dr. Krauss' story, he signed an agreement with Mrs. Krauss January 12 by which they agreed to separate, with certain conditions provided. Dr. Krauss has refused to divulge this agreement.

After it was signed, however, Mrs. Krauss went to California and little was heard of her until dispatches said she had lost $4,000 in a mining venture in which she said Franklyn Griffith, a Philadelphia lawyer visiting in California, had interested her.

Mrs. Krauss admitted that on one occasion she went to Redding Cal., where Griffith had been making his headquarters, and represented herself as his wife while he was away. She said she did it "to get a line" on his methods. Griffith learned of the situation immediately, however, and exposed the deception. Mrs. Krauss announced she was going to sue Griffith.

Griffith is a puzzle to Memphis society. They never had heard of him, and at first Dr. Krauss said he didn't know him. Later he said he had been introduced to him, Griffith having been in Memphis last spring and called on his wife at that time. He professed to know nothing more of him.

Mrs. Krauss has been a figure of interest to Memphis society ever since she came here as a bride half a dozen years ago. She was known as a brilliant woman, and several of her works of fiction have been published. She has also written magazine articles. She is a dashing woman, while her husband is typical of the student, caring nothing for society and spending all his time in his laboratory.

KILLS SISTER AND SELF

About to Be Arrested on Charge of Immoral Conduct.

Mitchell, S. D., May 20.—Suspending his sister, Miss Edith Gray, aged 40 years, to a rafter in the attic with a piece of cloth, W. C. Gray, aged 45, shot her in the ear, causing instant death. Gray then turned the gun on himself, the bullet ending his life.

Neighbors, it is claimed, had complained of the immoral life they had been leading, and warrants for their arrest had been issued.

Lawyer Must Go to Prison.

LAD ELOPES WITH WIFE

Strange Case of Cleveland Schoolboy, Wedded at Eighteen.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 20.—Valentine Fries, 18 years old heir to a big estate, has eloped with his girl wife, who was Hazel Brockett, of Cleveland.

Fries married the girl some months ago while a student at the university here. When his mother learned of it she began legal proceedings, and a few weeks ago Judge Reed, of Sandusky, placed the boy under the guardianship of his grandfather.

Sunday young Fries left the summer home of his mother at Berlin Heights and came to Cleveland, where he met his wife, and they then disappeared.

The shot entered the back of the little girl's neck as she walked along in front, and lodged at the base of her brain, causing paralysis.

SHOOTS BOY; MAKES ESCAPE

Man, Who Previously Slew Innocent Bystander, Hunted by Officers.

Herrin, Ill., May 20.—Hux Williams, a saloonkeeper from Linton, Ind., shot and fatally wounded W. L. Finn, 18 years old, in the American club rooms last afternoon, and the sheriff and police are trying to find Williams. The trouble resulted from an old grudge.

Williams, who formerly resided here, shot and killed John Sine in a saloon in this city four years ago, while shooting at another man.

NEGRO IS TURNED DOWN

PRESIDENT APPOINTS WHITE MAN OVER THE BLACK APPLICANT.

MADE POSTMASTER AT DARIEN, GEORGIA

Mr. Taft Announces That if Southern Negroes Are Given Office It Will Be in Washington or Diplomatic Service.

Wahington, May 20.—In the nomination of T. K. Dunham, a white man, to be postmaster at Darien, Ga., the president has again turned down a southern negro.

In Darien the population has a larger percentage of negroes than of whites, and it has been the custom for many years to give the postmastership to a colored man.

In refusing to appoint Ferdinand M. Mann, Mr. Taft has broken a long line of precedents.

To a caller recently Mr. Taft reiterated the announcement he had made soon after his inauguration that if he appoints any southern negroes to office they will be given places either in Washington or in the diplomatic service.

Strong pressure is being brought to bear upon the president by southern republicans in behalf of negro leaders, who did effective work for the republican ticket last fall and are demanding recognition now. Mr. Taft has refused even to consider them for federal appointments in the state in which they live.

The president has made it clear that he does not purpose to make appointments that will lead to complications similar to those resulting from the appointment of W. D. Crum as collector of the port at Charleston, S. C. He has told the supporters of negro candidates to look around for department positions in Washington and for diplomatic appointments for which they may be available.

In consequence of the president's attitude there are many candidates for the appointment of recorder of deeds in the District of Columbia, now held by John C. Dancy, of North Carolina. That place for many years has been held by a negro. The understanding is that Dancy will not be reappointed and that he will be succeeded by a southern negro.

Among the candidates for this place is J. M. Wasson, of Kansas City, Mo. Wasson has supporters in the Missouri and Kansas delegations who have gone to the front for him. A. G. W. Sango, of Muskogee, is another candidate. They have received no encouragement. Wasson's brother, J. C. Wasson, also is a candidate for an appointment under the Taft administration. He first went after the positio of secretary of the American legation in Liberia, but found that appointment was not available. Now he is a candidate for appointment as secretary of the American legation in Haiti.

William T. Vernon, of Kansas City, Kan., will be permitted to serve out his term as register of the treasury. Several negroes have tried to get his place, but the president has informed them that Vernon would not be disturbed. Vernon was appointed about two years ago.

ARE LOOKING FOR WIVES

HERE IS A CHANCE FOR GIRLS WHO WANT TO GO TO THE NORTHWEST.

SOME ARE COLLEGE MEN OF REFINEMENT

They Are All Pronounced Kind, Good-Hearted and Capable of Real Love for the Right Kind of a Female.

Spokane, Wash., May 20.—There are fully 2,000 healthy and fairly well to do young bachelors in the Inland Empire, taking in parts of Eastern Oregon and Washington, Northern Idaho, Western Montana and Southeastern British Columbia. They want wives; that is, if they can find the right ones.

All of them are good-hearted, kind, affectionate and capable of real love. They say so in letters to Levi Grant Monroe, secretary of the Spokane Chamber of Commerce, who became interested in the movement when the Rev. D. D. Vaughan, pastor of the Halstead Street Institutional church, Chicago, announced that more than 200 girls belonging to his congregation would marry "honest men who can make clean money."

"What appeals to me most," said one of the eligibles, "is the fact that the girls are looking for real homemakers. They seem agreed that talent, wealth or swell clothes are not absolutely necessary, but that they want clean men who are not afraid to work.

"There are hundreds of strapping young men, full of vim and vigor, in our forests, mines and railroad camps, grain fields, orchards and factories. All of them have had school advantages and not a few are college men. The majority of them would marry the right kind of girls and give them life partnerships in good homes."

While Mr. Monroe has no desire to figure as Cupid's messenger, he will, however, forward the bachelors' letters to Dr. Vaughan, at Chicago, in the hope that the girls moy find their ideal men, as decribed in responses to the Chicago minister's circulars. Mr. Monroe said that this is not to be taken to mean that the girls in cities and towns in eastern, middle western, southern and Pacific coast states or any part of Canada are barred.

"Nothing of the kind," he added. "The bachelors are here, 2,000 of them, and they want wives."

Don't drug the stomach or stimulate the heart or kidneys. That's wrong. It is the weak nerves that are crying out for help. Vitalize these weak inside controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and see how quickly good health will come to you again. Test and see! Sold by the W. E. Bard Drug Co.

TALK LOVE ON WAY TO PRISON

Man and Woman Arrested for Murder of Her Husband.

Memphis, Tenn., May 20.—Handcuffed together and whispering pet names even on the road to prison, Jesse Scott, 22, and Mrs. W. L. Embrey, 40, were jailed at Indianola yesterday in connection with the murder of the woman's husband.

The authorities say Scott has confessed. They say he marched Embrey to a lonely spot in a cypress swamp Sunday morning and while Embrey pleaded for his life, shot him four times. He informed the police, they say, that he did this because Mrs. Embrey told him to, saying Embrey was the only obstacle to their happiness.

RICH RED BLOOD

Means Rosy Cheeks, Clear Complexion, Bright Eyes and Plenty of Energy.

What does rich, red blood mean? It means brains, vitality, ambition, hopefulness, persistency, and everything worth living for.

But you can't have rich, red blood, if your digestion is imperfect; and your digestion is certainly imperfect if you have sour stomach, bad taste in mouth, lump of lead after eating, belch of gas and nervous unrest. So far reaching is the effect of indigestion, that many times the eyesight is affected.

If you have indigestion or any symptom of stomach distress or agony the W. E. Bard Drug Co. will sell you a mighty remedy for 50 cents and guarantee it to cure or money back.

The remedy is called Mi-o-na. Its powerful reconstructive action on the the stmach is little short of marvelous. It tones up, strengthens and puts new life and energy into the worn out stomach in a few days. It cures by removing the cause. If you are a sufferer, try a large 50 cent box. It's a small price to pay for banishing indigestion.

Mi-o-na is sold by leading druggists in every town in America and by the W. E. Bard Drug Co. in Sedalia, for 50 cents a box.

St. Louis Live Stock Market.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

National Stock Yards, Ill., May 18.—Cattle receipts 3,500; market steady on good to choice steers and butcher stuff, but slow and a shade lower on medium steers. Compared with a ago, today's sales look strong. Good to choice steers continue to sell between $6.25 and $7.00; medium $4.25 to $4.75. Good to choice heifers $6.00 to $6.75; medium $5.00 to $6.00. Veal calves steady; top $7.50. Stockers and feeders active; supplies light. Milkers steady. Choice cows and calves $45 to $55. We look for moderate supplies with a little or no change in values during the coming week.

Hog receipts 13,000; quality common. General trade steady with yesterday, and while that means a little lower than the close of last week, the figures show an advance of fully 10 per cent over prices in force a week ago. The bulk of all the hogs today sold at $700 to $7.30; good mixed and butcher hogs at $7.20 to $7.40; good heavies $7.35 to $7.45; mixed packers $7.00 to $7.30. Good pigs $6.50 to $6.90; light pigs $4.75 to $5.50. Top today $7.45. Liberal runs are looked for the next few days, and increased supplies would mean a lower market.

Sheep receipts 2,500; market steady with yesterday, or about 25 to 40c per cwt. lower than last Tuesday, which was the high day of the year. Choice Tennessee spring lambs around $9.00; best native spring lambs $8.75; choice clipped lambs $7.85; choice wethers $6.35; choice ewes $6.25. We look for little or no change in the sheep market during the coming week.—National Live Stock Commission Company.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Health Talks

No man is stronger than his stomach. Make your stomach strong and you thereby fortify your system against the attacks of a long list of diseases which originate in the stomach and must be reached, if at all through the stomach. Thus torpid, or lazy liver, biliousness, dyspepsia, impure blood and various skin affections originate in weak stomach and consequent poor nutrition. The same is true of certain bronchial, throat and lung affections.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

Strengthens the stomach, invigorates the liver, purifies the blood making it rich, red and vitalizing and thereby curing the above and kindred affections.

It's foolish and often dangerous to experiment with new or but slightly tested medicines—sometimes urged upon the afflicted as "just as good" or better than "Golden Medical Discovery." The dishonest dealer sometimes insist that he knows what the proffered substitute is made of, but you don't and it is decidedly for your interest that you should know what you are taking into your stomach and system expecting it to act as a curative. To him its only a difference of profit. Therefore, insist on having Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. If not promptly supplied trade elsewhere.

Behind Dr. Pierce's Medicines stands the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, thoroughly equipped and with a Staff of Skilled Specialists to treat the more difficult cases of Chronic diseases whether requiring Medical or Surgical skill for their cure. S.S.S. CURES OLD SORES

If an old sore existed simply because the flesh was diseased at that particular spot, it would be an easy matter to apply some remedy directly to the place that would kill the germs; or the diseased flesh might be removed by a surgical operation and a cure effected. But the very fact that old sores resist every form of local or external treatment, and even return after being cut away, shows that back of them is a morbid cause which must be removed before a cure can result. Just as long as the pollution continues in the blood, the ulcer remains an open cesspool for the deposit of impurities which the circulation throws off. S. S. S. cures Old Sores by purifying the blood. It removes every trace of impurity and taint from the circulation, and thus completely does away with the cause. When S. S. S. has cleansed the blood, the sore begins to heal, and it is not a surface cure, but the healing process begins at the bottom; soon the discharge ceases, the inflammation leaves, and the place fills in with firm, healthy flesh. Under the purifying and tonic effects of S. S. S. the system is built up, and those whose health has been impaired by the drain and worry of an old sore will be doubly benefited by its use. B. A. Dump and Elmer O'Farrell were transacting business at Cole Camp Saturday evening.

Mike Sullivan and Roy Dump were business callers in Mora Thursday.

Dr. Walter Warren, the well known veterinarian of Sedalia, was in this section Thursday, doing business connected with his profession.

The Mora Lumber Co. received a car of choice sand from Boonville one day the past week.

Joe Eickhoff, trouble man for the Benton County Telephone Co., was in Mora doing business Saturday evening.

John Viebrock was here Friday morning after a load of building material.

Dr. Sartin, of Cole Camp, was here on a professional visit Friday.

Henry Eickhoff, the Cole Camp furniture man, was a caller in Mora Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Renfro, of near Ionia, was here doing business one day the past week.

J. M. Pittman made a business visit at Windsor one day the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Schnackenberg returned on the noon train Sunday from a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. John M. Moss, at Warsaw.

Herman Schnackenberg has the foundation laid for a modern seven-room house, which he expects to begin building soon. Hicks Eckhoff, the Cole Camp carpenter, will oversee the work.

George Behrens, the popular road overseer, is doing some excellent work on the roads this week with the grader. Mr. Meisner, the road supervisor west of town, is also getting the roads in his district in good shape. He did some work on the county line road one day the past week that was badly needed. He, together with four good teams to the grader, did more work on the county line road than Pettis county has done in the past twenty-five years. This is a public road that it seems Pettis county will not work. Why, no one can find out. The condition of this part of the county line has been neglected for a number of years, and still it has been reported to the highway engineer a number of times, but no attention has been paid to it. This road is probably traveled more than any cross road between Cole Camp and Sedalia, and we think there ought to be an explanation due from the highway engineers of the two counties in the near future.

Our section crew has been laid off a couple of days this week.

H. J. Harms purchased a new Banner carriage Monday of A. C. Eckhoff.

Mrs. Sarah Toler, of west of town, spent Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Bluhm. This was the first time she has been away from home for the past eighteen months.

A WOMAN TAKES POISON

MISS ALICE DONOHO SUICIDED AT HOTEL IN THE TOWN OF COLONY, KANSAS.

THREE NOTES WERE LEFT FOR FRIENDS

The Coroner Refuses to Divulge the Contents—The Body Was Sent to Her Home In Elsmore, Kas., for Burial.

Fort Scott, Kas., May 20.—Miss Alice Donoho, a young girl who resided near Elsmore, northwest of Xenia, committed suicide in a hotel at Colony, Kas. There is something particularly sad in the death of this girl. She left several notes of farewell, but the coroner of Anderson county, who took charge of the remains, refuses to make known the contents.

The girl was known by a good many people in the northwest part of Bourbon county, where she visited on several occasions, and they will be concerned in her death in such a manner. Miss Donoho had been attending the Iola Business college.

With a two-ounce bottle, which had contained carbolic acid, grasped firmly in her pulseless hand, pathetic farewell letters to friends and relatives on a nearby table, the body still warm with the flickering ebb of life, the poor unfortunate girl, around whose late career there remains a mystery, was found dead by the manager of the hotel.

The empty bottle of carbolic acid in the hand of the dead girl was mute evidence of how the tragic death came about. A letter on the table in Miss Donoho's room bade pathetic farewell to the owners of the hotel. Another letter bade goodbye to a friend, Miss Jeffries, of Elsmore Still another note breatned a dying message to her father, J. Donoho, of Elsmore.

The coroner of Anderson county took charge of the notes and their contents are withheld from the public.

Miss Donoho was an employe of the hotel management. She was a comely young woman of bright spirits and happy nature, and death by her own hand could not be conceived.

From the meagre facts at hand it appears that after concluding her work at the hotel at noon, Miss Donoho went to her room. She must have occupied some time in deliberating over the step she was about to take. Then she wrote the three farewell notes and swallowed the deadly potion.

At 5 o'clock the hotel proprietor went to her room to summon Miss Donoho to her work. A rap at the door secured no response. Entering the girl's room, the caller saw the prostrate form of the girl on the bed, the empty poison bottle in her hand. A surgeon who was called, said that Miss Donoho had been dead about an hour. It was learned that Miss Donoho bought the poison about two weeks ago. The cause of the girl's act is a mystery. The father, Mr. Donoho, says that he knows of no reason why his daughter should end her life, and her act is a mystery. The coroner of Anderson county is investigating.

The body of the dead girl was shipped to her home in Elsmore.

COLE CAMP ITEMS.

Cole Camp, Mo., May 19.

Business is very good, as farmers are through planting corn and take time to come to town.

Dick Intelmann has bought the harness shop formerly owned by John Rothganger.

Mrs. Louy Kreisel died last Thursday and was buried Friday evening. She leaves her husband and four small children.

Julia Stratton and Clarence Hunter and wife, of Lincoln, were in our city last week, trading with the merchants.

The Sedalia Grocers' baseball club came down Sunday to play our team and was defeated, as was also the Kansas City Third Regiment team on Monday. Our boys are doing fine.

The building boom is still on, and there are several new dwellings going up.

Hy Viets and John Geischen have bought the hardware and implement stock of Claus Junge, and both gentlemen will move to town.

There seems to be considerable stir-up among our telephone companies. One is pulling one way and one the other. We understand a few people have an idea that our merchants are working against one of the telephone lines, but this is a great mistake. Cole Camp merchants want all the trade they can get.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Healh Is Worth Saving and Some Sedalia People Know How to Save It.

Many Sedalia people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all disease and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a Sedalia citizen's recommendation:

Mrs. Julia Crawford, 302 East Seventh street, Sedalia, Mo., says: "I do not know what I would have done had it not been for Doan's Kidney Pills. For months I was troubled with kidney complaint and at times was laid up. I had severe pains in the kidneys, and the secretions from these organs became irregular and contained a sediment. A cold always aggravated my suffering. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at Bard's drug store, went to the seat of my trouble and banished the attack. I do not hesitate to give my endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, soleagents for the United States.

For fifteen years I suffered from stomach trouble and constipation, until it seemed as if death were the only relief. The most prevalent symptoms were bloating and pressure against the heart and the most distressing pains across the stomach. I had Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin recommended to me and commenced using same. I possibly used a dozen bottles, and I can honestly say I believe it saved my life. I don't think anyone suffered more than I did, and got well, for I am not only relieved, but cured, and can eat anything without any pain or distress.—B. F. Thompson, Foreman Shenandoah, Iowa, Brick and Tile Works.

We have used the sample bottle of Syrup Pepsin and one regular 50 cent bottle and are now using a $1.00 bottle. I feel greatly benefited by its use and expect to continue using it until I am entirely cured. I am 48 years old and was afflicted with indigestion, liver trouble and general prostration, but am feeling better since I began using your medicine than I have for years before.—Mrs. Brick Flinchum, Jackson, Kentucky.

I received your sample bottle of Syrup Pepsin and after taking it I bought several bottles from my druggist. I find it a good remedy for indigestion, and also constipation. I don't regret the money I paid for it.—Ida A. Fortune, Grand Junction, Tenn.

About four years ago I was taken ill with indigestion and stomach trouble. After trying several remedies I was induced to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. After taking part of a bottle I was entirely relieved, and have kept a bottle in my house since. I find it the finest stomach tonic I have ever used and gladly recommend it to all who have stomach trouble.—C. Fowler, Carson City, Mich.

I used your Syrup Pepsin last summer for indigestion, constipation and biliousness, and I find it the best medicine I have ever used.—Noah B. Hatfield, Zalma, Mo.

GREAT WORK OF REFORM

THE MINISTERIAL ALLIANCE IS PLANNING IT FOR THE CITY OF SEDALIA.

DR. TORREY COMES HERE NEXT NOVEMBER

Evangelistic Campaign Is Planned That Will Cause All Former Ones to Sink Into Insignificance, 'Tis Said.

The Ministerial alliance of this city have been discussing in their meetings the question of having a large union evangelistic meeting at an early date as possible, and a committee composed of ministers has been appointed to consider the question.

It was suggested that Dr. Torrey, the famous evangelist, would consider coming to Sedalia for such a campaign, and yesterday word was received by Rev. Harold Cooper, pastor of the First Congregational church, from Dr. Torrey that if the conditions were met he would come for the month of November.

As a rule, the doctor conducts campaigns in the larger cities, but Mr. Gordon Mahy, of Scranton, Pa., son-in-law of Mr. J. H. Mertz, the local druggist, is a warm friend of this well known evangelist and has spoken a good word for this city.

Dr. Torrey needs very little introduction to any city of English speaking people. Born in New York in the home of a prominent banker, he was educated for the profession of the law at Yale, but after his conversion he chose the ministry and went to further his studies at Leipsic, Germany.

As a student and writer he is well known to the ministry at large. When Mr. Moody looked for a successor he found it in Dr. Torrey, and the large school known as the Moody Bible Institute, of Chicago, was placed under his care.

About eight years ago the doctor severed his connection with the institute to take up a larger work upon the request of the business men of the city of Melbourne, Australia.

In that city one of the most remarkable campaigns of history was conducted, with far reaching results.

Meetings were also held in China, Japan, New Zealand, Africa and Great Britain. The campaign in London was one of the largest ever known, when even the nobility of that city were attracted and helped to a Christian life.

It is now a question before the churches of Sedalia. This is an opportunity which they cannot afford to miss, and the pastors of the various churches seem to think that the churches will take hold of this movement with enthusiasm.

Various buildings have been suggested for the meetings. A place seating about 2,000 people will be required, and several places which could be re-arranged are under consideration.

The Ministerial alliance will meet at the First Methodist church on Thursday morning to hear the report of the committee, consisting of Revs. J. F. Caskey, D. M. Clagett, Grant A. Robbins, Harold Cooper, A. W. Kokendoffer and R. C. Miller.

The officers of the various churches are to consider the matter as early as convenient. Should these arrangements be completed, it will mean one of the largest and most efficient campaigns for the upbuilding of the morals of the city that Sedalia has ever had.

ABOUT THE CHURCH LIEN

Lawyer Charles E. Yeater Tells How It Came to Be Filed.

The Democrat-Sentinel in Tuesday's issue referred to a lien paper filed March 6 against the new St. Patrick's church, on East Fourth street. The attorney for the lien claimant, Hon. Charles E. Yeater, was interviewed and said:

"I was employed by a Kansas City corporation to protect a claim for a sub-contractor for materials used in the church. The company had no contract with the church authorities, but with one of its contractors, who had failed to pay it. The church, therefore could not safely pay the account unless a lien paper was filed. Otherwise it would have been forced to pay twice. The lienship was accordingly filed simply for the protection of the church, and the church authorities immediately, on the same day, paid the account.

"The paper was filed solely for their protection, so that they could safely pay the debt, which otherwise might have been lost by the Kansas City concern."

Sedalians Expect to Win Out.

There are many members from the two tribes of Sedalia attending the meeting, and all are working arduously for Sedalia. The matter is to be decided this evening.

Mr. Davis is a young man. He was married to his wife several years ago, but two years ago they separated, owing to objections to the husband on the part of the wife's relatives.

Davis heard nothing from her, either directly or indirectly, until Tuesday, when he received a telegram from his wife, saying she was critically ill in the railway hospital here, and requesting his presence at once.

Mr. Davis arrived on the early morning train today, and will remain until she recovers. A reconciliation will likely result from the illness.

Mrs. Davis, since separating from her husband, has been employed as a waitress by the M., K. & T. at Parsons, Kas., and came here Monday.

Mrs. Davis' mother, Mrs. M. Isgrig, resides at Pacific, Mo.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Rarely has so enthusiastic an audience assembled to hear a program in Sedalia as that which attended the first meeting of the newly organized Euterpean fraternity last evening at the First Congregational church.

Long before the time set for the first number all the seats in the auditorium were filled with members and their friends, and all were more than pleased with the practical demonstration of the Euterpean system that the first meeting afforded.

The program committee, composed of Mrs. John Montgomery, jr., Rev. A. W. Kokendoffer and Mrs. E. F. Yancey, deserves much credit for the success of the entertainment.

The next program will not occur until fall, the committees having the entire summer to perfect the assignments and preparation of their various parts.

During the intermission the officers of the local chapter were nominated and elected, as follows:

Grand master—Rev. J. F. Caskey.

MISS GRACE GRESHAM TO WED

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner will be served and at midnight the newly weds will depart for their residence at Kansas City, where the groom has a home completely furnished and ready for occupation.

THE STATE FAIR BOARD

Directors in Session at Secretary Stinson's Office.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The directors of the Missouri state fair are holding a meeting at the office of Col. J. T. Stinson, secretary, as the Democrat-Sentinel goes to press.

The meeting was postponed until late this afternoon on account of several members of the board failing to arrive until the afternoon train.

The principal topic for discussion at the meeting will be the erection of two new buildings, namely, a woman's building and a machinery pavilion, for the erection of which the state legislature recently appropriated $40,000.

The location of the building, erection, cost of erection and the like will be discussed and perhaps preliminary work made for their building.

Other matters, such as the appointment of additional judges and the like will also be considered.

Bichsel Bros, the well known Ohio avenue jewelers, have donated to the Central Missouri Fox and Wolf Hunting association one of the most expensive and prettiest trophies ever offered for competition.

The trophy is a silver loving cup, gold lined, and is eighteen inches high. It will be contested for at the annual wolf and fox hunt to be held at Elk Lick Springs, Mo., on May 24-29.

On one side of the cup is neatly engraved the picture of a fox hound. On the same side, designed prettily, are the words, "Bichsel Cup, Second Prize, Fox Hound Class, Elk Lick Springs, May 24-29, 1909."

The trophy is now on display in Bichsel Bros.' window.

Some time ago C. H. Bard, another Ohio avenue jeweler, donated to the same association a similar trophy. Mr. Bard's donation is twelve inches high and is a very expensive piece of work.

DINNER IS CALLED OFF

IT WAS TO HAVE BEEN GIVEN BY SON OF ALDERMAN W. D. ILGENFRITZ.

IN HONOR OF RICHEST GIRL IN ST. LOUIS

Paul Bakewell Says That He and His Bride-to-Be, Miss Mary Fullerton, Could Not Exploit the Clever Musician.

Local interest attaches to the following from the St. Louis Republic of this morning, as Mr. McNair Ilgenfritz, one of those written of, is a son of Alderman W. D. Ilgenfritz, of Sedalia:

Because she could not approve the list of guests invited to attend a dinner last night in honor of herself and her fiance, Miss Mary Fullerton, believed to be the richest girl in St. Louis, yesterday had the twenty-four invitations recalled.

Instead of dining as guests of McNair Ilgenfritz, she and Paul Bakewell, jr., her fiancee, spent last evening at Miss Fullerton's home, Westminster place and Newstead avenue.

And, instead of being host to two dozen fashionables, Mr. Ilgenfritz departed last evening for Chicago.

Ilgenfritz, who is a pianist, had prepared with infinite care and pains an elaborate spread, which was to have been discussed at Pechmann's hotel, Olive street and Pendleton avenue. The viands already had been prepared for serving when came the countermanding order.

A sick brother of Mr. Ilgenfritz's served as the ostensible excuse for recalling the invitations.

It all came about because Miss Fullerton discovered that the selections had been made apart from the close personal friends of herself and Mr. Bakewell.

Mrs. J. L. D. Morrison, who was to have been the chaperon, according to the first information, did not appear among those who had accepted invitations. The absence of some other matron in her place, Mr. Bakewell said, caused the decision that the dinner should not take place.

Many versions of the affair were current yesterday. Most of them were incorrect, according to Mr. Bakewell and Miss Fullerton.

To set at rest rumors that the dinner had been broken up by Miss Fullerton's aversion for one of the guests-to-be, or because the affair was not exclusive enough, Mr. Bakewell and Miss Fullerton gave out their version of the affair last night.

"There is little truth to these reported facts," said Mr. Bakewell. "Mr. Ilgenfritz asked Miss Fullerton some time ago what evening between that time and date of our marriage would be convenient for a dinner party, to be given by him.

"Miss Fullerton named the date and place and specified as to a chaperone.

"It was understood that Mrs. J. L. D. Morrison or Mrs. Heister Clymer was to be the chaperone.

"Monday night I heard something about the list of guests. I called up Mr. Ilgenfritz asking who had been invited and who was to be chaperone. The list did not contain the names of Mrs. Morrison or Mrs. Clymer and no other matron had been chosen instead.

"There were some young married matrons invited, it is true. But I felt that the list had been compiled more with a view to having friends of Mr. Ilgenfritz than friends of Miss Fullerton and myself.

"As we were unwilling to be guests at a dinner which savored in the slightest of exploiting the social or professional career of anyone I told Mr. Ilgenfritz that the dinner had best be called off.

"He said that a brother in Chicago was ill and he thought that course advisable.

"That is all there is to the entire matter," concluded Mr. Bakewell, "and it seems to me no useful purpose will be served in saying anything about it."

Miss Fullerton was highly amused at some of the reports regarding the affair and laughed heartily when told that a friend claimed to have seen Ilgenfritz at the Union station consuming a sandwich shortly before the train departed for Chicago. This, she said, was a poor substitute for the dinner planned.

"I don't see who could have told about him going to Chicago," said Miss Fullerton. "Nobody knew about that, because we had to fix up that trip as an excuse for him—" then she deided to leave the explanation to Mr. Bakewell.

"Ticked" an Appeal for Help.

"I am badly burned and blind," was a message slowly ticked in the Panhandle railroad dispatcher's office at Logansport, Ind., late last Friday night from G. E. Frazel, an operator in a block tower near Marion, Ind.

A freight train was ordered to stop at the place and the crew found Frazel suffering terrible agony from burns.

He had been scalded by the explosion of a bottle of coffee he was heating on a stove and had felt his way to a key to call for help. Physicians say they may not save his eyesight.

Jefferson City, May 19.—Governor Hadley gave out a stinging statement last night which is in the nature of a review of the work and omissions of the legislature. He handles the democratic senate without gloves for defeating all measures seeking to regulate the liquor traffic and public service corporations. Here are some excerpts from his statement:

"The house passed and the senate killed the public service commission bill; the anti-pass bill; the anti-discrimination bill; the bill conferring upon the board of railroad commissioners the power to fix passenger rates; the bill separating the brewery from the saloon; the bill providing for district local option in cities of over 25,000 inhabitants; a county unit bill; the bill increasing the dramshop license; the corporation franchise tax bill; the bill providing for a revision of the banking laws of the state; a bill providing for a board of control for the eleemosynary and penal institutions of the state; the election bill for Kansas City and St. Louis making changes in the election laws and providing for the appointment of a bipartisan election board; the bill providing that cases on appeal should not be reversed on account of technicalities not affecting the merits of the litigation, and the bill providing for home rule for the large cities of the state. Only one of these bills, the home rule bill, was political in its character.

"A bill prohibiting railroad companies from granting passes to persons other than employes and those engaged in works of religion and charity, has been passed by congress and most of the states. Yet, by action of the senate, this bill was defeated.

"The action of the senate in defeating laws for the regulation of the liquor traffic indicated that it was equally as friendly to the breweries as it was to the railroads. The brewery owned saloon has long been recognized by everybody familiar with the facts as one of the pronounced evils of the liquor traffic. I recommended the law enforcing their separation, as I also recommended the law conferring upon residence districts in the large cities the right to exclude the saloon henceforth. And I also, as a matter of regulation and of revenue, asked the legislature to increase dramshop licenses. All of these bills, along with a county unit bill, were passed by the house and defeated in the senate. This much should, however, be said in favor of the democratic members of the senate—that they, at least, showed their appreciation of the action of the twenty out of twenty-two breweries in St. Louis which in the last campaign opposed me and supported the democratic candidate for governor."

Ever See a Black Hen Egg?

J. Clingenpeel, the market house poultry dealer, has a curiosity which has never been seen before in this city.

It is a black hen egg, similar in every respect except color to an ordinary hen egg. The curiosity was taken from a dressed hen Tuesday.

The owner today exhibited the egg to many poultry dealers, but none had ever seen its like before.

WITH A BALL AND CHAIN

D. A. LANDES WILL BE COMPELLED TO SWEEP CROSSINGS ON OHIO STREET.

THIS MAN IS A DESPICABLE WRETCH

Pleaded Guilty In Police Court Today to Drunkenness, Disturbing the Peace and Associating With Prostitutes.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

From the role of a society dude to that of a chain-gang prisoner is the experience of D. A. Landes, aged 25, who landed in Sedalia about a month ago to set the pace for the younger society generation.

Landes is minus one arm. He dresses well, but at the expense of a young wife, whom he compelled to enter Ada Stephens' house of prostitution to net him a daily income.

Shortly after landing in Sedalia he sent his wife to the Stephens resort to become an inmate. Each night he took up his abode there, relieving the girl of the money she had made in that shameful manner.

In the day time he would frequent various business houses, at which places he made the acquaintance of a number of well known young men of this city. To them he kept a mystery the story of his other life.

Through his acquaintance with the young Sedalians he was introduced to a number of well known young ladies, all of unquestioned characters. He frequently took them to the picture shows, ice cream parlors and other respectable places. Never did he divulge the fact that he was a married man—the meanest and most contemptible type yet produced.

Less than a fortnight ago a father of one of Landis' feminine acquaintances became suspicious. He investigated and to him is due the credit for unraveling the mystery of Landes' dual life. The irate parent made complaint to the police. The latter selected the opportune time and when sure that Landes was at his abode swarmed down on him. This was done late Tuesday.

Today Landes was arraigned before H. M. Gresham, judge of police court, on a triple charge, namely: drunkenness, disturbing the peace and associating with prostitutes. He entered a plea of guilty to each charge, and Judge Gresham imposed a sentence of one hundred days on each of the three charges.

The prisoner, humiliated and disgraced, was lodged in the city jail, and by order of Judge Gresham to Chief of Police Boultt he will be put to work sweeping Ohio avenue crossings with a ball and chain attached to his limbs.

Investigating Landes' married life, the police learned that he abused and cruelly treated his wife every day, and when she learned of his arrest and imprisonment she fled and so far has not been apprehended.

The nature of Landes' case was so disgusting and thoroughly rotten that no Sedalia lawyer would accept a fee to defend him, and shortly after the dinner hour today the prisoner, with a ball and chain attached to his leg, was put to work sweeping Ohio avenue, from Third street north.

Hundreds of pedestrians passing on Ohio avenue stood gazing at the prisoner as he utilized the sweeper, but if he felt his humiliation he gave no evidence of it.

Prior to his arrest, Landes passed a worthless check for $1 on the Smoke House Cigar company, but this crime will probably go unnoticed.

HELD ON A BOND OF $500

E. J. Wilson, Who Is Charged With Horse Stealing.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

E. J. Wilson, who, on April 30, last, hired a horse and buggy from W. M. Rector and never returned the outfit, was arraigned before H. M. Gresham, ex-officio justice of the peace, in police court today, charged with horse stealing.

Through his attorney, C. C. Kelly, he waived preliminary examination, and in default of $500 bond was remanded to the county jail, awaiting action in criminal court.

Wilson is the prisoner who made a vain endeavor to escape from the city jail recently, when he sawed a cell lock in two parts, being detected just as he was completing the job.

THE QUESTION OF LIGHTING.

It is remarkably strange that there was only one bid for the city lighting offered to the city council last night, especially after the Economy Steam Heating Co. and the Sedalia Ice, Light and Fuel Co. have both so often expressed their anxiety to secure the contract.

The steam heating company has for four years been begging for an electric light and power franchise from the city, and its representatives have both openly and in conference with the city officials expressed themselves as eager to light the city at a much less rate than is now being paid, and also to furnish commercial and domestic lights far cheaper than either of the two existing companies are exacting. A franchise was all they wanted, they said, to bring about this most desirable state of affairs. They even went so far as to write the mayor, stating just what sort of a plant they proposed to erect and were also instrumental in having a particular lamp brought to the city and tested. They seemed thoroughly in earnest in their endeavors and eager in their efforts to secure both the franchise and the contract, yet, lo! when the time for submitting bids arrived they were as silent as the proverbial clam.

What changed the spirit of their dreams can only be surmised, but Mayor Babcock's reference to the old Jacob and Esau incident may perhaps have been very apt. Anyway, only one bid was made, and that, according to those who have investigated the whole matter of the cost of production, was unreasonable and excessive.

With such a situation existing, with a raise in rates confronting us and with no relief in sight, there seems no other way than that now proposed, the building and operating of a municipal plant.

The fight that the mayor and aldermen are making for cheaper lights is for the people and more especially the people of small means, and they should receive hearty and enthusiastic support in their patriotic endeavors.

COLLEGE GRADUATES.

As the final examinations in high schools, colleges and universities are now on, considerable interest attaches to the graduates of these institutions. In the Bowery bread line in New York City a few nights since there were found to be thirty-nine men who were college or university graduates. A night or two later 400 college graduates were found scattered along the Bowery, engaged in various questionable occupations. These figures were made up by a sociological investigating committee and are correct.

The men making the investigation would have had it otherwise if they could. Yet the college man is not to the bad by any means. There are untold thousands of men who have graduated from colleges and universities in the past decade. Few men are down and out entirely within the first few years after graduation.

The other side of the picture is an encouraging one. The statistician of Harvard college finds that of the members of the class of 1908 every member is now engaged in lucrative work or is pursuing an advanced course of study in the university.

Another thing has been noted which goes to show that proms, color rushes, athletics and ponies are not all there is to college life. Of 505 men graduating from Harvard last year, 187 had engaged in employment of some sort during their summer vacation to assist in earning the maintenance fund for the next year.

Religious and philanthropic work has claimed the attention of 188 of them during the entire course. It has also been note dthat the annual expenses of these men averaged from $500 to $1,000.

When it is considered that the youth earning $12 a week is spending more money than the former sum, it would seem that college expenses have been reduced to a living basis. The severer courses of study at the American college or university do not appeal to idlers or shirkers. There is too much work in them. A youth who has mastered the four-year course of study has been subjected to the high standard of personal honor now required of students, and has come through clean and upright, has demonstrated his ability to cope with the world.

UNCLE JOE'S BIRTHDAY.

Joe Cannon is 73 years old, and is still opinionated and stubborn.

If he lives through the present congress Mr. Cannon will break the record in length of service as presiding officer, with the exception of Henry Clay, who served nine and a half years in the chair, to Mr. Cannon's eight.

Andrew Stevenson, of Virginia, and Thomas B. Reed, of Maine, served seven years each as speaker, which is one year more than Mr. Cannon has served, although he will surpass them by one year if he outlives the sixty-first congress.

Mr. Cannon has already broken the record for length of service on the floor. He is now serving his eighteenth term. He came into the house of representatives on March 4, 1873, and if he outlives the sixty-first congress he will have served continuously from March, 1873, to March, 1911, a period of thirty-eight years, with the exception of two years, when he was defeated for the fifty-second congress.

The next record in length of service is that of John H. Ketcham, of New York, who served seventeen consecutive terms. General Ketcham was nominated for congress twenty times and nineteen times by acclamation. He was defeated by the democrats at three elections and at seventeen was successful.

St. Louis Live Stock Market.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

National Stock Yards, Ill., May 18. —Cattle receipts 3,500; market steady on good to choice steers and butcher stuff, but slow and a shade lower on medium steers. Compared with a ago, today's sales look strong. Good to choice steers continue to sell between $6.25 and $7.00; medium $4.25 to $4.75. Good to choice heifers $6.00 to $6.75; medium $5.00 to $6.00. Veal calves steady; top $7.50. Stockers and feeders active; supplies light. Milkers steady. Choice cows and calves $45 to $55. We look for moderate supplies with a little or no change in values during the coming week.

Hog receipts 13,000; quality common. General trade steady with yesterday, and while that means a little lower than the close of last week, the figures show an advance of fully 10 per cent over prices in force a week ago. The bulk of all the hogs today sold at $700 to $7.30; good mixed and butcher hogs at $7.20 to $7.40; good heavies $7.35 to $7.45; mixed packers $7.00 to $7.30. Good pigs $6.50 to $6.90; light pigs $4.75 to $5.50. Top today $7.45. Liberal runs are looked for the next few days, and increased supplies would mean a lower market.

Sheep receipts 2,500; market steady with yesterday, or about 25 to 40c per cwt. lower than last Tuesday, which was the high day of the year. Choice Tennessee spring lambs around $9.00; best native spring lambs $8.75; choice clipped lambs $7.85; choice wethers $6.35; choice ewes $6.25. We look for little or no change in the sheep market during the coming week.—National Live Stock Commission Company.

Mr. Meisner, the road supervisor west of town, is also getting the roads in his district in good shape. He did some work on the county line road one day the past week that was badly needed. He, together with four good teams to the grader, did more work on the county line road than Pettle county has done in the past twenty-five years. This is a public road that it seems Pettis county will not work. Why, no one can find out. The condition of this part of the county line has been neglected for a number of years, and still it has been reported to the highway engineer a number of times, but no attention has been paid to it. This road is probably traveled more than any cross road between Cole Camp and Sedalia, and we think there ought to be an explanation due from the highway engineers of the two counties in the near future.

COLE CAMP ITEMS.

Cole Camp, Mo., May 19.

Business is very good, as farmers are through planting corn and take time to come to town.

Dick Intelmann has bought the harness shop formerly owned by John Rothganger.

Mrs. Louy Kreisel died last Thursday and was buried Friday evening. She leaves her husband and four small children.

Julia Stration and Clarence Hunter and wife, of Lincoln, were in our city last week, trading with the merchants.

The Sedalia Grocers' baseball club came down Sunday to play our team and was defeated, as was also the Kansas City Third Regiment team on Monday. Our boys are doing fine.

The building boom is still on, and there are several new dwellings going up.

Hy Viets and John Geischen have bought the hardware and implement stock of Claus Junge, and both gentlemen will move to town.

There seems to be considerable stir-up among our telephone companies. One is pulling one way and one the other. We understand a few people have an idea that our merchants are working against one of the telephone lines, but this is a great mistake. Cole Camp merchants want all the trade they can get.

LOCAL LIGHTING PLANT

TO BE OWNED BY CITY AND CONTROLLED BY COMMISSION IS NOW PROPOSED.

MAY SPEND $150,000 FOR THAT PURPOSE

A Special Election to Vote Upon the Proposition—What the City Council Did at Monday Night's Meeting.

The city council at Monday night's session adopted a resolution providing for a municipal lighting plant for Sedalia and authorizing the mayor of Sedalia to call a special election to vote on a $150,000 bond issue to secure the necessary sum to promote the enterprise.

The resolution provides for a board of managers for the plant, similar to the board of park commissioners, cemetery board and library board.

This step was taken when it was learned that only one bid had been offered for furnishing street lights for the city.

Two weeks ago the city council advertised for bids for furnishing street lights. At that time the Sedalia Light & Traction company, the Sedalia Ice, Light & Fuel company and the Economy Steam Heating company were anxious for the franchise. Each desired offering a bid.

Last night was the date set for the opening of bids, but the Light & Traction company was the only bidder, that corporation's bid being $67.50 per year for each street light.

J. H. Sullivan, the Second ward alderman, offered a motion that the one bid be rejected, as it, in his estimation, was exorbitant.

A. W. McKenzie, chairman of that particular committee, in a lengthy talk, presented data showing that other cities secure street and commercial lights at a much cheaper rate than Sedalia. He, too, was opposed to accepting the bid, likewise nearly every other member of the council.

Chairman McKenzie then asked what was the reason the other two lighting companies had not offered bids for lighting the city, as several weeks ago each seemed over-zealous to secure the franchise.

C. C. Kelly, representing the Sedalia Ice, Light & Fuel company, said he could speak for his company and explain the situation exactly. He said he knew that the council would not accept the Light & Traction company's bid of $67.50. In fact, he knew it would not be accepted if it was $10 lower, and for that reason, and at that figure, his company did not think there would be any money in securing the contract.

A. L. Pringle, the Third ward alderman, coincided with the views of Chairman McKenzie, saying the bid was too high.

Mayor Babcock then referred to the interest shown by the Economy Steam Heating company several weeks ago, and in fact for four years past, during which time they have been endeavoring to secure the franchise. He said for four years the heating company had been trying hard to get the contract for lighting the city; that the same company had talked about erecting a large lighting plant in Sedalia and contemplated the expenditure of a large sum of money. Concluding, Mayor Babcock said that last Friday he received information from the management of the company, wherein the management said that owing to financial troubles the company would be unable to put in a lighting plant in Sedalia.

"It looks like they have sold your birthright for a mess of potash," was the statement made by Mayor Babcock in concluding his talk about the Heating company.

On roll call the bid was rejected by unanimous vote of the council.

A resolution was then introduced providing for steps toward building a municipal lighting plant and it was carried, every councilman voting in its favor.

Change in Zinc Ore Duties.

Washington, May 18.—In pursuance of the decision of the committee on finance to the redraft of the paragraphs of the tariff bill relating to the duties of zinc ore and pig zinc, Senator Smoot, of Utah, will in the near future introduce amendments to those schedules. Instead of making zinc ore and calamine dutiable at ore cent per pound on the zinc contained therein, they are to be assessed proportionately, the duties being considerably reduced from the rate as established by the house.

FERVENT LOVE LETTERS

ALEXANDER DUNCAN MAILED A TOTAL OF 1,546 TO MISS ALICE DOWNES.

AFTERWARDS HE MARRIED ANOTHER GIRL

Disappointed Girl Sued for $25,000 for Breach of Promise and Irish Jury Rendered Verdict for $4,280

The faithlessness of a lover, described by counsel "as a remarkable man—almost a genius," was the cause of proceedings in the Dublin court, which ended in a verdict of $4,280 for breach of promise of marriage, writes a Dublin, Ireland, correspondent.

The plaintiff was Miss Alice Josephine Downes, daughter of the proprietress of the Westbrook hotel, Dublin, and she claimed no smaller a sum than $25,000. The man was Alexander Duncan, of Oliverton, Montserrat, West Indies, described as an employe of the Montserrat Co., who was neither present nor represented in court.

"The defendant," observed Mr. T. M. Healy, K. C., M. P., on behalf of the lady, "wrote 1546 love letters. He could not pass a letter box without posting a letter to the plaintiff.

"Never have I seen such a batch of correspondence as there is in this case—not an ordinary, vulgar kind of letter, but letters of passion and ardor, the like of which I have never read. He was not content with writing to the young lady herself, but he wrote to her mother, to her sister and her brother."

Counsel said Mr. Duncan, who was a native of Liverpool, was a remarkable man, almost a genius. He had taken service in West Africa, and after six years was home for a year's holiday. He came to Dublin and stayed at the plaintiff's mother's hotel. He was a man of wealth and frequently entertained the proprietress of the hotel with tales of African life.

One evening, after he had been on a shopping expedition with Miss Downes, he asked her if she were engaged. She laughed and said, "What's that to you?"

"Well," he said, "I should like very much to be allowed to pay you some attention." "You must go and see my mother about that," she replied.

"And so," remarked counsel, "Mr. Duncan, who began practically by sweethearting the mother, at once went to see Mrs. Downes and told her that the real secret of his long visit to Dublin—the real attraction—was her daughter, Miss Alice."

Miss Downes raised difficulties with regard to religion, defendant being a Presbyterian and plaintiff a Roman Catholic, and also about the climate of West Africa. Duncan said that religion should be no barrier and added that he hoped to get another appointment in the West Indies. Ultimately, he was accepted as suitor.

"That night," continued Mr. Healy, "this gentleman sat down in the hotel and wrote his first love letter to the young lady. In the course of the following six months he wrote to the plaintiff, not merely daily from train and ship, but almost from his bed, letters, telegrams and postcards."

In the following November he sailed for Montserrat, where he got a good appointment.

The first name of the lady, said counsel, was Alice, but the defendant asked to be allowed to address her as Josephine, as he was fond of the name, and he pointed out that in Scotland the name Alice was rather common. In one of his letters from Liverpool he wrote.

"My Darling Josephine: Many thanks for you dear, sweet letter received this morning. Mother brought it up to my bedroom, together with the eggs and milk. You have no idea how glad I am to get it, but was sorry you cried yourself to sleep on Wednesday night. You must not cry, darling. I do not like to think of you being so downhearted. I miss you terribly, darling, and don't know how I will manage to exist without you. I am very tired of being in Liverpool, and, oh, so lonely. Last night I was in bed at 8:30 and lay awake, thinking of you, darling, and wondering what you were doing. I could not even enjoy a smoke, a very unusual occurrence for me."

A dramatic incident which took place at Bray was described by counsel. Defendant had taken plaintiff there on a coaching trip. He asked her to swear to be his wife, and she said she was ready to swear. "Well," he said, "let us come into your church and vow each other before God to be husband and wife at the altar." She consented and there in the church at Bray he got down upon his knees and before the altar compelled her to pledge herself that she would never marry any other man but him, that he would never marry any other woman but her.

He told her that he was so much struck by her kindness and beauty, and the attraction of her religion that now voluntarily he would desert the religion of his fathers and join the Catholic church. Some time afterward he was baptized at Marlborough Street cathedral.

Counsel went on to point out that defendant had evidently been attracted by the daughter of the Hon. Mr. Driver, managing director of the Montserrat Co., whom he subseqnently married.

He had written to Mrs. Downes, acknowledging a letter which he alleged he had received from her, announcing that her daughter would shortly be married. Mrs. Downes replied at once to say that she had written no such letter, and denounced it as a forgery. Inquiries subsequently revealed the fact of defendant's own marriage.

Pat Broke the News.

Pat had been delegated by his fellow employes to tell Mrs. Casey the news of her husband's accidental death. On the way to the Casey home, Pat pondered on how to break the news to the widow. Finally he hit on what to him seemed a most humane way of preparing Mrs. Casey for the sad news.

Knowing the violent hatred which Mrs. Casey as well as all loyal Irishmen have for the A. P. A., he said on greeting the woman:

"Ah, Mrs. Casey, it is bad news I have to bring you. Your husband, Mike, has turned an A. P. A."

"Mike turned A. P. A.! The scoundrel, I hope he is dead."

"He is," answered Pat.—Milwaukee Free Press.

The Hour Glass.

Instead of being obsolete and simply an interesting relic, the hour glass in various forms is a twentieth century necessity. A machinist authority points out that for such purposes as timing, hardening and tempering heats in twist drill manufacture, where seconds or minutes must be gauged accurately, nothing serves like the hour glass with the right amount of sand. Accuracy to fractions of a second can be had much more easily than by watching the hands of a watch.

A "Perpetual" Lamp.

The "perpetual lamp" of Prof. Molish is a glass flask of gelatine supporting a colony of phosphorescent bacteria. Being without heat rays, it represents the much-sought cold light.

300 BEAUTIFUL WOMEN

ABDUL HAMID'S HAREM CAPTURED BY THE SOLDIERS IN CONSTANTINOPLE.

SULTAN'S FAVORITES HELD BY MILITARY

Assault on Palace With Subsequent Taking of Imprisoned Women Shows the Lavish Way In Which Sultan Lived.

The downfall of Abdul Hamid has been accompanied by the dispersal of the most remarkable seraglio in the history of the world, writes a London correspondent. Three hundred beautiful women, who were Abdul Hamid's temporary spouses, thousands of pretty slave girls and an even greater number of stalwart eunuchs, suddenly found themselves at the mercy of the soldiers attacking the palace. Panic reigned among the lovely inmates of the harem. They knew the character of their own countrymen too well not to realize what their fate would be once their lord and master had lost his power. The English newspaper correspondents have referred but little to this painful aspect of the fall of Yildiz Klosk, but the Continental press has devoted considerable space to accounts of the terrible scenes which occurred.

Every one of the sultan's favorites had been jealously guarded from the prying eyes of strangers from the moment she entered the harem. A Cullinan diamond could not be more closely watched over than a female member of Abdul Hamid's establishment. For any unauthorized person to be detected in proximity to the apartments of the fair ones was equivalent to the signing of his death warrant. In this respect the sultan set an example which his subjects have strictly followed. Cases are on record of venturesome Europeans surreptitiously visiting Constantinople harems. They have been caught and there has been only one alternative to death—the diabolical cruelty of the Turk and the enormity of the offense in his eyes have made it essential that the alternative shall be the severest punishment that can be devised. It is well known that more than one prominent Englishman has had to choose between this and a watery grave in the Bosphorus.

As a voluptuary Abdul Hamid has a reputation unrivaled in history. He professed to be a person who practiced exemplary moderation in all kinds of pleasure. Certainly he was something of an ascetic as far as eating and drinking were concerned, but he placed few restrictions on other inclinations. At Yildiz Kiosh he lived amid the most luxurious surroundings, had magnificent establishments for each of his four legal wives, and, in the seclusion of a series of most gorgeous apartments kept fully 300 beautiful companions, who remained during his pleasure, and were periodically "weeded out" to make room for new arrivals. There was no difficulty as to the sources of supply. It was realized that there was no surer path to Abdul Hamid's favor than to present him with a pretty slave girl for his seraglio. Each inmate was under the strict supervision of several eunuchs, and could command the services of half a dozen girl attendants. Such a huge household was, of course, an enormous expense. Yildiz Kiosk in recent years had a population of over 12,000 persons, and the cost of providing for them was fully $20,000,000 per annum.

The women of the establishment were allowed no free communication with the outside world. Any letters received or sent by them were scrutinized by officials who acted as palace censors. If they took exercise in the grounds they were heavily veiled, and surrounded by attendants who were ready to report immediately any act not strictly in accord with the routine of the establishment. The system of domestic espionage was carried to the length of permitting no locked doors in the women's private apartments, so that, neither sleeping nor waking, could they ever feel secure from prying eyes.

It was into this unique abode of the sultan that a horde of soldiers, flushed with the triumph of their plans and eager to seize the fruits of victory, burst. For several days the inmates had been enduring the horhors of anticipation. They had been living without gas, water and electric light, and toward the end of the siege, without provisions, all supplies having been intercepted. The majority of them are said to have had nothing to eat except beeroot leaves. In their weak, famished state, they were in a condition bordering on collapse when the troops entered the apartments of the harem. The eunuchs made no show of resistance and were at once seized and placed under a strong guard. Then their captors turned their attention to the women, whose terrified screams woke the echoes of the great palace. Pale and trembling they shrank into the corners of the rooms and tried to hide behind the curtain hangings. But there was no place that could afford them more than temporary concealment. The correspondents refrain from detailed reference to the plight of these poor creatures, but there seems no room for doubt that the officers failed to exercise proper restraint over many of their men.

The hundreds of women of the harem and their female attendants who were left by the sultan when he was taken to Salonika are stated to have been distributed among their captors. It is reported that they have been sent off in detachments to the residences of the victors who secured them. Some are said to have appeared to be resigned to their fate, but others were weeping and groaning as if in the depths of despondency. Their despairing attitude told clearly enough of the terrible ordeal they had passed through. It was rumored in Constantinople last week, and the rumor seems well founded, that not one of the female inmates of Yildiz Kiosk escaped from the soldiers.

RUINS WOMEN'S SHAPES

DEVOTION TO FASHION MAKES HER FIGURE REVERSE OF PLEASING.

SO SAYS HUGH CAINES, SCULPTOR, IN EAST

Boston Expert Claims Sex is Growing Away From the Grecian Figure, Which Was the Admiration of the World.

Boston, May 18.—Hugh Caines, a sculptor, declares that women's figures have been ruined by devotion to fashion.

"Women's figures are getting poorer and poorer each year," he said. "The female form is degenerating because of style.

"The women are getting farther and farther away from the Greek figure of 2,000 years ago, which they are all seeking to attain and which the whole world admires. As one instance of this, those who determine what is fashionable are trying to bring the waist line farther down.

"At present an effort is being made to get it down as low as the hips. This is all wrong, of course, for nature long ago determined that it should be just below the breast, allowing a soft, graceful line from hip to armpit."

No Strike of Brewery Workmen.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 17.—After a conference lasting all Sunday afternoon, an agreement was reached on the strike of the brewers. Under the compromise agreed on the men will receive an increase of 2½ cents.

Defeated but Not Disgraced.

A local aggregation of national pastimers known as the Van Nov Signals suffered a severe drubbing at the hands of the Houstonia Demons Sunday afternoon on the latter's grounds, the final score being something in the neighborhood of 30 to 4.

On account of the small attendance the gate receipts were not large enough to enable all of the Signals to ride home; so four or five of the boys decided to be economical and started hoofing it toward Sedalia, but were overtaken at Hughesville by the Lexington branch "Humming Bird," and arrived home defeated but not disgraced.

MAY GO TO COLORADO

Missouri May Lose Dean of the College of Agriculture.

Columbia, Mo., May 19.—Members of the faculty of the University of Missouri are free to say they expect Henry Jackson Waters, dean of the college of agriculture, to resign and accept the presidency of the Colorado Agricultural college.

Prof. Waters refuses to say whether he will accept. He has been dean here fourteen years. Mr. Waters probably will visit Colorado in the next few weeks.

"I cannot tell now what I shall do," said the dean. "When Judge Black held a conference with me here several weeks ago he was unable to make a definite offer. Until I have a letter from them explaining all the particulars, salary, equipment and terms, I cannot make up my mind as to what is best."

Colorado has one of the best agricultural colleges in the world.

Dean Waters was graduated at the University of Missouri when the term "Aggie" was a reproach. He took his degree in 1886. He was professor in the Pennsylvania state college three years and spent one year in German universities.

Dean Waters gets a salary of $4,000 a year and a house. Half of his salary is paid him by the government as director of the experiment station.

"ADAM GOD'S" TRIAL BEGINS

Kansas City Fanatic Loses Change of Venue Appeal.

Kansas City, May 19.— James and Melissa Sharp, religious fanatics, known as "Adam and Eve God," on trial here for the murder of two policemen and a bystander during a religious riot, December 8, yesterday were denied a change of venue and the selection of a jury to try them was immediately begun.

Frequently during the trial "Adam God" tapped a Bible and told passages in it upon which he depended for his salvation. Tears streamed down his face.

FIGHT A FATHER'S WILL

JOHN SPRECKLES DECLARES THE SUGAR KING WAS KEPT A PRISONER.

WAS DONE TO CUT OFF BROTHER AND HIM

San Francisco Millionaire to Battle for His Share in Disposition of Estate—Ugly Developments Considered Certain.

San Francisco, Cal., May 19.—Charging that his father, the late sugar king, Claus Spreckles, was virtually kept a prisoner by members of his family before he made his will disposing of his estate, valued at between $20,000,000 and $40,000,000, John D. Spreckles yesterday admitted that he would contest the distribution of the estate in accordance with the terms of the will now in probate in this city.

The will gave to the widow, Mrs. Anna C. Spreckles, a life interest in the estate; the same to be divided at her death among three children—Claus A. Spreckles, living in New York; Rudolph Spreckles, living in this city, and Mrs. Emma Spreckles Ferris, living at Kingwood, England. John D. and Adolph, the remaining children, were ignored by the testator on the ground that they had been suitably provided for during his life.

When the petition of the executors for a partial distribution of the estate to the beneficiaries under the will was filed in court yesterday, counsel for John D. and Adolph Spreckles demurred, thereby announcing their intention to contest the will. It was with reference to this mater that John D. Spreckles yesterday said that "before the proceedings were finished some people would be shown up in their true light."

"On what grounds do you propose to contest the will?" Mr. Spreckles was asked.

"To answer that question would be to expose my hand to the enemy," replied Mr. Spreckles.

"Do you refer to your brothers Rudolph and Claus A. Spreckles, as 'the enemy?'"

Mr. Spreckles answered that people might draw their own conclusions.

Mr. Spreckles hinted that the will was drawn under duress. "It was a forced agreement," he said. "My brother Adolph and I were always on the best of terms with my father, while the two other brothers were not. We have abundant testimony to show what my father thought of the enemy, and it will be produced in due season."

"In the pending contest," continued Mr. Spreckles, "things will be split wide open."

He added that he would not mince matters in presenting his case before the court, but that he "would call a spade a spade."

MYSTERY IN TWO DETHAS

WOMAN'S CHARRED BODY FOUND IN RUINS OF HOME SOON AFTER MARRIAGE.

HER HUSBAND WAS KILLED IN THE BARN

Girl Had Journeyed Alone From Chicago to Wed Her Old Sweetheart—No Suicide Motive So Far as Neighbors Know.

Prineville, Ore., May 19.—A mystery that seems impossible to solve surrounds the tragedy that ended the lives of Louis H. Worley, formerly of St. Louis, and his bride of less than a week at their home near Redmond, this county. It was either a double murder or murder and suicide.

If both were murdered it is believed that the motive was other than robbery, for it is hardly conceivable that robbers would have killed two in the hope of getting anything of value in the home of a farmer, prosperous though he was known to be. But there is no known reason why the young husband should have killed his bride and himself.

Young Worley came here some time ago from St. Louis, bought a farm, and set about improving it. He said that he was born in the Missouri city, and had lived there nearly all his life. He had some money when he came here, bought one of the best tracts of land in the county, and has apparently been successful and prosperous. He had no near neighbors, but was on friendly terms with those who lived in his vicinity.

Some time ago he confided to them that he was tired of being a bachelor, and that he contemplated getting married. He said that he had a sweetheart in Chicago, and that she was coming west soon to marry him. She arrived last Wednesday, and was introduced as Miss Ruth Leroy, of Chicago. She was a handsome young woman, and the neighbors were glad she was to become the wife of the popular young farmer.

The two were married the day the bride arrived and went at once to Worley's farm to begin their honeymoon. They were seen by neighbors Friday and Saturday, but Sunday they did not attend the country church. Neighbors passing the Worley farm noticed that the house had been burned. An investigation disclosed the charred body of the bride in the ruins of the home, while the body of Worley, a bullet wound in the temple, was found in the barn.

The woman's body was so badly burned that it was impossible to say if she had suffered violence before her death. The double tragedy apparently took place late Saturday night because the burning house would have been seen in the daytime or early evening.

A coroner's jury rendered a verdict in the case of the woman, deciding that death was accidental. No inquest has been held yet on the body of Worley. Opinion is divided as to the tragedy, but the accident theory is generally discredited.

SHERIFF TRAPS "WILD MAN"

Mississippian Has Lived Life of Beast for Five Years.

Prentiss, Miss., May 19.—Sheriff John Laird has captured in the swamps near here a man who had shunned all civilization for five years, and whose occasional presence in isolated communities near here, with his unkempt and almost weird appearance, earned for him the title of "the wild man."

He was covered with only a scanty portion of ragged garments, his nails were 5 inches long and his hair and beard reached almost to his waist. He refused to eat cooked food when it was offered to him. He was identified as Marvin Whitehead, whose relatives have long been in search of him. His family is prominent in this section.

CHANGES LOCK ON JAIL

Defies Executive and Refuses to Surrender Star.

Carmi, Ill., May 19.—Defying Mayor Claude M. Barnes, Chief of Police H. S. Parsons is wearing his star, although he has been officially dismissed. Edgar Bryant, Mayor Barnes' choice, was given a baton yesterday and is also serving as chief. Both men are claiming the distinctions of the office, and both are making their official rounds.

Mayor Barnes dismissed Parsons Sunday night, but the old chief told the new mayor he would continue to act until officially deposed by the city council.

Mayor Barnes yesterday swore out charges against the police head, alleging he had absented himself from the city without permission. Barnes also issued a call for a special meeting of the city council Saturday night, when the matter will be threshed out.

Parsons claims the mayor has no power to remove an officer unless with the full sanction of the city council. The mayor, however, claims plenary power and to deter the old police head from his work yesterday placed new locks on the city jail, giving keys to the newly appointed and the old police, but ignoring Chief Parsons.

ESCAPES FROM THE "PEN"

One Convict Gets Away, but Companion Is Recaptured.

Fort Madison, Ia., May 19.—Two convicts got out of the penitentiary yesterday and one made good his escape, the other being retaken. They are Thomas Hatch, sent up from Polk county, and M. J. Dwyer, alias William Pool, up from Kossuth county, the latter serving his fourth term.

The men gained access to the basement of the new hospital building, taking with them a jackscrew. They remained there until the prisoners were taken from work on the new wall to dinner, then forced an opening through the wall into the new unfinished yard and got away.

The pair were seen by some one from outside and the authorities notified. All work was suspended and the prisoners locked in cells to allow guards to go in search. Dwyer was overtaken on Blackhawk Heights, near by, but Hatch eluded his pursuers. Dwyer refused to give any information about Hatch or how they managed to escape.

BENEFIT OF CHURCH FUND

Ladies of the East Sedalia Baptist Are Hard at Work.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The plan is this. The ladies will for a certain number of days advertise, at their own expense, for five or six business houses the houses' goods to be sold on a certain day.

Then the ladies will be given 10 per cent of the total sales on those days.

Hellish Fashions.

His satanic majesty touched a button and summoned his head imp. "What is all that noise in Factory street?"

"Your imperial majesty, it is the women mobbing the new corset factory. They are all demanding one of those new redhot, electric-charged corsets."

"Sufferin' souls!" gasped his majesty, "and I thought I had invented a new torment."

"The mistake was in forcing that French girl to wear one first. She made 'em all believe they are the very latest style."

"Saints above! and I thought I understood women. Well, well, now that I think of it, the plan works out better than I thought. Take 'em away from all the ladies but a few; see that they are advertised as the very latest fashion and I guess that will make those women who can't get 'em suffer all right, all right."—Puck.

Thin Skinnedness.

MR. JONES IN AN EMERGENCY.

Except for Single Unfortunate Incident He Was Just the Man to Deal with It.

When Jones reached home the other night he found Mrs. Jones huddled up in a corner of the sofa weeping, and about four inches of water on the kitchen floor

The Joneses hadn't been married very long, so he contented himself with a general remark concerning the nonresourcefulness of women and asked how it happened.

"The water pipe under the sink burst," Mrs. Jones told him.

Jones smiled pityingly, walked deliberately to the kitchen closet and produced a wrench. Opening the cellar door with a confident air he descended to the region below.

After bumping at least seven obstacles he finally reached the wall and reached out for the cock which he had noticed in a pipe which traversed the wall. He applied his wrench and shut it off.

Patting himself on the back for being able to cope with an emergency, he started back upstairs. Just halfway up the steps he bumped into his wife.

Mrs. Jones was the first to speak.

"O, dear," she said, "what in the world did you turn off the gas for?"—Philadelphia Times.

QUEER TRAITS OF CRIMINALS.

Sentenced to Prison Terms, They Frequently Mourn for Pets They Are Leaving Behind Them.

The New York central office detective had just sent one of the worst criminals in the city away for a long, long rest.

"Did he give you any trouble?" asked a friend.

"No, he did a good deal of crying, though."

"For some woman, I suppose?"

"Woman? Rather not! They never cry for human beings. This fellow had a wife who had stuck by him through the trial, and who, before he was caught, worked her fingers off for him. Then there were two children. But he never mentioned them. He was crying about his flight, his pigeons, you know. He had about 60 fancy ones, and whenever he thought of what would become of them while he was away tears would spring to his eyes. A lot of the worst crooks and gangsters in the city are fanciers, and a kid couldn't be more sentimental than they are. Sometimes, too, they are sorry for dogs. I knew one who was more anxious about his ferret than anything else. At the same time I never knew a criminal, man or woman, who had a cat among the things they were sorry to leave behind."

SAYS THE TRUTH STINGS

THE AUTHOR OF "THREE WEEKS" SAYS SHE HAS BEEN GROSSLY MISREPRESENTED.

SHE "NEVER RODE IN AMERICAN CAB"

Not Worried by Outcry Because She Has Sense of Humor—An Interview in the London Daily Express.

London, May 19.—"I do not feel the least worried by the outcry of my American friends. I have a sense of humor."

So says Mrs. Elinor Glyn in an interview the Daily Express publishes this morning on the indignant criticism, which it is said, has been aroused in America by a forecast of her new book, "Elizabeth Visits America."

Mrs. Glyn pointed out that the meaning of most of the quotations from the book, published in America, has been wholly changed by cleverly disregarding their context, and many of the remarks which are said to have incited the most criticism are uttered by American characters in the book.

"My experience of life," said Mrs. Glyn, "has taught me the exactness of the French proverb, 'tI is only the truth that stings.' Besides, if the cap fits, people generally wear it. Anyone who reads the book will see I have paid high tribute to all that is great and noble in American life. But, of course, we are all subject to cheap misrepresentation."

The interviewer questioned Mrs. Glyn about Miss Imogene King's taunt that she thinks American men namby-pamby mollycoddles because they did not try to kiss her when alone in a cab.

"I never was in an American cab," answered the author of "Three Weeks," naively, and added, "I do not in the least know whom Miss Imogene King is."

Miss Imogene King, of the New York, Gotham, Woman's and Democratic clubs of New York city, was quoted as saying that she regarded Mrs. Glyn as a woman of rare discrimination and breeding, but that what she said of American men in her new book was not true in all respects. Miss King said further:

"Mrs. Glyn infers, in fact, she says somewhere in her new book, that American men are sexless. She would have use believe that they are namby-pamby mollycoddle affairs, just because they evidently did not fly at her when she was alone in a cab and try to kiss her. Now, if that is Mrs. Glyn's idea of 'sex' and 'man quality' I am glad she was disappointed in our men. I am proud to think our men are too decent for such displays of their material natures."

"JEFF'S" WEIGHT 243 POUNDS

Will Be In Fighting Trim When He Reahes About 220.

Chicago, May 19.—James J. Jeffries has jumped on the scales in public for the first time since he came out of retirement, and in the presence of a few interested persons tipped the beam at 243 pounds.

Jeffries announced that he would weigh again before he left the city, and would show whether or not he was reducing his weight. He says his best fighting weight is 220 pounds.

"I don't see where I am asking for much delay in training," said Jeffries. "I simply want to be in the best possible shape when I enter the ring. When Sullivan and Corbett signed up in 1892 it was in March. They met in September. How long did Fitzsimmons and Corbett have for training? It was a matter of months, I know."

GIRL'S BACK LACERATED

BY A WHIPPING ADMINISTERED IN ORPHANS' HOME IN INDIANA.

SUPERINTENDENT HAS BEEN ARRESTED

Whipped Until the Blood Streamed Down Her Back, Leaving Cruel Lacerations of the Flesh—What the Girl Says.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 19.—For whipping Bessie Sturgeon, a 15-year-old girl, an inmate of the German Protestant Orphans' home, until the blood streamed down her back, leaving cruel lacerations of the flesh that will show scars for many a day, Henry Roesener, superintendent of the home, has been arrested on charges brought by the Indianapolis Humane society. The case was continued until May 27.

"Had the offender been the mayor of the city or the governor of the state," said President Charles A. Pfafflin, of the society, "it would have made no difference—we would have taken the same action. The matter came to us unlooked for, but that picture speaks for itself.

"The photograph does not show the severity of the punishment, for it was not taken until nearly 48 hours after the whipping. Even in that time the wounds had began to heal, which is only natural in a young and healthy child, such as this girl."

Seventeen distinct stripes were found across the girl's back and shoulders, five of them being lacerations of the skin. It is charged that the beating was administered because the girl was accused of being impudent. Roesener's wife is the matron of the home.

While the matron was absent, Bessie Sturgeon and Augusta Soult, another inmate of the institution, left the place and made their way to the home of Humane Inspector Merrill, at 1117 Linden street, where they told Mrs. Merrill of their troubles, and of the beating the girl said Roesener had inflicted on her. Mrs. Merrill was sympathetic. When she examined the girl's back she was indignant. She called her husband, who took the girls to the office of Dr. Charles A. Pfafflin, a member of the Humane society.

George W. Powell, another member of the society, was called. The men arranged for a thorough investigation at police headquarters. All of them were indignant when Dr. Pfafflin showed them the ugly stripes and lacerations on the child's back.

Later in the afternoon a meeting was held at police headquarters, attended by Henry Prange, Henry Meyers and Joseph Schaub, officers of the Orphans' home; Dr. Pfafflin, chairman of the executive committee of the society; Chief Metzger, Capt. Hyland, Merrill and Roesener and his wife.

The child said she was whipped with a sewing machine belt because she objected to assisting in washing the dishes when it was not her turn. She said Mrs. Roesener called her husband, and when he heard of the matter he took a sewing machine belt of round leather and flogged her while she was standing face to the wall.

The girl said she had been whipped frequently. Roesener admitted he had whipped the child, but he insisted that he did not think he was striking her hard enough to inflict injuries.

MR. HALL'S VOTE MISQUOTED

He Voted to Submit the Prohibition Resolution, With Tax Amendment.

In Monday's issue of the Democrat-Sentinel was published a news item which stated what Rev. Ray Palmer, pastor of the First Baptist church at Jefferson City, said in his sermon last Sunday, when he claimed that the Baptists in the senate beat the submission of the prohibition resolution. The article called by name Senator Greene, of Kansas City; Senator Hall, of Sedalia, and Senator Allee, of Miller county, and stated that they were all Baptists and had voted against the prohibition amentment. But the facts are that Senator Greene is the only one of the three who voted against submission, Senators Allee and Hall voting to submit the question of prohibition to the voters at the next general election. It is true, however, that the three above named senators, with fifteen others, voted for the tax amendment, which was adopted and he resolution, as amended, passed the senate by a vote of 23 to 8 and the record shows that Senator Holmes Hall, of Sedalia, voted to submit the resolution.

When seen by a representative of the Democrat-Sentinel today, Senator Hall said:

"The fact that all the Baptists in the senate voted for the tax amendment should prove conclusively that it was right; and if the house had concurred with the senate in that amendment, the prohibition resolution would have been submitted by the legislature. It was the fault of the house as much as of the senate that the resolution was not submitted. But the question can yet be submitted at the next general election through the initiative and referendum."

A "CALL" BY RUTH BRYAN

WOMEN ARE TO MEET AT DENVER TO UPBUILD THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY

A GREAT GATHERING IS ANTICIPATED

Convention of "Jane Jefferson" Clubs to Be Addressed by Governor Johnson—Suffragettes Will Be Conspicuous.

Denver, May 19.—Mrs. Ruth Bryan Leavitt, daughter of William J. Bryan, has arranged for a convention here in July of all the "Jane Jefferson" clubs in the state, at which an address to be delivered by Mrs. Leavitt, the president, on the upbuilding of the democratic party from the feminine standpoint, will be the central feature.

Every effort will be made to make the coming of Mrs. Leavitt next July a notable event. Shining political lights from all over the United States will be invited, some to address the meeting and others merely to lend their presence. The railroads will be asked for cut rates and special trains to bring the suffragettes from all over the state.

The governors of Wyoming, Idaho and Utah, the three states being those in which there are "votes for women," will be present with their wives. Governor and Mrs. Shafroth will be asked to head the receiving line.

Others expected to attend are Governor Johnson, of Minnesota, and two former congressmen, Fred Williams, of Massachusetts and New York City, and Charles A. Towne.

Mrs. Leavitt has been at the head of the organization for the past two years. Although her visits to this city have been fitful, her efforts in upbuilding the feminine side of the democratic party have been tireless. She has established branches all over the state by letter, and, while in Denver last week, started two additional Jane Jefferson branches in Fountain and Colorado City.

It is expected Mrs. Leavitt will be accompanied by many Nebraska democrats of both sexes

Mrs. Quiery Was Hostess.

Mrs. S. R. Quiery entertained the Tuesday Whist club yesterday afternoon. There were four tables of players. Mrs. N. J. Finney won the club prize, a silver fork, and Mrs. Smith won the guest prize, a pair of silk hose. Refreshments were served.

Civic League Held Meeting.

The Civic league of Sedalia held a meeting at the Business Men's club rooms late Tuesday and discussed a plan for the appointment of a board of commissioners to keep the streets and alleys of the city clean from trash. Secretary Mellor was instructed to correspond with cities where civic leagues are in working order, to ascertain the cost of conducting such a system, and report at the meeting next Tuesday.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health Is Worth Saving, and Some Sedalia People Know How to Save It.

Many Sedalia people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all disease and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a Sedalia citizen's recommendation:

Mrs. Julia Crawford, 302 East Seventh street, Sedalia, Mo., says: "I do not know what I would have done had it not been for Doan's Kidney Pills. For months I was troubled with kidney complaint and at times was laid up. I had severe pains in the kidneys, and the secretions from these organs became irregular and contained a sediment. A cold always aggravated my suffering. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at Bard's drug store, went to the seat of my trouble and banished the attack. I do not hesitate to give my endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, soleagents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

MAJOR FILES A DEMURRER

Attorney General Asks Supreme Court to Aid Secretary of State.

Jefferson City, May 19.—Attorney General Major today filed in the supreme court of the state a demurrer to the alternative writ of prohibition issued against Secretary of State Roach to prevent that official from revoking the license of the Missouri & Arkansas Railroad company for removing a case pending in the state court to the federal court.

The case involves the constitutionality of the Missouri law giving the state power to revoke the license of foreign corporations which remove cases from the state to the federal courts without the consent of the parties in controversy.

He Got None.

"What's a pun, father?"

"A pun, my son, is a play upon words. There are three kinds of puns: Good ones, which you laugh at; indifferent ones, which you take no notice of, and bad ones, which make you throw something at the punster."

"Can't you make a pun, father?"

"Of course, my son! Now, you're thinking about your supper, aren't you?"

"Yes, father."

"Well, that's-upper-most in your mind at the present time. That, you see, is a play on—Here, you young rascal, what did you throw that book at me for?"

The Characteristic National Meal.

It is not only in Scotland that breakfast is the characteristic national meal, says the London Chronicle. Travel where you may, the first meal of the day is the one that strikes the foreign note, luncheon and dinner having gradually absorbed cosmopolitan qualities that are not even confined to hotels. But you never feel so much of an Englishman as when Switzerland gives you rolls and butter and honey, and nothing more, with your coffee, or when France makes this into one exquisite crumbling "croissant," with an inch or two from a yard long loaf, or when Denmark adds cream instead of milk to the coffee and a dangerous piece of pastry to the black bread and round white roll.

Yet our English breakfast became an institution only in the eighteenth century. Before that only royalty breakfasted off meat, bread and cheese and ale. The commoner, such such as Pepys, took merely a morning draught of buttered ale.

This Mixed-Up World.

If things would not run into each other so, it would be a thousand times easier, and a million times pleasanter to get on in the world. Let the sheepiness be set on one side and the goatiness on the other, and immediately you know where you are. It is not necessary to ask that there be any increase of the one, or any diminution of the other, but only that each shall pre-empt its own territory, and stay there. Milk is good, and water is good, but don't set the milk-pail under the pump. Pleasure softens pain, but pain embitters pleasure; and who would not rather have his happiness concentrate into one memorable day, that shall gleam and glow through a lifetime, than have it spread out over a dozen comfortable commonplace, humdrum forenoons and afternoons, each one as like the other as two peas in a pod?—Gail Hamilton.

RESTFUL TO EYES AND NERVES.

Green Is One of Nature's Cures for Worry and Fatigue.

"If the whole of London were painted green it would have a wonderful effect upon the health and spirits of us Londoners," said one of the leading specialists to a Mirror writer. "Eyesight and health are most closely connected, and among town dwellers eyesight is steadily deteriorating. Green is one of nature's cures for worry and fatigue. Watch a man who is worrying or tired out and see how often he will wander to a window from which he can gaze on a tree in leaf. Instinctively his eyes seek the restful green of the foliage. A great deal of the good obtained from a visit to the country is from the incessant environment of the green fields and green leaves.

"A green room, too, is a splendid thing. I know of a case of a popular actress who could never understand why it was that in a certain room in her house she could always rest so much better than in any other one. She mentioned the fact to me one day, and I pointed out to her that the paper and furniture were entirely green."

Form Colonies for Tramps.

Perhaps most tramps have no desire to work, preferring to cling to their habits of shiftlessness, but there are doubtless many men in the ranks who would settle down to the serious task of making money and improving their condition if they had the proper training. The latter may and probably will, be rescued by a term on the "farm," but the veteran who has walked rails when no freights were available; who has shied at anything savoring of labor; who has begged or stolen what food he has obtained, cannot be reformed. He will go on until the end in his old way, a scourge to humanity and a disgrace to civilization. Usefulness was never and can never be for him. To the extent of the number constituting this class the farm colony will be a failure.

Spanish Executioner's Remorse.

A curious story comes from Seville. On Sunday night the local executioner died, his death being due to remorse. For several years he had not carried out any executions, but recently he was summoned to Cordova to inflict the final penalty on some criminals.

The impression made upon him was so painful that he was unable to face the ordeal when summoned to execute the last criminal condemned in Seville, and the sentence will have to be carried out by the Madrid executioner.

A MAN BEATEN TO DEATH

LOUISE ARBOGAST IS CHARGED WITH THE KILLING OF HER FATHER.

CRAZED BY FORTUNE TELLER'S STORIES

The Bed on Which the Body of Father Was Found Had Been Soaked With Oil and Set on Fire—Hearing Set for May 20.

St. Paul, Minn., May 18.—Louise Arbogast, aged 22, was yesterday formally charged in police court with the murder of Louis Arbogast, her father.

The girl, who is a handsome brunette and well known among German residents of St. Paul, was committed to the county jail and her hearing was set for May 20.

It is believed her defense will be insanity and that this defense will prevail, as her demeanor for some time has indicated that she was suffering from delusions.

Investigation by the police disclosed that Louise had been visiting fortune tellers, who had told her a man would break into her home and attack her.

She heard this statement so often that it became a delusion that a man was actually pursuing her.

Louis Arbogast, a wealthy meat dealer, was found dead in his bed early last Thursday morning.

His head had been crushed with an ax and the bed was soaked with kerosene oil and set on fire.

Mrs. Arbogast, the mother of Louise, was found unconscious beside her husband and was dragged from the burning bed by another daughter, Ida.

"SOCIETY" IN THE TENEMENTS.

Rules and Regulations for Conduct That Are Binding.

Keeping company, as interpreted by the best sages, simulates an engagement without involving an engagement. In society, one takes short views of life; while Nellie gave Hefty her lips to kiss and her waist to clasp, she has kept her heart whole. They were chums, those two. Chums no more, each may seek a new comrade; only the smash should have been come at more decorously. "He ain't no gentleman!" cries Nellie, as she rends to bits Mr. McCafferty's literary remains—those clumsy, brief notes written on ruled paper with an embossed design in the upper left-hand corner, and beginning, as is proper, "Friend Nellie," She reiterates the verdict as she pitches his gifts down the air-shaft—"soov-neers" from the benches, medals reminiscent of holidays, and sundry buttons and badges inscribed, "Skidoo," or "I'm Afraid to Go Home in the Dark," or "23 for you." This frenzy of vandalism redoubles her fury and affords us our opportunity to awaken within her a resolve to have done with the whole race of Hefty McCaffertys, and to choose her next steady in a more distinguished social milieu. The thing is perfectly possible. It happens. Like many another girl, she will rise in the world.—Rollin Lynde Hartt, in Atlantic.

THE HUMAN HOG

Of all nuisances the human hog is the most exasperating. His enormous conceit, shallowness, supercilious, dogmatic and overbearing attitude towards those over whom he may have the authority of strength marks him as a beast in clothes. When not brutal, his condescending civility is often harder to bear than open insult.

The lowest order of this human hog makes himself conspicuous by loud talking, crowding and incivility to the weak in street cars and other public places. His conversation takes no heed of the religious or political convictions of his fellow man; this swaggering bully does not know that one man's liberty ends at the point where that of his neighbor begins, and that summed up, good manners are only and always, consideration of, and respect for, the rights of others.

The human hog is not always the impolite person, but the selfish man who, in his dealings with his fellows, falls back on the legal principle caveat emptor—or let the other fellow look out for himself. Many a man does things under this pretense who would get very angry if he were called a knave and rogue, but the thief usually is more honest, for he makes no pretensions to virtue.

This human hog is fond of "first come first served," which is his weak excuse to hide behind a paper while a woman and baby hang to a street car strap; the coward's warrant for jumping into the boat to let women and children go down with the wrecked ship, and the plea of the predatory rich when they attempt to monopolize the earth.

The trouble with the human hog is that he has no imagination to enable him to enter into and comprehend the feelings of others, or properly to appreciate how inhuman he really is. He is sometimes born this way, but more often it is an outgrowth of selfishness.

The consolation to the rest of the world is that the only class denounced by the Bible constantly, unsparingly and invariably, into which class the modern human hog may be placed, were the Pharisees, and it is joy to believe that in the world to come, at least, they will get what is coming to them.

SIMILAR CASE ONCE BEFORE IN MISSOURI

Hair-Splitting Technicalities in Recent High Court Decisions—It looks as if There Was Something Wrong.

St. Louis, Mo., May 19.—In the Sunday Post-Dispatch Magazine last Sunday a page was devoted to "Amazing Instances of Hair-Splitting in Appellate Courts of Missouri and Adjacent States." Among those cited were the following:

State vs. Hennessey (23 Tex. App., 352). appeal based on omission to dot the letter "i."

Case of a Missouri murder, conviction set aside and new trial ordered because foreman of jury spelled "first" "fist."

Another murder case ordered to new trial because the word "breast" in indictment was spelled "brest."

Another murderer got a new trial because, in the indictment, it was stated that the victim "did instantly die," the phrase in vogue being "did then and there die."

Man convicted of murder was present at his own trial, but as the record failed to state the fact, a new trial was ordered.

It was decided by an appellate court that an indictment was defective which stated that the offense was committed "against the peace and dignity of state," instead of "against the peace and dignity of the state." Precisely as in the Warner case, reversed by the supreme court yesterday. The indictment said that Fred Warner's alleged offense was "against the peace and dignity of state." It should have said "against the peace and dignity of the state." The point was one of several raised in Warner's appeal by his counsel, Hiram N. Moore, and was the only one mentioned by Judge Gantt as the ground for his action. Warner was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, and if again indicted will be given another trial.

In State vs. Jones (20 Mo., 58), the adjectives "deliberate" and "premeditated" were used, instead of the corresponding adverbs, in describing an assault which ended in murder. Conviction set aside.

A case was recently dismissed by the Kansas City court of appeals because the printed abstract did not set forth that a certified copy of judgment had been filed. This, although the copy was in the court's possession at the time.

In Tarlor vs. State (5 Tex. App., 91), a verdict declaring a defendant "guily" was held bad on account of the misspelling. But in a similar case the word "guily" was allowed to pass as good enough.

In another murder case, the indictment preciseiy stated that the accused "did feloriously, purposely and with premeditated malice kill" the victim "by firing a Colt's revolver," but because it did not state that the ball actually hit the victim a whom it was aimed, the court indulged in a long and whimsical argument that it might have been fired in the air or that the victim might have died of fright.

PROPOSED "GRAFT" PLOT

ANOTHER CHAPTER IN THE CALHOUN CASE IN SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.

SPRECKLES TESTIFIES AGAINST RUEF

Says Boss Suggested Labor Strike to Force Price on Bonds, So the Syndicate Could Gobble Them Up.

San Francisco, Cal., May 19.—Interest in the trial of Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railroads, revived yesterday when Rudolph Spreckles, financial backer of the graft prosecution, again appeared on the witness stand.

On cross-examination Mr. Spreckles said Ruef had visited his offices three times between 1901 and 1906.

"I recollect one interview with Ruef that called to my attention the need for an investigation. Ruef came to my office and suggested that I get up a syndicate to bid on municipal bonds about to be issued. He promised that bids would be suggested by a strike. I was horrified by the suggestion.

"Ruef assured me that the bid of the syndicate would be accepted," said Mr. Spreckles, "and he would guarantee that we would not have to bid above par for the bonds. I asked him how this could be done, and he said, 'That's a simple matter. You know my connection with the labor union people. When the bids are about to be submitted we will have the biggest strike this town ever saw. I'll tie up everything, including the street railways. Then I'd like to see any of your capitalistic friends, except those in on the know, submit bids for those bonds.'

"I asked Ruef if he really intended, for the sake of making money to bring on a strike that might result in bloodshed, and he said he was only joking. But his face flushed, and he withdrew from my office."

Moved to Their New Home.

County Clerk M. L. Imhoff and family Tuesday removed from 645 East Thirteenth street to the Stafford property, 518 Dal-Whi-Mo court.

Shippers Won Thier Case.

The case of the Texas & Pacific Railway company and others vs. Easton and Knox and others, involving the right to collect damages from a railroad company in case of its failure to ship live stock from one point to another over the most direct route, was decided by the supreme court of the United States Monday against the railroad company.

The cattle owners were awarded $3,600 damages, and that decision was affirmed by the supreme court of Texas and the supreme court of the United States.

WIVES AS TRUST BUSTERS

Two Refuse to Sign Deeds, and Prevent $550,000 Merger.

St. Joseph, Mo., May 18.—The wives of two master bakers assumed the role of real trust busters yesterday, and refused to sign deeds for the merger of their properties into a bakers' combine.

The company was to have ben capitalized at $550,000. There was to have been $200,000 in preferred stock and the rest in common stock, and the properties were to have been bonded for $150,000.

Five plants were to have been run the same as they are now, and present owners were to have been managers of their respective plants. Each manager was to hold an office in the company.

Max Oschley and G. Coblenz, of Kansas City, and H. T. Westerman, of St. Louis, were the promoters. It looked fine on paper and the deal seemed in a fair way to go through. Then came an unexpected obstacle. The wives called a halt. As one of them said:

"I don't propose that my husband shall work for any one else. He is his own boss now and he shall stay so, so long as I have anything to say about it."

FOR HIS SLIPPERY WAYS

While Wisconsin Man Was Away From Home Wife Got Divorce.

Kenosha, Wis., May 18.—After being missing from his home here for more than two years, George W. Fay, a former prominent business man of this city, slipped back into the city last Sunday night, and, after spending a few hours with friends and relatives, slipped away as mysteriously as he came.

Fay left home on March 12, 1907, to go to Zion City, to attend the funeral of John Alexander Dowie, and that was the last seen or heard of him in Kenosha until last Saturday night. Many of his friends believed him dead.

At the time of leaving he had one of the most prosperous stores in the city, and after waiting for months for his return the wife had the business placed in the hands of a receiver and sold and the proceeds were given to the family.

Mrs. Fay later secured a legal separation. Some time after his disappearance a report was brought to Kenosha that Fay was in Canada. In her bill for separation the wife made serious charges against Fay.

A Weed That Steals Oysters.

A seaweed has invaded the oyster beds of France and carried off 400,000 oysters. It has carried them off bodily, as a thief would do.

The minute seeds of this weed float up the English channel in the current of the Gulf stream, they settle on oysters in the Breton beds of Morbihan, Quiberon and Belle-Isle, and they grow to the size of a duck's egg.

They are full of water, but at maturity the water evaporates, and air takes its place. The egg-shaped seaweed is then a balloon, and like a balloon it lifts its oyster from the bottom and bears it out to sea.

DRY SUNDAY FOR CONEY

Mayor McClellan Applies Blue Laws to New York's Playground.

New York, May 18.—Coney Island was hit hard yesterday by the blue laws when Mayor McClellan ordered that hereafter there shall be no shows in operation on Sunday.

The order stipulated that Sunday licenses will be refused all "common shows," which means that performances to which admission is charged, not conducted under the head of theatrical licenses, must close the only day when the average person can take a day off. Moving picture shows are included, and practically every show on the island will be affected.

Strict orders have been issued also calling for an enforcement of the excise laws. Heretofore beer has flowed more freely at Coney on Sunday than on week days.

REV. FR. TRACY TO OBEY

A ST. LOUIS BASEBALL PRIEST PREPARES TO BEGIN HIS NEW PASTORATE.

WILL HIE HIMSELF TO RURAL DISTRICT

Bows to the Will of Archbishoop J. J. Glennon, and Will Labor in Master's Vineyard in Town of Byrnesville, Mo.

St. Louis, Ma., May 18.—Father John A. Tracy, priest and zealous baseball fan, the Father O'Flynn of St. Louis, who hesitated to accept the order of Archbishop Glennon, transferring him from Our Lady of Good Counsel parish, on Destrehan street, in North St. Louis, to the small country parish at Byrnesville, Mo., has reconsidered, and now declares he will be obedient to the mandate of his superior.

Father Tracy spent Sunday at Byrnesville, and will return there permanently this week, as soon as he can move his possessions.

"Yes, I have reconsidered and changed my decision not to accept the parish assigned to me," he said yesterday. "It is a matter of obedience to my superior, and I have decided to go down there and organize the work and do what I can."

Byrnesville is twelve miles from a railroad, and has about 150 population. Father J. R. Watson, formerly pastor of the parish, whom the archbishop transferred to Our Lady of Good Counsel, began his work here Monday.

Father Tracy's parish in North St. Louis has been a cradle of famous baseball players, boxers and sportsmen, the priest himself being one of the keenest appreciators of the national game in St. Louis.

The transfer ordering him to Byrnesville was made Sunday, May 9, and at first was declined by him. He has been in ill health for several months, but is convalescing, and expects soon to be his old self.

A watchman was supposed to sleep in the building. What became of him is not known.

The value of the stable, which was of brick, is estimated at $20,000. The mules were worth from $200 to $250 apiece.

Record-Breaking Selling All Over the Store

THE response to our announcements have been tremendous, the sales being far in excess of our anticipations. The goods simply disappear like magic and will continue to do so tomorrow. What does this prove? To us it has proven that you are a discriminating public—you use your own brains in figuring out what is and what isn't economy. The old, worn out excuse used to cover up high prices that so-and-so's styles are "exclusive" that quality is a certain something possessed and held in bondage by one certain store, carries no weight today.

Our Millinery and Wearing Apparel business is growing by leaps and bounds, and because of the tremendous volume of business done this spring, we have been in a position to take advantage of every favorable buying opportunity that came to our notice. PREACHED LABOR DAY SERMON

Rev. Grant A. Robbins at the First M. E. Church.

(From Monday's Daily.)

The Rev. Grant A. Robbins, pastor of the First M. E. church, was greeted by a fair-sized audience Sunday night, when he preached a sermon especially for laboring men—a Labor day sermon, it might have been termed appropriately.

Rev. Robbins chose for his text, "The Laborer Is Worthy of His Hire," and along that line he preached a discourse that commanded the closest attention of his auditors from beginning to close. The divine conceded to labor the right to organize for self-protection, and unions properly conducted were commended warmly.

Organized labor, however, does itself and its cause serious injury when it resorts to violence, and in denunciation of such action Rev. Robbins used strong language.

The discourse showed plainly that the Rev. Robbins is the friend of the laboring man, and it is to be regretted that there was not a larger attendance of the members of the different trades present to hear what he had to say on a subject that is always timely.

THE URICH TEAM "SKUNKED"

Brownies Won Sunday's Ball Game by a Score of 7 to 0.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Five or six hundred people went to Liberty park Sunday afternoon to witness the ball game between the Sedalia Brownies and a strong amateur team from Urich, Henry county, the locals winning by a score of 7 to 0 in an eight-inning game. Henry V. Leist did the umpiring act and did it well.

The gate receipts were only $89, this being about $4 for each of the Brownies—not one-third of what it was hoped they would receive, owing to the hard financial luck in which they have been playing. The score by innings follows:

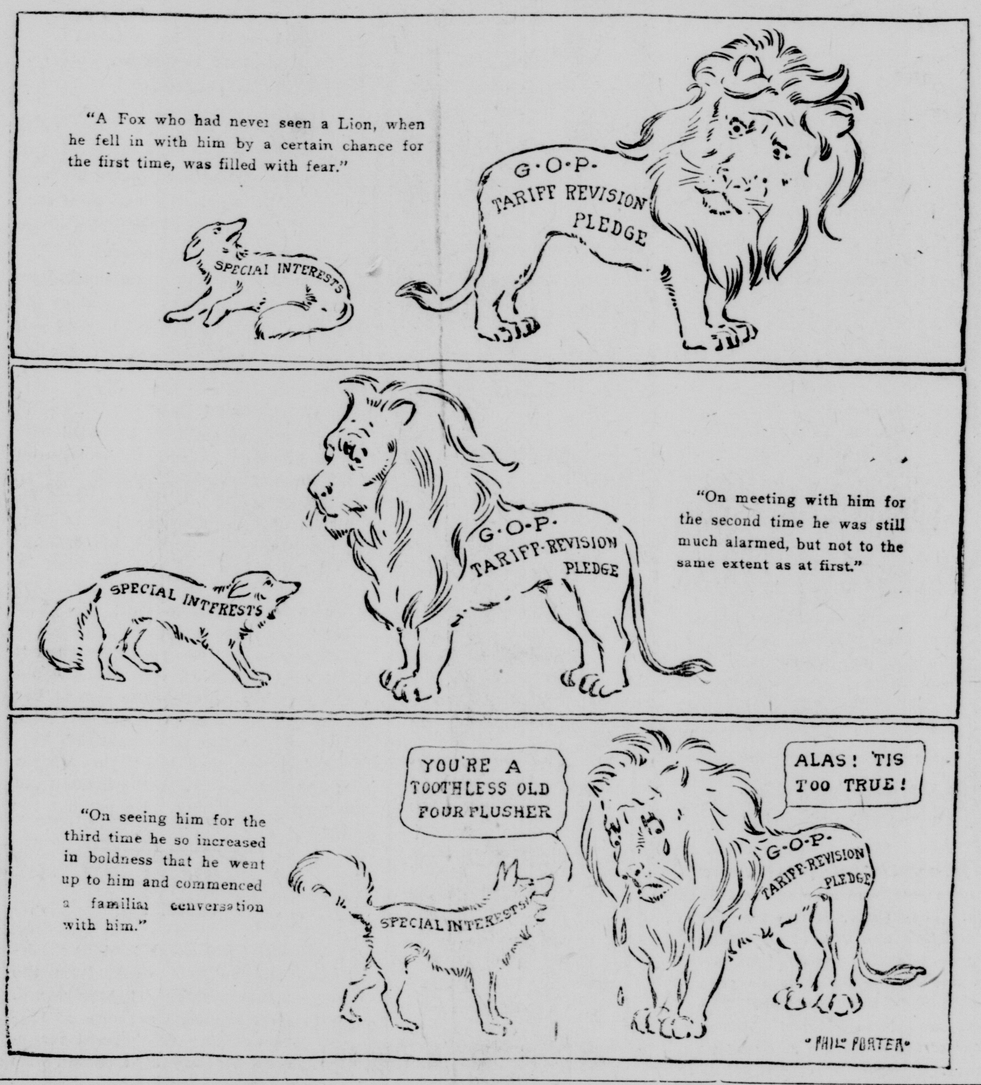
AESOP UP TO DATE



MANY GUESTS PRESENT

HUNDREDS OF MEMBERS OF THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS ATTEND BANQUET.

IT FOLLOWED CONFERRING DEGREE WORK

Judge D. E. Kennedy Presided as Toastmaster—Select Program Was Carried Out During Course of the Banquet.

Five hundred members of the Knights of Columbus enjoyed one of the most select banquets given by that organization in this city in years at Coliseum hall Sunday night, the event following the conferring of the first, second and third degrees of the order on a class of sixty candidates from Sedalia, Montrose, Tipton and Nevada.

The degree work was exemplified in the Odd Fellows' hall. It began at 1 o'clock. The Sedalia team conferred the first and second degrees, and the Marshall, Mo., team the third degree. The work was completed at 9:30 o'clock.

Immediately afterwards the Knights, representing Sedalia, Kansas City, St. Louis, Nevada, Tipton, Boonville, Marshall, Moberly, Montrose, Jefferson City, California, Warrensburg and other towns in this part of the state, proceeded to Coliseum hall, where on the second floor of the pavilion tables had been set for the guests.

Mrs. Charles McEnIry, Mrs. Edward Donnelly and Mrs. Patrick Shea, the committee in charge, had been assisted by sub-committees and perfected all arrangements long before the guests arrived.

The menu, as announced in Sunday's Democrat-Sentinel, was alluring, and during its course a select program was carried out, under the supervision of Judge D. E. Kennedy, who filled the role of toastmaster.

A pleasing musical program was carried out during the progress of the banquet. In addition to the numbers on the program several prominent Knights responded to repeated calls for speeches, and it was after the midnight hour when the local and visiting Knights left the hall, tendering a vote of thanks to the ladies who had so ably executed the affair.

Sunday's initiations and banquet was the most largely attended function of the kind ever given in Sedalia, and many prominent Knights were here from all parts of the state.

The two executors were George P. B. Jackson, son-in-law of the dead senator, and J. S. Sullivan. Jackson was represented by Lee Montgomery, of Sedalia, and R. M. Reynolds, of Marshall. Sullivan's attorneys were Virgil W. Harris, president of the Mercantile Trust company, of St. Louis, and D. D. Duggins, of Marshall.

Jackson asked that the entire 5 per cent allowed to an executor of an estate for caring for it be awarded to him, because he had done all the work.

He asserted that Mr. Sullivan, at the request of Senator Vest, had consented to act as co-executor, on the condition that he be not required to have any part in handling the estate.

Sullivan, through his attorneys, demanded an equal division of the 5 per cent. Judge Davis took the case under advisement.

The final settlement and inventory in the estate shows that the personal estate of Senator Vest was valued at $118,000 and the real estate at about $100,000.

Of the personal property the heirs of the late George P. Vest, son of ex-Senator Vest, will receive 49 per cent, Alexander S. Vest son of Senator Vest, 35 per cent, and Mrs George P. B. Jackson, the senator's daughter, 15 per cent.

The two latter heirs, Alexander Vest and Mrs. Jackson, are charged with advancements made by Senator Vest in his lifetime. The real estate will be divided equally.

The personal property left by Senator Vest consists largely of stocks and bonds in Missouri and elsewhere. The real estate is in Texas, Montana, Kansas City, Sweet Springs and Washington. Senator Vest died at Sweet Springs, in this county, in September, 1904.

STRIKE ON GEORGIA LINE

WHITE FIREMEN AND ENGINEMEN HAVE GOOD-SIZED GRIEVANCE.

THE MEN ARE ORDERED TO GO OUT TODAY

Complaint Is Made That Colored Men Are Given Seniority in Firing Engines in the Cracker State.

Atlanta, Ga., May 17.—Because negroes have in a number of instances been given seniority in the matter of firing engines on good runs on the Georgia road, a strike has been voted by the white firemen and engine men on that road, to begin today.

The white firemen claim that the negroes are now getting the cream of the work, all the best runs, and that the white men are being given the shortest runs. This is done, they say, because the negroes work cheaper than the white men.

The white firemen are paid at the rate of $1.75 a day, while the negroes work for $1.25 a day. The men who are about to go on strike say that it is unfair and a shortsighted policy to place the negroes on the best runs because the negroes can not become engineers under the recent laws in force on roads, and that the path of many white men for becoming equipped for this work is being blocked.

Officials of the Georgia road and of the Atlanta Terminal Co. acknowledge that the negroes can not become engineers, but say that they should get some kind of recompense for honest, capable and faithful work, and that to give them good runs is the only way of rewarding merit.

The Georgia road is controlled by the Louisville and Nashville, and it is said that the strike may extend to the entire system and even involve locomotive engineers.

LID CLUB WAS DEFIANT

MEMBERS AT TOPEKA DARED POLICE CHIEF TO OPEN THE LIQUOR LOCKERS.

THE OFFICER MADE THE ROUNDS SUNDAY

Officials Decided They Wouldn't Use Force—The Organization to Carry the Fight to the Supreme Court.

Topeka, Kas., May 17.—Winfield R. Eaton, chief of the Topeka police force, visited the clubs of Topeka yesterday. It was supposed that the object of his tour was to notify the clubs that all liquors must be removed from the premises. This he did in several places, but at the Topeka club he did not make his mission clear. The consequence was that there was a verbal clash between the chief and two or three members of the club. The outcome of it was that the chief fled, apparently worsted in the first round of the argument as to whether the club locker system is legal or not.

Accompanied by a policeman, Chief Eaton went to the Topeka club early last afternoon. Seated on the veranda were several members. Eaton asked to see the steward. He was told to ring the front door bell and the steward would respond. Instead of ringing the bell he and the officer walked in. The men on the porch followed. Eaton was informed that admittance to the club was for club members only and was directed to make his business known in as short a time as possible. Eaton is not a member of the club.

"We have been around seeing the other fellows," said Eaton, "and they have treated us all right."

"There are no fellows here," corrected one of the members. "This is a club of gentlemen."

"Do you expect to break into any of the lockers?" asked a lawyer member, who is rated among the best at the Topeka bar. The chief did not say.

"The number of my locker is—," the lawyer said, "and I presume there is whisky in it. Now I defy you to break into it. If you do there will be trouble. Should the state see fit to act in this matter and its representatives come here armed with the proper authority, there will be nothing put in his way to give him all the information there is to be had. But it can't be done by you in this way. If you do the responsibility will be upon you."

The chief and his companion went out, but Eaton was not in a sunny mood.

The lawyer members of the Topeka club insist that as the club never has broken the prohibitory law they will fight an attempt to compel the organization to do away with its locker system all the way up to the supreme court of the United States if it is possible to get it there. Upon the outcome of this suit will depend the right of every club in Kansas to have intoxicants upon the premises.

Do You Get Up With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Spoken of In Connection With Missouri Governorship.

Wallace Crossley is being boomed by some of his friends for governor of Missouri at the next gubernatorial election in 1912, says the Pilot Grove Record.

If Mr. Crossley would permit his name to be used as a candidate for governor, he would make a strong race. Wallace is a former Cooper county boy, having been born at Bell Air, and has also lived in Pilot Grove.

He was principal of the Pilot Grove academy here in 1900, and since leaving here he has become a figure of considerable popularity throughout the state and as a citizen he is a man of no small influential ability.

He is now one of the prominent democratic leaders in the house of representatives, being the representative from Johnson county, and is also editor of the Warrensburg Star.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing Hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help.

If you would have strong Hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves — re-establish them as needed, with

ELINOR GLYN IS SCORED

SHE IS THE WOMAN WHO WROTE THE SENSATIONAL BOOK, "THREE WEEKS."

A RECENT CRITICISM OF AMERICAN MEN

She Said They Were Too "Goody Goody"—Is Now Hauled Over the Coals by Chicago Society Women, Who Are Indignant.

Chicago, Ill., May 15.—"Indeed, Mrs. Elinor Glyn can refer to none of our good homes when she describes 'the Chicago mansion' in her latest book, because she was not received in any of our good homes when she was here." Thus spoke a woman who knew.

Said another: "I chanced to be staying at the Annex for a time when Mrs. Glyn and her party were there The whole party was so loud that I became interested in watching their movements. She was not received or visited by our best people."

"I am quite sure," said another, "if the author of 'Three Weeks' disapproves of us we should feel quite complimented, don't you think? As to our men—well, they please us all right, so why care about Mrs. Glyn's opinion?"

Whatever the feelings, however, Mrs. Glyn's "Chicago Mansion" is a thing of remarkable imagination, if not of beauty. Evidently, it is composite. Her first visit to Chicago was short. She was not received by Chicagoans of prominence, and if private entertainments of importance were given in her honor, they did not find their way into the papers—a little matter Mrs. Glyn seldom overlooks.

AFTER HIDDEN TREASURE

Cripple Creek Miner Will Search In Andes Mountains.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Cripple Creek, Colo., May 15.—In a search for hidden treasure in the Andes mountains, which he claims will bring him untold wealth, Oswault Naumann, a Cripple Creek miner, has taken his departure for South America.

Years ago, Naumann, an itinerant prospector and globe trotter, discovered rich placer fields in Brazil, far from human habitation. On his return to the United States, he was taken sick, and upon his recovery went to work in the Cripple Creek mines to secure funds for his return to Brazil.

As a key to the hidden treasure, he has always kept a map of his route from Rio Janeiro to the placer fields, which are located at the head of the Amazon river, and with this as his guide he will shortly sail from New York City.

He intends building his own boat, with which he will traverse the entire length of the Amazon, and upon which he will load his golden treasure on the return trip.

HADLEY SIGNS 29 MEASURES

Game and Fish, Displayed Weapons and Libel Bills Now Laws.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 15.—Governor Hadley last night returned to the senate twenty-nine senate bills, all signed. Of these twenty-four were revision bills, repealing old laws, repealed or held void.

One of the general laws approved was the Prendergast game and fish law, which, in effect, is the Walmsley law, enacted in 1905, and repealed two years ago. To the public generally this is a law of more than ordinary concern.

Another measure of interest is Senator Wilson's bill prohibiting the display of deadly weapons in shop windows or in show cases that are subject to public view from the street.

A third measure approved is Senator Humphrey's bill amending the libel law so as to require plaintiffs to sue either in the county where they live or where the defendant resides.

The prisoner waived preliminary examination of each charge, and was held to the action of criminal court in the sum of $500 on each count.

TO INSURE PURE MILK

A Commission to That End Has Been Appointed.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Colorado Springs, Colo., May 15.—Colorado Springs is taking steps to insure an absolutely pure milk supply. The El Paso Medical society has appointed a milk commission with power to certify as to the quality and pureness of milk, particularly that used in feeding infants.

In accordance with the state law, the market master is conducting a tuberculin test on all cows in the city, and reports indicate that the dairy cows of this city are particularly free from disease and that the city's milk supply has reached a high standard.

In other cities, tests in many cases show tuberculin germs to the amount of 18,000,000 to the cubic centimeter; in this city there seldom are samples reaching as high as 700,000 and many show as low as 20,000 germs to the cubic centimeter.

The city is also waging a war on the house fly. Orders have been issued for the removal of all dumps from the city limits in order to destroy the breeding place of the fly.

FORMER SEDALIA EDITOR

Is Still Branching Out In the Newspaper Business.

St. Paul, Minn., May 15.—Webster Wheelock, editor and one of the principal owners of the Pioneer Press company, has announced to the Associated Press the sale of the Pioneer Press newspapers, afternoon and morning, the twelve-story building and its manufacturing plant to C. H. Grasty and others interested in the publishing of the St. Paul Dispatch.

Mr. Wheelock said although the final transfer of stock of the Pioneer Press company had not been made, the preliminary negotiations toward that end had been completed.

The absorption by the Dispatch of the Pioneer Press will undoubtedly mean the discontinuance of the evening Pioneer Press.

More than thirty years ago Mr. Grasty came here from his home at Mexico, Mo., to accept a repertorial position on the old Sedalia Democrat, under the late Major John N. Edwards, and from that time he has gone forward in the newspaper world until he today ranks with the most successful editors and publishers in the entire country.

Sam Elbert Out Saturday.

Sam H. Elbert, the veteran printer, who has been laid up three weeks with an abscess which necessitated an operation, was able to leave his apartment over Bard's Ohio street drug store Saturday, but after a walk to the barber shop he was "all in," so to speak, and returned to his room. He is convalescing nicely, however, and hopes to be able to resume work for the Sedalia Printing Co. at an early date.

Charged With Heinous Crime.

Oscar Mulkey a negro, was arraigned in Judge F. W. Clark's court Saturday morning charged with having ravished Josephine Johnson, a 14-year-old daughter of Joe Johnson, a former negro policeman, in December, 1908.

The preliminary examination was set for Tuesday, May 16, at 2 o'clock. The prisoner's bond was fixed at $500. C. C. Kelly is Mulkey's attorney.

KILLS FAMILY, THEN SELF

NEIGHBOR'S CHILD AN EYE WITNESS, CONCEALS HERSELF, AND ESCAPES.

SET FIRE TO HOME; BLAZE EXTINGUISHED

An Employe of Farmer Near Boylesville, Ill., Prevents Crime Being Covered Up by Act—No Cause Is Known.

Boylesville, Ill., May 15.—Henry Williamson, a well-to-do farmer, living two miles east of here, killed his wife and two little children, and then committed suicide yesterday. The cause of the tragedy is not known.

He arose early, went to the bureau and got his revolvers, stepped to the bedside of his wife and children and shot all of them while they lay sleeping.

After shooting them he picked up the fire poker and beat his dead wife with it. He then poured kerosene on the floor and set it afire.

With the flames leaping upward he placed the revolver to his temple, putting a bullet through his brain.

A neighbor's girl was sleeping in the same room and gives a graphic description of his actions. She was not molested.

She says that when Williamson shot his wife it awakened her and when she saw him pointing the gun at her little playmates she covered her head, and believes she was unnoticed.

A farm employe heard the reports of the gun and ran to the house from a nearby feed barn. He put out the fire.

MAY LAST 'TILL AUG. 1

Many Senators Think That Congress Will Not Adjourn Before.

Washington, May 15.—August 1 is the date now set by the senatorial prognosticators for the adjournment of congress.

Several called on the president today and gently broke the news to him. One of the leaders is Senator Hale, of Maine, who ought to know as well as anybody what is likely to happen, but he is not the only one with that view.

Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, figures August 1 as the time, while Senator Depew canceled his steamship date to leave for Europe early in June, and has run the date up to the last of June. He stands ready to run the date up still further.

Senator Scott was again at the White House today and got off some hot remarks about senatorial oratory, as he felt his linen collar wilt and removed the perspiration from his protective brow.

The president listened to it all as cooly as the prevailing temperature would permit.

DREADFUL DISEASE IS CURED BY CUTICURA

"My six year old daughter had the dreadful disease called hives for two months. She became affected by playing with children who had it, although we did not know it. By scratching she caused large sores which were irritating. Her body was a complete sore but it was worse on her arms and back. We employed a physician who left medicine but it did not help her and I tried several remedies but without avail. Seeing the Cuticura Remedies advertised, I thought I would try them. I gave her a hot bath daily with Cuticura Soap and anointed her body with Cuticura Ointment. The first treatment relieved the itching and in a short time the disease disappeared. I recommend the Cuticura Remedies for all skin diseases and give them my greatest praise. Mrs. Geo. L. Fridhoff, R. F. D. 1, Warren, Mich., June 30 and July 13, 1908."

BESMEARED MANY ROCKS

With Religious Maxims and Precepts in the Centennial State.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Colorado Springs, Colo., May 15.—Inspired by an over-zealous religious enthusiasm, George W. Crabtree, a missionary from Washington, D. C., recently armed himself with paint pot and brush and besmeared many rocks in the canons near Manitou with religious maxims and precepts. The public indignation which followed the act brought forth a confession from the evangelist who declared his willingness to correct his error by removing the unsightly signs.

A vigorous campaign against such forms of vandalism has been prosecuted by the Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce for several years. Several years ago in the Garden of the Gods the same trouble was experienced and after investigation, one man was brought back from Atlanta, Ga., at his own expense and compelled to erase the marks.

Another man sent $20 from Nebraska to pay the expense of removing his name from the rocks, and last year a Pennsylvania woman, after having the matter called to her attention, wrote saying that she had "scrubbed the landscape."

Sick headache, constipation and biliousness are relieved by King's Little Liver Pills. They cleanse the system. Do not gripe. Price 25c. Sold by the W. E. Bard Drug Co.

JAIL FOR TWO TRUST MEN

THREE OTHER OFFICIALS OF AMERICAN NAVAL STORES GET BIG FINES.

SECOND OFFENSE FOR COUPLE OF THEM

Spencer Shotter Given Three Years' Sentence and J. F. Cooper Myers Three Months—An Appeal Was Taken.

Savannah, Ga., May 15.—Judge William B. Sheppard last afternoon sentenced the five men found guilty of violating the Sherman anti-trust law.

Spencer P. Shofter, chairman of the board of directors of the American National Stores Co., was sentenced to serve three years in jail and pay a fine of $5,000.

Edmund N. Nash, president of the company, was fined $3.000.

J. F. Cooper Myers, vice president of the American company and president of the National Transportation and Terminal Co., was sentenced to three months in jail and to pay a fine of $2,500.

George Mead Boardman, of New York, treasurer of the American Naval Stores Co., was fined $2,000.

Carl Moller, of Jacksonville, Fla., agent of the American and general manager of the National Transportation and Terminal Co., in Jacksonville, was fined $5,000.

Mr. Shofter and Mr. Myers were sentenced to terms in the Chatham county pail because they had been before the court two years ago, entering pleas of guilty.

Mr. Moller's sentence was made heavy because of his connection with the terminal yards in Jacksonville where regrading and reguaging were alleged to have taken place.

The case will be appealed to the United States court of appeals. A writ of error citing fifty-three grounds was filed immediately after sentence was passed. Nearly everything which the court permitted to come before the jury, to which the defense entered protest, was attacked.

Bond in the sum of $20,000 was given for the defendants, and they were released pending the determination of their appeal. The costs they must pay if the conviction and sentences stand will, it is said, reach $17,000.

ROBIN'S NEST IN CAR

Hatches Her Brood Despite Trip of Fully 1,200 Miles.

Richmond, Ind., May 15.— Three featherless baby robins are now nestled snugly beneath the sheltering wings of Mrs. Robin Red Breast, whose eccentric act of building her nest on the very edge of a journal box of a Pennsylvania freight car was discovered here a few days ago after the car had reached Richmond from New York City.

Mrs. Robin has already traveled a distance of 1,200 miles. The nest was built in New York and there the eggs were laid, but the railroad boys about the Pennsylvania freight office here decided the baby robins should be Hoosiers, and the car was run on a siding, where it has since remained undisturbed.

The eggs hatched out yesterday, and though the fledgling robins are not beautiful to gaze upon just at this time, the crowd of curious people that almost continuously surrounds the old freight car finds great interest.

Mrs. Robin Red Breast is so loyal to her maternal duties that she refuses to be frightened away by the throngs of visitors, and even amateur photographers who poke the noses of cameras very near to the nest are tolerated.

MONGREL SAVES BABY'S LIFE

Dog Has Won Home Since He Pushed Child From Railroad Track.

Onawa, Ia. May 15.—Lowe Palmer has changed his mind about disposing of a mongrel dog that recently attached itself to his household. The other night his daughter, 3 years old, wandered upon the Chicago & Northwestern railroad track just in front of a passenger train.

The engineer threw on the brakes, although he knew he could not stop the train in time to save the child. The dog sprang upon the track, pushed the little girl off with his nose, and then standing between her and the train, stood wagging his tail as the cars swept by.

MISSOURI CORN LAND

Ranks in Value Near the Top of All the Great Central States.

Columbia, Mo., May 15.—The value of farm land is fixed largely by its productiveness, and upon this basis Missouri rank near the top of all the great central states. The yield of corn per acre in the whole United States for ten years—1899-1908—was 258 bushels. Missouri produced, during the same ten years, 285.8 bushels, or 27.8 bushels more than the average. At 40 cents per bushel, the rental for Missouri corn land is $11.12 more per acre in ten years than the average for the United States; or, a yearly return of $1.11 higher than the average. Figuring the investment on a 6 per cent basis, Missouri corn lands are worth $18 more per acre than the average for the United States.

When we think of the great state of Kansas, we imagine great corn fields and long rows of corn bins bursting with corn, and yet, according to the United States department of agriculture, Missouri produced in the last ten years 54.9 bushels more corn per acre in Kansas; in other words, figuring the price of land on a 6 per cent investment, Missouri corn land will bring an annual rental of $2.19 more per acre than Kansas; as, as a business proposition, one acre of Missouri corn land is worth, upon a 6 per cent basis, $34 more than one acre of Kansas corn land.

Figures don't lie—and Missouri is a great corn state.

BECKLEY AN OLD-TIMER

Played Ball When His Teammates Were Helpless Infants.

Kansas City, Mo., May 15.—"I am certainly getting old all right," said Jake Beckley as he sat on the bench yesterday before the game. "Look at young O'Rourke out there playing short. I played with that boy's father before that boy was born, and here he is out here playing baseball against me, and his father left the game long ago. Just think how old I'm getting. I'm old enough in baseball to have a son playing with me.

"When you look over this gang of ball players in the American association you will find a lot of them who were not born when I started in the professional ranks. Nee, Hamilton, Love, Hetling, Wright, Larue and several others were in their cradles or were never even thought of when I was playing the first sack in league ball and was hitting .300. Now I'm outhitting them at my age. It makes me feel like a grandfather all right to think of it."

Julian was in the act of stabbing Herbert Burnett, the husband, when Mrs. Burnett grabbed a pistol and shot him in the abdomen. She gave herself up to the sheriff, but was released by State's Attorney W. C. Kane.

Three-Cent Fare on the Katy.

The Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad company announced Friday evening that, acting upon the advice of its legal department, it will place the 3-cent basis of passenger rates in effect in Missouri on Tuesday, May 25. This will be established as the maximum and the minmum rate for the Katy's line in Missouri.

No announcement has been made, as yet for the Gould lines, but it is generally understood that the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain, the Cotton Belt and the Wabash will adhere to the 2-cent basis until the cobweb of state litigation is swept away.

The state supreme court has set May 22 for the hearing in Jefferson City on the application of some of the lines for a writ prohibiting the state court from jurisdiction in the Missouri rate controversy.

HAS A WIFE IN SEDALIA

INFORMATION COMING TO LIGHT REGARDING A SUPPOSED CROOK.

FORMERLY RESIDED IN PETTIS COUNTY

When Arrested He Had Woman Companion, But She Was Not Married to Him, According to the Local Police.

Arnette Patterson, who is awaiting trial in criminal court for carrying burglars' tools, gave the police a fictitious name when arrested, as has been learned by Chief of Police W. H. Boullt, who, during the past few days, has gathered much data regarding the prisoner.

Patterson is no other than Arthur Thomas, a former Pettis county man, who, on March 18, 1906, was married to Genevieve E. Eusley by Thomas L. Johnson, probate judge, at Leavenworth, Kas.

This information was gained by Chief Boullt during the past week when he came into possession of the marriage certificate of Thomas, showing by whom and on what date the ceremony was performed.

Thomas' wife now resides in Sedalia. She is under police surveillance, the police fearing that if her location is known, accomplices of the prisoner will do her bodily harm unless she leaves the city.

According to information furnished the police by Mrs. Thomas, she was married to the prisoner on the fore going date. They lived together about six months, when he deserted her at Kansas City.

Shortly afterwards she came to Sedalia, where she has resided since. She will be kept under police guard until the time of trial, when she will be subpoenaed as a witness for the prosecution.

When confronted with the true facts about his marriage Thomas, alias Patterson, neither denied nor affirmed the accusation. As in the past, he said nothing and is considered one of the shrewdest and most obstinate criminals ever handled in annuls of criminal history in this county.

In addition to the charge pending against him here, it is stated by the police that Thomas is wanted at Denver, Colo., on another serious charge. It is also said he is wanted at various other places.

For several years past Thomas has led the life of a crook. His shrewd manner and cunning ability to deceive have always kept him out of the clutches of the police in various cities and his arrest here was merely an accident, it following the unexpected discharge of a Colt's revolver in the prisoner's apartments on Onio avenue.

Thomas was arrested on May 3 in company with Frank Brennan and a 20-year-old girl, who claims to be Thomas' wife. Each have been held to criminal court in the sum of $1,000, in default of which the trio was remanded to jail.

Their arrest is considered by the police to be the most important made in this county in years and before the date set for the trial it is said many sensational developments will be made.

Brennan and the woman follow Thomas' example and refuse to talk.

ACTOR, BLIND, PLAYS ROLE

"Lights Are Out," He Says, When Audience Applauds.

Cincinnati, Ohio, May 15.—"The lights have gone out," said Charlie Karlen, actor, when told it was time for him to get ready to go to the Grand opera house to take his part in "Tobasco Land," given Thursday night.

He said that when he awakened he could see nothing. He went to the window of his room, knew from the warmth of the suns rays and the noise from the busy street that it was daylight, yet all was dark to him.

Friends were called, an occulist summoned, but sight was not restored. He was told that the play, in which he had the leading part, would be a failure if he did not appear.

"I'll go, if you'll help me," he said to a friend. He went, was assisted into "stage clothes" and led in front of the footlights. He drilled through the whole play without the audience knowing that anything was wrong, and received round after round of applause, and still his "lights are out," as he expresed it.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

It is a safe medicine in any condition of the system. THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol and no injurious habit-forming drugs and which creates no craving for such stimulants.

THE ONE REMEDY so good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on each outside bottle-wrapper and attest to the truthfulness of the same under oath.

It is sold by medicine dealers everywhere, and any dealer who hasn't it can get it. Don't take a substitute of unknown composition for this medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. No counterfeit is as good as the genuine and the druggist who says something else is "just as good as Dr. Pierce's" is either mistaken or is trying to deceive you for his own selfish benefit. PANIC IN A CIRCUS TENT

HEAVY WIND IN CORY, PA., CAUSED CANVASS TO GIVE WAY.

PEOPLE CAUGHT UNDER FALLEN SEATS

Screams and Cries Created a Scene of Intense Excitement Before Rescuers Could Restore Order—No One Seriously Hurt.

Hearst News Service.

Cory, Pa., May 15.—There was a panic here tonight just before the beginning of the evening performance of Cole Brothers' circus, when the main tent blew down during a heavy gust of wind.

The people in the tent were caught unawares under the wet canvass, and mingled their shrieks with the whistles of the circus employes, who were rounding up the canvassmen to form rescue parties.

The falling of the tent caused the jacks supporting the seats to give way, and all crashed down on the people. Babies were torn from their mothers' arms, and families separated, all of which added to the confusion.

Calls were sent for physicians, and amid a pouring rain the work of rescue was started.

Many women had fainted, but although there were many bruises and minor injuries, no one appears to have been seriously injured.

Madison, Wis., May 17.—Mule drivers, stevedores and all other persons will soon be prohibited from using profanity in public in Wisconsin. Likewise it will be unlawful for people to use sulphurous language to the girl at the telephone exchange.

The lower house of the Wisconsin legislature has put the finishing touches to the Hull bill, making it a misdemeanor to swear in public.

The bill at first introduced simply prohibted swearing in the presence of minors under 18 years of age. When the bill reached the senate in that form, Senator Hudnall submitted an amendment striking out the reference to age. The amendment has been adopted and the bill passed.

NO 'PIE' FOR COL. KERENS

"THANKS," SMILES MR. TAFT FOR $56,000 CONTRIBUTION; THAT IS ALL.

PRESIDENT ASKS WHY CASH WAS SPENT

Hears Things Good and Otherwise, and Near-Diplomat Is Rejected—Mr. Kerens Refuses to Discuss the Situation.

Washington, May 17.—R. C. Kerens is now turned down cold, hard and definitely in his ambition to become United States Ambassador to Austria. Mr. Kerens will not get the Austrian, or any other diplomatic or conspicuous post under or in the Taft administration. For the $56,000 he spent in the republican campaign last fall, the old-line Missouri republican boss will get merely "thanks."

A correspondent is informed from the best administration sources that Herman G. Squiers, at present the minister to Panama, will succeed Charles S. Francis at the Vienna embassy.

It is a hot one for Senator Warner as well. Anxious to have the Kerens cash out of the coming senatorial fight, Warner wanted to place Kerens satisfactorily a long way from Missouri. Warner has wasted many a trip to the White House in behalf of Kerens. In the beginning Taft, anxious to recognize the people who tangibly contributed towards his election ,was inclined to appoint the Missourian.

The figures to Kerens' credit looked big. Chairman Frank Hitchcock, of the national committee, voiced the philosophy that, having produced, Kerens was entitled to a nice large one off the plum tree. "Col." Kerens' religious connections helped him out, and filed a long and strong list of endorsements at the White House.

The matter was carried so far that inquiry as to Mr. Kerens' acceptability was made to the Austrian government and a favorable response received. Because of his former and none too pleasant relations with the Kerens crowd in Missouri, Secretary Nagel maintained a neutral attitude throughout. Mr. Taft was unable to get a word for or against Kerens out of Nagel, which, probably, did not help Kerens much.

However, there were others out in Missouri not bound by circumstances to the neutral position. The Kerens record, from the "Star Route" days on, was unfolded, with all the malicious and interesting details, to the chief executive. That blunt person, Col. W. R. Nelson, of Kansas City, registered some very emphatic sentiments with Mr. Taft. The uplift crowd in general hammered Kerens.

A White House inquiry into the motives of the Kerens financial generosity was made. The conclusion was, Mr. Kerens had spent a vast lot of money, the major portion of the $56,000, to get the vote out—for Kerens. Consequently, the Taft mace now falls upon the gray hairs of the St. Louis would-be diplomat.

The opinion of the Missourians here is that the outcome will embarrass Warner. Presumably Kerens will not be pleased at being kicked off the White House map so unceremoniously. It is inferred, too, Kerens has plenty of money, some friends and a disposition to make trouble. Anyhow, Kerens would rather go to the senate than to Austria.

Kerens Won't Discuss Action.

St. Louis, Mo., May 17.—Col. Kerens declined to discuss the fact that he was not appointed ambassador to Austria.

He would not even say whether he would again enter the race for United States senator.

"I have no comment to make," was his only statement.

STOCK NOT WORTHLESS

A BLOCK AGGREGATING $40,000 CAME NEAR BEING LOST IN THE SHUFFLE.

IT WAS CONSIDERED WORTH NOTHING

Fort Scott Received an Offer of $8,000 for Old K., N. & D. Railway Bonds, Which City Clerk Nearly Threw Away.

Fort Scott, Kas., May 15.—Several weeks ago the officials of this city were very much surprised to receive an offer of $8000 for stock in the Kanhas, Nebraska & Dakota Railway company, that has been in the possession of the city for many years, and that was thought to be worthless.

The stock is in the original name of that branch of the Missouri Pacific, and as nothing had been heard of it for many years, in fact, since it was issued, it was thought to be merely another gold brick.

At the time of the construction of the K., N. & D. road Fort Scott subscribed liberally to the finances of the road. In return the city was given $40,000 in the stock of the company.

A short time after that the road was reorganized, and the stock was thought to be worthless.

At the time the city clerk's office was moved to its present location the stock, which had been hid away in an old shoe box in an obscure part of the vault, was about to be thrown away, when City Clerk J. O. Brown rescued it and moved it with the other effects of the office, little dreaming that it would soon be worth one-fifth of its original value to the city.

WOMAN SHOOTS RIOTERS

Claims Men Bombarding Saloon Struck Her With Rocks.

East St. Louis, Ill., May 17.—Mrs. Lulu Moore,wife of a saloonkeeper on the Belleville rock road, near here, Sunday fired into a crowd of men who were bombarding her husband's place of business with rocks and were cursing her, she says, and mortally wounded one and injured two others.

Robert Bagshaw, the man who is most seriously hurt, is shot through the abdomen and will not recover. Two of his companions were slightly wounded.

Bagshaw, according to Mrs. Moore's story of the police, said a crowd of men were in Moore's saloon drinking. They became boisterous and were ejected. On the outside they gathered rocks and commenced bombarding the saloon. Mrs. Moore, when she stepped to the door to remonstrate with the men, says they struck her with rocks and cursed her. She stepped inside, got her husband's gun and opened fire.

THE CHURCH WAS CROWDED

On the Occasion of Rev. Cooper's Stereopticon Service.

(From Monday's Daily.)

The services Sunday evening at the First Congregational church taxed the energies of the ushers, who sought to find a comfortable place for those in attendance. Every seat in the auditorium was taken, so the doors leading to the Sunday school room were thrown open, and even then chairs had to be brought to accommodate the audience.

The service was in the nature of a stereopticon service on the "Life of Christ." The pastor, Rev. Harold Cooper, gave an address on the early life of the Master, which was illustrated by copies of the famous masterpieces of art. The works of Correggio, Murillo, Hoffman and Raphael were reproduced in this way, and as they were projected upon the screen the audience reverently contemplated the One who was the center of their religious thought.

One of the features was a solo by and throws a fine picture, being an ty Nine." As she sang views were seen of the Master as He went to find the sheep that was lost.

It was announced that these services would be held every few weeks, and that the next one would be a continuation of the same subject.

The stereopticon is a first class one Mrs. Charles Bard, entitled, the "Nine electrical outfit. The congregation of the church is quite hopeful over the prospect because of the united effort of the membership.

SCORES WOMEN'S HATS

One Like Inverted Coal Scuttle Not Omen for Happy Marriage.

St. Louis, May 17.—Scoring the new style in women's hats, which, he said, resembled inverted coal scuttles, and upbraiding women and men for overzealous attention to dress, Father E. T. Finan, at Holy Angels church, Sunday said wives should not be chosen for their hats or their clothes, and a hat, like a bucket upside down, was not a good omen for a happy married life. Half the women in the congregation wore the new hats and tube gowns, and these called forth the remarks of the pastor.

Father Finan made a plea for the simple girl, modest in manner and attire, who, he said, would make the better wife. The frenzied and foolish pursuit after the extremes in fashion, as exemplified in the disnpan hat and the directoire gown, he asserted augured poorly for the permanency of matrimonial ventures.

She says he always was behind with his studies. Al G. Fields, the minstrel, whose real name is R. Hatfield, was in the same classes with Knox and Mrs. Norcross, and she says Fields, who was notably good-humored, devoted Thursday of each week to coaching Knox, which enabled him to keep up.

WAS ROBBED OF $20,000

A TRAIN ON THE GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY NEAR SPOKANE, WASH.

ESCAPE AFTER TERRORIZING EMPLOYES

Six Outlaws Speed the Detached Engine and Postal Car Against the Other Coaches.

Spokane, Wash., May 17.—In the hold-up of the Great Northern passenger train No. 3, between Colbert and Mead, shortly before midnight Saturday night, twelve persons were injured when the engine and mail car were sent running wild down the track by the bandits, after they had rifled the mails, and collided with the remaining cars of the train.

The bandits detached the engine and mail car from the train, ran them down the track for a considerable distance and then, after the registered mail had been opened, they sent the engine back to collide with the cars standing on the track.

The conductor saw the wild cars coming down the track at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour and he and one of the trainmen placed a tie on the track in an effort to stop their wild flight. The engine and car were partly stopped by this means, but plunged into the coaches. There was a crash, and passengers were thrown from their seats, most of the injured being hurt by glass from the broken windows.

Force Trainmen to Obey.

When the train reached Colbert some switching had to be done. While the engine crew was busy at this work two men suddenly appeared in the engine cab and thrust a revolver against the body of the engineer, William Miller, and ordered him to do as commanded.

The engineer and Fireman, John Hall, obeyed. The car was coupled on to the train and pulled out. After the train had proceeded for a few miles the engineer was ordered to stop and he and his fireman were forced to leave the cab.

Two robbers went to the door of the mail car and ordered it opened. Their command was obeyed by Benjamin F. Stumpf, the mail clerk.

Meanwhile two bandits were with the engineer and fireman, who were uncoupling the mail car and locomotive.

Soon after the train stopped Conductor C. L. Robertson jumped from the car but was driven back by a dozen revolver shots.

Hastily climbing into the cab, the outlaws sent the engine hurrying down the track—how far is not known.

As soon as the conductor was aware that there was a holdup he ordered a brakeman to the rear to prevent a collision and had another brakeman cut in the telephone wire to send word to Spokane.

A third member of the train crew was hurried to the station with the news.

Officers Quick on Trail.

About half an hour after the engine and mail car had disappeared they were seen coming down the track and hurried preparations were made to ditch the runaways.

Two special train loads of deputies were hurried from Spokane when the word of the hold-up was received

Doctors also were taken out on the train to care for the injured.

Chief Ryan, of Hillard, went out with a posse and surrounded all the roads leading to Spokane.

No trace of the robbers was found.

It is reported that the bandits obtained a large sum of money from the registered mail, the amount being placed at $20,000.

The two bandits who climbed into the cab are described as follows: One more than 6 feet tall, weight 190 pounds, face wrinkled, about 35 years old, evidently an experienced engineer.

One of the others is about 5 feet, 9 inches tall and weighing about 170 pounds

As they entered the cab the tall man said to the engineer:

"You have heard of us before," indicating that they had been involved in other similar train hold-ups in the vicinity of Spokane within the last few months.

A reward of $10,000 is offered for the arrest and conviction of each of the robbers.

The Rev. Ferrell Has Resigned.

The Rev. J. W. Ferrell, formerly of Lamonte, but recently of Purcell, Ok., has resigned as pastor of the Christian church there, and will retire from active work in the ministry. He has a son who is in the employ of a railway company in New Mexico, and will go there for an extended visit.

(From Monday's Daily.)

The Star Grocery company's baseball team, managed by Frank Helsley, met defeat at the hands of the Cole Camp team on the latter's diamond Sunday afternoon, the score being 12 to 6. Hugh Harvey, the "invincible," was the slab artist for Sedalia, while Calhoun acted as backstop for Harvey,s twisters.

S.S.S.

CURES BLOOD POISON

Removing the symptoms is not all that is necessary to cure Contagious Blood Poison. The virulent germs which produce these outward manifestations must be completely driven from the blood before a real cure can be effected. The least taint left in the circulation will, sooner or later, cause a fresh outbreak of the trouble, with all the hideous symptoms of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper colored splotches, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc.

Contagious Blood Poison is the most treacherous of all diseases. It has its victims in its power almost before they realize its presence, because its first symptom is usually a little sore or pimple so insignificant that it does not excite suspicion. But the insidious poison is at work on the blood and in a short while the patient finds he is more or less affected from head to foot.

Contagious Blood Poison is too dangerous to trifle with. No time should be lost in ridding the blood of this destructive poison, and in no disease is it more important to have the proper remedy. Medicines which merely check the symptoms for a time and leave the real cause smouldering in the system have brought misery and disappointment to thousands. Faithfully the sufferers took such treatment, usually of mineral nature, and when all symptoms had disappeared and the treatment was left off, found the virus had only been shut up in the system awaiting a favorable opportunity to return, with every symptom intensified.

S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison and cures it permanently. It goes down into the blood and removes every particle of the poison, makes the circulation pure and healthy, and does not leave the slightest trace of the disease for future outbreaks. S. S. S. is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, all of which are healing and cleansing in their nature. It does not contain a particle of mineral in any form to injure the delicate parts of the system. S. S. S. will also drive out any lingering remains of mineral poison that may be in the blood from the former treatment. If you are suffering with Contagious Blood Poison S. S. S. will cure you, because it will purify your blood. Home treatment book and any medical advice free to all who write.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

CURED SOUND AND WELL.

Dear Sirs:—I didn't find out that I had contracted Contagious Blood Poison until it had made considerable headway, and fortunately for me the friend that I first consulted had had some experience with the disease, and advised me to take S. S. S., so I didn't fool with any doctors, but began at once the use of your medicine, taking it as directed. My friend told me to stick to it, and that was what I did and got along splendidly from the very first, and my recovery was rapid. I took a number of bottles, and am now as well as ever. When I began S. S. S. my face was so full of sores and eruptions that I could not shave, and now there is not a blotch or pimple on my body. There is nothing in the world that can beat S. S. S. for Blood Poison, and I always recommend it for such cases. A friend of mine is taking it now, and is getting along nicely.

COVERED WITH SORES.

I was afflicted with a terrible blood disease, which was in spots at first, but afterwards spread all over my body. These soon broke out into sores, and it is easy to imagine the suffering I endured. Before I became convinced that the doctors could do me no good, I had spent a hundred dollars, which was really thrown away. I then tried various patent medicines, but they did not reach the disease. When I had finished my first bottle of S. S. S. I was greatly improved, and was delighted with the result. The large red splotches on my chest began to grow paler and smaller, and before long disappeared entirely. I regained my lost weight, became stronger and my appetite greatly improved. I was soon entirely well, and my skin as clear as a piece of glass.

THE USUAL SYMPTOMS.

Having used S. S. S. quite extensively, I am in position to know its virtues. As the result of a serious blood disorder my blood became poisoned and I suffered severely with Rheumatism and other symptoms not necessary to mention. A friend told me he had been cured of my trouble by S. S. S. and upon his recommendation I began its use. After using it for some time my blood was thoroughly cleansed of all poisons and made pure and strong again.

I wish also to speak of its tonic properties. It built up my general health, it improved my appetite, gave me increased strength, and I felt better in every way. I am a great believer in S. S. S., and with pleasure recommend it to all who need a good blood medicine.

Miss Hunt, a Trained Nurse, Gets Heavy Verdict for Injuries.

New York, May 17.—One of the largest verdicts ever awarded for personal injuries in the supreme court was given Saturday to Miss Addie M. Hunt, a trained nurse, who lost both legs in an accident at Great Neck, L. I., as she was boarding a train of the Long Island railroad.

She sued the railroad company for $100,000. In the trial, which was finished Saturday, Raymond Hitchcock and his wife, Flora Zabelle, testified for Miss Hunt, they having seen the accident.

The jury first brought in a verdict of $25,000, but on motion of Miss Hunt's counsel, Justice Brady set it aside as inadequate. After deliberating several hours longer, the jury awarded the injured woman $58,000. Miss Hunt appeared in court on crutches.

THE OLDEST PRISONER

IN UNITED STATES IS COMING OUT INTO THE WORLD AT AN EARLY DATE.

WILLIAM P. GLYNDON TWICE ESCAPED MOB

War Barely Closed When He Entered Cell Door—Never Seen Electric Car, Automobile or Telephone.

Des Moines, Ia., May 17.—William P. Glyndon, the oldest prisoner in the United States, is to be pardoned from the Iowa state penitentiary. He has been incarcerated thirty-one years. Before his conviction a mob twice had a rope around his neck, but was beaten back by sheriffs and deputies.

During his first years of incarceration he worked before the mouths of four furnaces, stopped at night with his clothes wringing wet, with perspiration, and had no change. From this he contracted catarrh, which has deafened one ear and blinded one eye. He is now 71 years old, but has not a single gray hair in his head. He has lived eight years beyond the prison expectancy of life.

During the time he has been in prison the world has moved. He has never seen an electric street car, has never used a telephone, has never seen an automobile, never beheid a modern sky scraper, never saw moving pictures, and hardly believes an airship is possible. His friends are somewhat apprehensive as to his being able to accommodate himself to the world's ways.

He is going to Cedar Rapids for a while with friends to gradually become acquainted with the ways of living free. The war had hardly closed when he was sent to prison. He was a member of the Seventh Independent Company of Sharpshooters of Ohio, commanded by General Squires, of Washington.

During these long years of confinement he has been drawing a pension from the government of $12 a month. Part of this has been used for medical attention. He has enough left, however, to keep him comfortably.

He was born in a house situated on the county line between Columbian and Carroll counties, Ohio, and his real name is James R. Sanders. He came to Iowa to join a threshing crew. Just before his arrival a man named William Glyndon disappeared from the crew and the men began calling him Glyndon. The name stuck and when he was arrested he was glad his right name had been overlooked. He was convicted of murdering a girl in Grundy county, but always protested his innocence.

A previous murder in that county had incensed the people and after Glyndon's arrest a mob gathered. While he was in the sheriff's carriage the mob leader slipped a rope noose over his neck. The sheriff and a number of deputies drove the crowd back.

In his sworn statement to the board of parole Glyndon recounts how the sheriff, leaving what he thought was a pursuing mob, unshackled him, sent the driver ahead into the woods and took him into a corn field. He says the sheriff told him that he would give him a revolver to defend himself and make his escape, as he would rather search the entire United States for him than have him lynched. He exacted a promise of Glyndon to peacefully return the weapon in case it was not needed. They entered the corn field and Glyndon, with a revolver in his hand stood by the side of the sheriff. The noise developed to be a couple of men driving a herd of cattle.

After they had passed Glyndon returned the revolver to the sheriff and they proceeded to jail, where Glyndon was confined until tried, convicted and sent to his long imprisonment. He has seen all the living prisoners at Fort Madison arrive and has seen many dead ones removed. He has gone through this strange ordeal looking more like a man of 50 than one of 71. Residents of Grundy county who are personally acquainted with his harrowing experiences say he exhibited a remarkable coolness and nerve, which is probably responsible for his full head of black hair and long life. He says it is because he is innocent.

'LUG YOUR OWN JUG HOME'

Hickory County Grand Jury Requires It of Imbibers.

Springfield, Mo., May 17.—The grand jury of Hickory county, which has just concluded its session at Hermitage, called upon the prosecuting attorney to enforce the law against druggists who have been guilty of violating the law and to call the attention of freighters to the fact that in hauling boxes containing whisky, or unmarked boxes containing liquor, they must deliver them only to the persons to whom they are consigned.

The grand jury went even further in its efforts to enforce the law against the selling of liquor by notifying merchants in every town in the country that they violate the law every time they permit a man with a thirst to store or leave in their possession a case of beer or a demijohn of whisky until it is called for.

These orders, direct from the grand jury, virtually require every man who brings liquor into the county to lug home his own jug and put it under lock and key.

A FLIGHT OF 74 MILES

BALLOON "YANKEE" DESCENDS AT COVINGTON, ILL., SATURDAY NIGHT.

JOHN BERRY WELL PLEASED WITH TRIP

St. Louis Aeronaut, Single-Handed, Makes Successful Landing—Was Favored With Excellent Weather Conditions.

Nashville, Ill., May 17.—John Berry, the aeronaut, who started from St. Louis Saturday afternoon, landed at Covington, Washington county, Ill., at 10 o'clock Saturday night, after what he expressed as a delightful trip.

He traveled about seventy-four miles in an air line from St. Louis. His flight from St. Louis was favored with excellent weather conditions, and until he eached Okawville his balloon stayed at a high altitude.

Just one mile north of Okawville he passed near the ground while going over the farm of W. A. Kugler. Mrs. Kugler heard a strange noise and looking up, saw the balloon. She invited the aeronaut down to spend all night with them, and he jokingly replied by inviting her up to take a spin with him. From there his balloon ascended and flew five more miles, landing on the farm of Louis Going.

Before landing Mr. Berry inquired of the farmer if it would be satisfactory for him to land there, and upon receiving an affirmative reply prepared to anchor his balloon. He passed Okawville at 7:30 o'clock, and it was 10 o'clock when he had his big gas bag safely stowed away.

Sunday morning Going loaded the aircraft on a wagon and drove it and the pilot to Okawville. Owing to the refusal of the railroad company to take the baggage on an early train, Mr. Berry was compelled to remain until late last evening before departing for his home in St. Louis.

He was highly elated over his trip, it not being marred by a single unavoidable incident. Mr. Berry stated that the approaching darkness caused him to make the landing, he being loathe to fly in the dark. But for this condition, he states, he could have traveled many more miles. Early Sunday morning he called his St. Louis friends and told them of the success of his trip.

Mr. Berry tried a new experiment in the form of a mechanism to attract the attention of people all along, due to the peculiar sound of his device. Okawville and Covington were the only places where he got close enough to mother earth to converse with the people.

RICH GIRL WEDS CHAUFFEUR

Surprises Staid Society by Marrying Discharged Servant.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 17.—Greatly to the surprise of Philadelphia society it became known Saturday that Miss Bertha G. Bergdoll, the $2,000,000 heiress of the late multimillionaire, Louis Bergdoll, had married her chauffeur, and is now Mrs. Albert Hall.

A week ago Miss Bergdoll became of age and inherited her fortune under her father's will. She left her mother's home, with the announcement that in future she would be her own mistress. Then she purchased a home of her own.

Friday afternoon she met Hall, who was discharged by the Bergdolls some months ago, and together they took out a license to marry. They went to the newly purchased home and were married.

A DOCTOR'S MIND IS GONE

PHYSICIAN REQUESTS EXAMINATION INTO MENTAL CONDITION.

EXPERTS FIND DIAGNOSIS WAS RIGHT

Medical Adviser Now a Patient in Institution He Served—The Case Is One of Peculiar Sadness.

Elgin, Ill., May 17. — Dr. J. H. Daugherty, for many years a physician in the insane asylum here, has been declared to be insane, and is a patient in the institution in which he has long been a medical adviser. His insanity is the result of sympathetic suggestion, and he realized for some time before his mind was shattered that he was in danger.

The official examination into Dr. Daugherty's condition was made at his own request to Superintendent Padstata. He said he was insane and an examination by experts verified his statement and he was put under treatment.

Two months ago Dr. Daugherty began to act queerly. He was the first to notice it and he immediately asked for a leave of absence. He said he believed if he left the asylum and saw new scenes he would be restored to his normal condition. The request for a vacation was granted and Dr. Daugherty went away.

He was gone several weeks and when he returned a few days ago he was seemingly entirely recovered. Physically he was sound and mentally there was nothing apparently the matter with him. He was restored to his old duties and expressed the opinion that he was fully recovered.

No sooner did he resume his work in the asylum than the old feeling that he was irresponsible returned to him. He tried to throw off the belief, but his will power was insufficient. He had seen too many cases of insanity not to recognize the sypmtoms and he decided that his long association with the insane had cost him his mind.

He asked for an examination, hoping that he was wrong and that he was only morbid. The verdict of the experts was that he was insane.

He will undergo treatment and it is hoped that he can be saved, but other physicians are averse to expressing any definite opinion as to the outcome.

Dr. Daugherty's case is not unique. About three years ago a physician in the Kankakee asylum became violently insane and it was necessary to restrain him. Fortunately for Dr. Daugherty, he recognized his symptoms before his case had become hopeless.

STORM OF FRIDAY NIGHT

THREE DEAD, SIX MISSING AND 55 INJURED, SEVERAL OF THEM SERIOUSLY.

TOWN OF HOLLIE, KANSAS, WAS WRECKED

Storm Was General Over Northwestern Missouri, Eastern and Central Kansas, and Extended Into Oklahoma.

Associated Press.

Kansas City, Mo., May 15.—A recapitulation of last night's storm, general over Northwestern Missouri, Eastern and Central Kansas and extending into Oklahoma, and which in places reached the proportions of a tornado, shows three known dead, six missing, fifty-five injured and at least half a dozen seriously. No additional deaths were reported among the injured up to noon today.

The principal damage was done at Hollis, a small village near Concordia, Kan., and at Mount Washington, Mo., a suburb of Kansas City. In both of these places a majority of the houses were either damaged or demolished, and dozens injured.

The dead are:

Frederick Jeardes, a boy at Hollis, Kan.

William Elliott, a carpenter, blown from a scaffold at Chitwood, near Joplin, Mo.

William Ackley, engineer of the Santa Fe pile driver, working near Great Bend, Kan.

The missing are:

Charles Quance, a ranchman, from north of Larned, Kan., and five members of the family of a farmer named Eckstrom, whose house near Hollis was destroyed.

Those injured at Mount Washington, Mo., number twenty-two, three perhaps fatally; near Great Bend, Kan., twenty, mostly members of the crew of a Santa Fe work train, which was blown from the track; at Hollis, Kan., three; Rosedale View, a Kansas suburb of Kansas City, two; in the vicinity of Hoisington, Kan., four; at Pond Creek, Okla., four.

The report last night that Frank Nicholson, conductor on the work train blown from the tracks near Heiser, Kan., was killed, proved incorrect. He was seriously hurt, but probably will recover.

Storm at St. Joseph.

St. Joseph, Mo., May 15.—The heaviest rain in several years washed out sewers, flooded cellars and interfered with street cars here last night.

The rural carriers met at the postoffice last night and aside from the regular routine of business, discussed good roads. C. A. Thomas, of the Twelve Mile Road district, and C. W. Denny, county highway engineer, were guests of the carriers. Other visitors were the following carriers from adjoining towns: Collins, Beaman; Woodson, Hughesville; McNair, Lamonte; Willis, Green Ridge, and Fowler, Dresden.

Killed a Whopping Big Snake.

R. F. Dean Saturday brought to the Democrat-Sentinel office one of the largest rattlesnakes ever exhibited in this city. The reptile measured five feet and six inches and was killed by a farmer named Duke, seven miles west of Sedalia, on the Main street road, Friday night.

The snake carried four rattles when killed, but judging from the size it must have had twelve or more originally.

The O'Connor Property Sold.

The O'Connor property, consisting of a modern ten-room residence and lot, at 901 West Third street, was sold Saturday to Thomas A. Majors, recently of north of Sedalia, who will move into his new home tomorrow. The price paid was $4,000 and other considerations. The Misses O'Connor and brother, Charles, will move closer to town on the same street.

NEW STATE FAIR LAW

LEGISLATURE SATURDAY DESIGNATES SEDALIA AS PERMANENT LOCATION.

PROVIDES FOR FUTURE APPROPRIATIONS

Allowed $76,000 This Year for the Institution, Most of Which Will Be Expended for New Buildings—Aid From Counties.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

The Missouri legislature passed a bil at 2 o'cock Saturday morning, after an all night session, revising the law governing the state fair.

The new law provides that county courts throughout the state may appropriate funds to enable the county to make an exhibit of the resources of the county at the state fair. It also repeals that part of the old law which stated that future appropriations should not be made by the state and provides that appropriations shall be made at each biennial session of the legislature. It also increases the salaries of the officers of the state fair, including the secretary.

The revised law now stipulates that the state fair shall remain at Sedalia, and that city shall be the permanent seat.

The appropriation bills passed both the senate and the house at about the same time, the state fair getting $76,000, $40,000 of which is for buildings, $17,000 for land and $15,000 for agricultural live stock and educational premiums, $3,000 for repairs and $1,000 for insurance.

NEGRO WANTED A FIGHT

Created a Disturbance on Katy Train, but Was Laid Out.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Ben Walker, the genial and polite M., K. & T. passenger conductor, who has never posed as other than a good railroad man, also possesses the ability of a metropolitan police officer, which fact he evidenced very plainly Saturday night.

Ben was returning to Sedalia from Parsons on train No. 4. At Montrose a burly negro, overcome with liquor, boarded the train, destined for Clinton. He had just entered the car when he became obstreperous and wanted to fight; in fact, he harbored the hallucination that he could whip anybody and everybody.

Ben is a man who seldom seeks for arguments of any nature, but being the conductor of the train he kindly requested the negro to take his seat and be quiet. The negro objected and wanted to fight the conductor. An officer on the train showed the "yellow" streak in his back and refused to do anything. The negro had about conquered the train crew and passengers, and like Napoleon sighed for more train crews to conquer, when Ben politely and without any ceremony, seized a poker and floored him.

The negro was unconscious for several minutes. When he regained his senses he behaved and alighted from the train without any trouble.

He then gashed his own throat with the same knife.

ROBBERY CAUSES MISHAP

A Theft From a Box Car Results in the Car's Derailment.

At 9:30 o'clock Friday night J. L. Phelan, an M., K. & T. conductor, and George Cole, an engineer, started for Parsons, Kas., with a southbound extra freight train, which was made up in the east yards.

Several minutes after starting the train was suddenly stopped by one car being derailed.

The crew began an investigation and discovered that a car of merchandise on the train had been broken into and several caddies of chewing tobacco had been thrown from the car.

The "nasty weed," four boxes of it, fell on the rails, causing the car to be derailed. After fifteen minutes' work the car was replaced, and, after removing the tobacco to the yard office the train proceeded to Parsons.
